

POOR DOCUMENT

LOCAL NEWS.

Jottings on Events as they Happen about Town.

The Ebb and Flow of Civic and Suburban Life.

Back to the Colonial. Death of Mrs. Woods.

To Arrive.

A large stock of fine confectionery to arrive at W. H. Golden's. See adv.

Appointments.

George L. Wilson and A. Kortwright. Neales to be Public Notaries.

Improving.

Judge Standman is slowly improving in health. He may spend the winter in Southern California.

Hot: Heat.

J. H. Fleming is now showing an elegant line of hats, latest styles. Give him a call before purchasing. See adv.

Electrician.

The trial of the electrician against the number for Queen is set for December 22, the court opening at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Black Battle.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. G. Fred. Chastain this issue, advertising the wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, etc., and prepared only by himself.

Remanded to Jail.

McKenna, the prisoner charged with stealing a horse and buggy from John B. Orr, was remanded to jail by the police magistrate Wednesday morning to await his trial at the court.

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. Brydson Jack, Victoria, had a narrow escape on Monday from a serious accident on Government street, when he was picked out of his dog-cart, the horse in which ran away.

Accident.

A little grandson of James Briggs, of Morrison's Mills, was run over by a heavy truck on Wednesday last, the wheel passing over his leg and badly breaking the bone just above the knee. Dr. Seely attended him.

Back to the Colonial.

Mr. Geo. F. Atherton who moved from this city to Woodstock some years ago, has moved back again and will occupy the house just vacated by T. W. Smith. The many friends of Mr. Atherton welcome him back again to the colonial.

The Odell Estate.

The estate of the late Senator Odell is valued at $50,000; $20,000 real and $30,000 personal. The real estate is divided between the widow and Capt. Odell. The personal estate is divided between the widow and his three sisters.

Beating the Record.

A bull belonging to Beverly Robinson, of Nashua, while attempting to swim across the creek, became entangled in some rubbish in the stream and was drowned. Before Mr. Robinson discovered his loss, some parties had skinned and carried off the hide of the animal.

Death of Mrs. Woods.

Mrs. Hamilton Woods, who has been ill for some time, died Thursday morning last about 6 o'clock. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss. The family have the sympathy of all in this sad bereavement. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Imagination.

Imagination is a great thing. It will make a well man sick, a sick man well. But who can imagine the surprise of a man who went into the store of C. H. Thomas & Co., the other day with a ten dollar bill to buy an overcoat, expecting to pay that much and have the sympathy of all in this sad bereavement. This is what he told a friend afterwards. Why you know the coat I expected to pay $10 for was only $6, and so I got an overcoat, 2 suits of all wool underwear, a top shirt, pair of braces and a pair of gloves, all $6, just what I expected to pay for the coat. You can just imagine how pleased I was, and you can bet I am going to buy all my goods at C. H. Thomas & Co.'s after this. So say we all.

A Halifax Bignamist.

Halifax has another bignamist case. Eight years ago John H. Lane married Liza Hamilton at Sheet Harbor—a peaceful settlement on the Atlantic coast, fifty miles from Halifax. Lane was usually employed at good wages and their union was blessed with four children. Two years ago the man went to Halifax and from his wife's weakness his affection for her. At least it seems so, for the other day he was arrested by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, charged with bigamy. By the second marriage he had one child. He was up before the stipendiary magistrate Thursday for preliminary examination. Lane has been employed for some time as keeper of the telegraphical railway bridge across the Narrows to Dartmouth.

A Whiskey Still.

A Bathurst merchant charged with running a whiskey still.

The story runs thus: A prominent merchant of Bathurst had a fancy for farming, and to test his ability purchased a farm from a Frenchman in that locality. The farm was a good one, but the merchant was not able to make it pay; so in order not to lose more than was necessary on the transaction he established an illicit whiskey still, and got the Frenchman from whom he had purchased the farm, to run it. This the man agreed to and did run it for some time, until it suddenly occurred to him that he would like the farm back, so he went to the owner of the farm and still and asked for the farm for nothing. If he was refused he would tell the authorities about the whiskey racket. The merchant thought the man was trying a bluff game and of course refused. Mr. Frenchman, however, gave the matter away, with the result that the authorities pounced down and captured the still and its owner and all. Just what will be done is not yet known.

Going into Liquidation.

The Montreal Herald is to undergo a change of management. The company has gone into liquidation. The New England Paper Company have been granted a winding up order, and W. J. Whyte has been appointed provisional liquidator. He has obtained permission to carry on the business pending the meeting of the creditors, which takes place to-day. The Herald was founded 83 years ago.

Advertisements in this paper.

B. Yerxa & Co.,

YORK STREET.

