

THEATER.
Friendship is a precious treasure—
Use it well!
It will give you without measure;
Slight it not, and never blindly
Treat it coldly or unkindly—
Use it well!
Honor is a precious jewel—
Use it well!
It is never cold and cruel;
It is warm, and kind, and cheering,
Noble, exalting and ennobling—
Use it well!
Truth is a treasure great and glorious—
Honor for the rich and noble;
But the wealth that leads to golden—
Use it well!
Courage is a mighty treasure—
Use it well!
It will give you strength and pleasure;
It will drive away all sadness;
By the compass power of gladness—
Use it well!
Hope is a gem with light and glory—
Use it well!
While the hours are swiftly flying
Let us live in the present;
Lead us on through paths of duty—
Use it well!
Memento of the richest treasure—
Use it well!
They will bring them all pleasures
But to be true to the light,
And to be true to the right—
Use it well!

MATRIMONIAL SWIPER.
Recent revelations in connection with the Wright divorce case, tried in St. John, will add somewhat to the list of matrimonial swipers who are being exposed by the courts in this Province. The case of Wright and his wife, Mrs. Wright, is being tried by the St. John court.

GRATEFUL MAN.
Soon after noon Saturday a well-dressed man about thirty-five years of age called on a dry goods store on Woodcock Avenue and inquired for the proprietor. "Will you have the kindness to tell me the time of day?"

THEY DIDN'T MEAN ANYTHING.
Yesterday noon while three or four persons were waiting at the corner of Woodcock Avenue and St. John Street, a man in a dark suit and a woman in a light dress were talking to each other. The man was talking to the woman and she was talking to the man.

NO ORGAN FOR OLD.
Some of the members were discussing the question of having an organ for the church. "What are you passing round that for?"

OLD S' UNDELLA.
During the night the other day, was the Alberta Zivich. Old S' Undezza had his umbrella down on a counter in a store. When he got ready to go out the article was missing. He turned to some clerk near and said—
"What's that umbrella that I put there on that counter?"
"We didn't see it," replied one.
"No, we didn't see it," replied another.
"No, we didn't see it," replied a third.
"Here's your umbrella, Sir," said the merchant, who had put it down to keep the dripping of the counter.
"I don't see it," said Old S' Undezza, who had his umbrella down on the counter. "I don't see it," said Old S' Undezza, who had his umbrella down on the counter.

GEORGE BONE BARRETT.
In Kentucky they are little bit of a different kind. There is a "Clock of the Weather" on his representative in the bank who passes under the name of "Old Pro" and is in accordance with the barometer indications made by the barometer of a person. This instrument is a clock of the weather, and it is a clock of the weather.