We are offering Great INDUCEMENTS TO CASH BUYERS Up to the New Year 1892, on All Groceries. It will Pay you to Call and See Us and Get Our Prices.

TEA, SUGAR & COFFEE A SPECIALTY.

B. YERXA & CO.

EVENTS AROUND US.

Happenings of the Week Throughout the Province.

U. R. K. of P. met Wednesday for a drill at the drill hall.

Now is the time to buy a fine winter overcoat at C. H. Thomas & Co.'s. See adv.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of B. Yerxa & Co. who are now offering great inducements to cash buyers.

Blanche Akerman, charged with keeping a house of ill repute, acknowledged the charge and paid the usual fine.

Joe McDonald, of Chatham, was sentenced to four months for robbing Dr. Street's carriage house of harness and robes.

Dr. Condit removed a tumor from the eyelid of a little three-year-old daughter of Mr. Frank Clark, on Wednesday morning last.

Wm. W. Everett, son of Benj. A. Everett, prop. of Lons Hotel, died Monday last. The remains were buried at Kingsdale Wednesday afternoon.

E. W. Jarvis, for several years teller of the branch Bank of Montreal at Moncton, received orders to go to Winnipeg. He left Thursday for the West.

The strike at Edgemoor & Sons factory Monday last has been settled, and the men are all at work again. The hours are now from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m.

Two young men named Burns and Andrews have been arrested at Sussex on suspicion of attempting to rob the C. P. R. train near that place on the 12th inst.

A lad named Charlie Cull had one of his arms broken the other evening, by falling while playing leap frog with the range of posts in front of the I. C. R. depot, St. John.

Mr. W. D. Sherman has resumed his duties as Inspector of Customs on night service at Milltown, having been appointed to said position by Collector Carson during the past week.

The steamer Andia collided with the schooner Bertha Masd when going into her berth at Indiantown the other day. The steamer's paddle box was damaged and the schooner's cabin was broken.

A. F. Randolph, His Worship the Mayor, and Sheriff Sterling, have been appointed arbitrators for the purpose of distributing the estate of the late John Edgemoor who died without having completed his will.

The other day when Michael Collins, of Fairville, St. John, was getting out of his wagon at Wood's stable on King's Square, he was reared and flung him against the curb stones, breaking his leg near his ankle.

Moore, Clark & Sons, of Chatham, have purchased a dynamo and expect to have the lights running again in a few weeks.

B. Belyea, one of the principals in the famous Hampton liquor case, who has been sentenced to jail for alleged violation of the Scott Act, was released from custody, in accordance with Judge Palmer's order, the requisite bail having been furnished.

Mr. Jarvis Wilson, of Moncton, has been appointed to the position of public accountant for the Province of New Brunswick, and will take office on the 1st of January next.

Mr. Wilson was walking over some lumber in their pond and was struck and killed by a falling log.

Rev. Mr. McKay assisted by Rev. J. McCoy. The newly wedded couple took the train for Montreal en route for Wisconsin after their bridal tour.

A drowning accident occurred at Avondale, Carleton county, Saturday. Two lads named Tracy and Sherwood, about fourteen years of age, went skating on the mill-pond. About two hours after one of the boys' heads, in passing, noticed a hole in the pond which aroused suspicion. He immediately collected a crowd, and upon reaching in the hole the two boys were found in an upright position just below the surface.

Two of our young blood, rivals for the smile of the same young lady, met at Canada House corner Tuesday evening and hostilities soon began. It was St. John against Chatham, and St. John won, the Chatham youth being knocked out in one round. He ran at once to the Police Magistrate for a warrant for his opponent, and was given a summons. The case will come up in court Thursday morning.—World.

John Williams, of Canterbury Station, met with a very serious accident the other day. He, with his son, was driving in a wagon, and had with him a gun, heavily loaded with shot and bullet for a bear. In some way the gun was discharged, the contents entered Mr. Williams' left arm, above the elbow, shattering it in a fearful manner. Drs. Rivest and Ouler were called, who found it necessary to amputate the arm at the shoulder joint. Young Williams narrowly escaped, receiving only a few slight flesh wounds.

Going into Liquidation.

The Montreal Herald is to undergo a change of management. The company has gone into liquidation. The New England Paper Company have been granted a winding up order, and W. J. Whyte has been appointed provisional liquidator. He has obtained permission to carry on the business pending the meeting of the creditors, which takes place to-day. The Herald was founded 83 years ago.

Advertisements in this paper.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Turf.

Two world records were broken at Stockton Cal., on Tuesday. The yearling filly Frou was driven in 2:26, beating Bill Bird's time a quarter of a second; she finished the last quarter in 28 seconds.

Tuna, a yearling filly, paced a mile in 2:24, breaking her world's record 2:25; she finished the last quarter in 28 seconds.

All Stars.

Moncton proposes having a kite-shaped track.

E. Le Roi Willis, of St. John, has purchased the celebrated Ames pacer.

The St. John and Mount Allison foot ball teams play a game to-day on the A. A. grounds.

The St. John Gazette says: Lady Sim, who has been laid up since September, will be out on the first snow, bright as a new pin.

The annual meeting of the St. John Amateur athletic club was held in the Gordon Division hall last night. The receipts for the year were $2,250.88. The expenditures for Jan. 15 last. Articles of agreement were adopted, and a balance on hand of $18.79.

The ladies' pavilion has been built at a cost of $75.82. This statement shows that the club are not falling behind, but are about $1,000 richer this year than last.

John L.'s Choice English.

The Toronto Mail publishes these John L. Sullivan game of speech: "One night these Australians sought made me tired, and I was to 'em: 'Come up here, you loafers, and I'll put tails on you,' but they don't come, understand! The Australian audience was led, because day late Americans. Why, de County Fair is living on its trunk over in Australia, and Evangelists can't change its shirt, 'cause day have no credit at the laundry."

The Ring.

A cable dispatch from London to the Police Gazette states that Paddy Slavin has just signed articles to box Peter Jackson for the purse of $2,000 offered by the National Club. The winner to receive $1,750 and the loser $250. Each man is to put up $200 as a guarantee that he will appear in the ring before Jan. 15 next. Articles of agreement were forwarded to Jackson, in care of the California Athletic Club of San Francisco.

"Shinky" Shanahan, late of Pittsford, and Thomas Fitzgerald of Chicago met in the prize ring at Chicago yesterday, and the latter won in one round. The fight was for a purse of $50.

When Schaefer and Stoeness Will Play.

The match for the world's championship at billiards between Schaefer and Stoeness were to have played in New York on December 22 has been postponed by mutual consent until January 22. It will be played at the Lenox lyceum, instead of Chickering hall, and will be 500 points, for a stake of $1,000. Schaefer is to be allowed $250 for expenses in case he loses. Schaefer won the emblem many months ago in a match with Stoeness. Stoeness keeps on practicing steadily, and is making better progress than ever before in his life. He says that he never had his stroke down so fine, and he is studying a system of play that he believes will land him a winner again.

AN OTTAWA.

Canadian Vessels at the Mercy of Newfoundland.

Headed by the Minister of the Navy.

Interviewed the other afternoon regarding the refusal of Newfoundland to allow Canadian vessels to obtain landing permits, Minister Tupper stated that the law officers of the imperial government had expressed the opinion that Newfoundland had no constitutional power to enforce the ban against residents of other British colonies, and that the imperial government had asked that a joint case be prepared by the dominion and Newfoundland for submission to the imperial prize council, with a view of obtaining similar articles from the United States free, thus placing the whole trade of that colony in the hands of some important evidence was given in the Connolly-McGreavy conspiracy before the police court to-day after which counsel for the crown asked for a postponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

Minister Foster stated to-day that the visit of Mr. Adamson, Barrow-Furness shipbuilder, has no connection with the negotiations for an ocean steamship service. Mr. Adamson simply desired to show the government models of some vessels which his firm are constructing.

Hon. Mr. Chaplin left to-day for a post-ponement until Monday on account of the absence of Mr. Ouler. Defendant counsel protested against allowing the trial along indefinitely by repeated adjournments when witnesses were ready for examination. Judge Ross granted the adjournment. The position of Mr. Ouler being discussed in legal circles. He cooperated with the lawyers for McGreavy and Connolly before the privileges and elections committee in resisting Tupper's charges, and presumably enjoyed the confidence of, and obtained information from, McGreavy and the Connollys, whom he is now engaged in prosecuting. Some lawyers say that on the surface Mr. Ouler appears to be acting unprofessionally.

THE WORLD OVER.

The Spirit of the Press of all Countries.

A Synoptic History of the Times.

Itemized and Arranged for every-day Convenience.

A despatch from Rio Janeiro says the members of Fonseca's cabinet have resigned.

The break in the conflict at Brooklyn was repaired last night and the water famine is ended.

The Eastport Sardinia Company's factory on French's wharf was burned Monday night. Loss $12,000.

Rev. Thomas Hill Ex President of Harvard College died in Waltham last Saturday morning aged 73.

LeBellevin & Roy, dry goods and clothing Montreal, have assigned, with liabilities of $34,000 and assets $20,000.

Fire at Paragould, Ark., Sunday night, did damage to the extent of $100,000. A heavy snow storm prevailed at the time.

Col. Gardner Tufts, superintendent of the Massachusetts Reformatory, died Monday night of pneumonia, aged 68 years.