

received the government will also work. The chief commis-

AGAIN REMANDED. Her Case Stands Over Until Next Tuesday—Other Items.

Lightner case was called in the court this morning but was remanded until the next Tuesday at 10. It is understood that the bond was agreed to settle at Winnipeg $2,500, but that Lightner held that were not entitled to that amount, rather than pay it to come to Victoria to face the music.

Shin was charged with an infringement of the Revenue Tax by-law. He refused to give Collector Winsky a list of employees, and that official came on him with a summons. The man thought better of his action, and came post haste to the court this morning with the required bond. The case was withdrawn on payment of the costs, $2.

spontaneous case in which Ching is accused was remanded until Wednesday, his counsel, Geo. Powell, being absent from town. The summons in the case was not served, the wily trial having made himself scarce.

NO COPY SENT.

Failure of Work at Printing Department Explains Failure to Forward Fishery Bill.

announcements, emanating from the Dominion authorities, but not yet received a copy of the Fishery Bill passed at the last session of the legislature, although all such measures should be forwarded within ten days after receiving assent, has occasioned some surprise. Inquiry was made at the printing buildings this morning and some of the members of the staff were disposed to question the accuracy of the statement.

on investigation, however, it was found that the bill had not been forwarded to Ottawa, the explanation given being that the printing bureau had been crowded with work that it had been impossible to get the measure, as usual, printed.

an officer of the Attorney-General's department held, however, that there is no rule making it obligatory to forward the Dominion government with the measure passed within ten days of receiving the assent and held that as purely a matter of courtesy.

LEGAL NEWS.

Court Still Sitting—Chambers Lists Heard.

The Full court this morning Small v. Carroll (respondent) came for hearing. The appeal is one from the judgment given by Judge Dugas in the case of Territorial Council, it arises out of a dispute as to the payment for 100 potatoes delivered in Dawson.

Justice Martin had the following applications in Chambers this morning: J. Macdonell—Application for writ of habeas corpus—allowed on terms.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Justice Drake heard the following applications in Chambers on Saturday: J. Tugwell—Order made for delivery of documents, to apply to both sides. Plaintiff to file affidavits within five days, defendant within one month.

Regiment In Camp

The Fifth Went Under Canvas Yesterday Morning at Macaulay Point.

Orders For To-Day Dealing With the Issue of Ratings, Drills, Etc.

Assembling at the drill hall at 10 o'clock yesterday morning the Fifth Regiment, under command of Col. Gregory, left at 10.35 for the four-mile march to the camp ground at Macaulay Point.

By 11.30 the camp was reached, and in a short time the tents were pitched and the men were resting beneath the shelter afforded by them. On Saturday everything had been put in readiness for going into camp. The marches had been cancelled and everything done with the exception of merely pitching the tents.

The marching in state of the regiment showed the following strength: Field Officers 3, Staff Officers 3, Captains 2, Subalterns 8, Staff Sergeants 6, Sergeants 13, Bugle Band 8, Band 18, Rank and File 202.

Total 329. After partaking of their first meal in camp the members of the regiment were relieved from all duties for the day. Most of them came back to the city so that during the afternoon the camp presented a deserted appearance.

The orders for to-day are as follows: Ratings will be issued every morning at 8 o'clock from the quartermaster's stores. Orders will be issued every evening at 9 o'clock. Office will be held at 1.30 a. m.

Quartermaster's is at the southwest corner of camp. Quartermaster's stores is west of the middle of camp. Hospital is south of No. 5 Company's line of tents. Sick parade will be at 6.15 a. m. in front of the hospital sergeant's tent.

The following men have been taken on the strength of the regiment, and are posted to companies as follows: No. 1, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 2, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 3, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 4, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 5, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 6, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 7, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 8, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 9, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 10, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

No. 11, J. W. Smith, deceased—Letters of administration granted. Personal and accepted if heirs renounce.

VICTORIA OARSMEN AT THE N.P.A.A.O. REGATTA.

THE SENIOR FOUR

From the left--D. O'Sullivan (stroke), D. F. Jones, J. C. Bridgeman and A. W. Merrylees (bow.)

The senior and junior crews who will start this year for the honor of Victoria at the N. P. A. A. O. regatta are practising daily with a regularity and unanimity which deserves success.

The regatta, which is the association's great annual event, will be held here on July 29th, the place not having been decided upon yet.

In this respect it might not be out of place to point out the desirability of the event being held near Victoria as possible. Of course the fact should be recognized that an entirely satisfactory course is necessary, but it should also be borne in mind that in this sporting community a great proportion of the citizens are interested in a regatta of this sort, the importance of which will be highlighted by the several international events which are to take place.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

The personnel of the senior crews this year is as follows: Dan O'Sullivan (165), stroke; D. J. Jones (177), 3; J. C. Bridgeman (160), 2; and A. W. Merrylees (155), bow.

The juniors are A. Maclean (155), stroke; W. W. Wilson (160), 3; L. A. Gill (160), 2; and K. Wollaston (160), 1st.

In the senior crew it will be observed that there are two members of the Big Four. This is enough to surround the aggregation with a halo of renown and inspire in the adherents of the club a strong confidence in the ability of the senior crew to come out victors.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Mission Work In Burmah

Splendid Progress Being Made Among Northern Tribes of That Country.

A Japanese Missionary Describes Difference Between Population of Coast Cities and Interior.

Among the passengers of the Tacoma on Saturday were two missionaries with their families who are returning to the United States on furlough, both of whom have interesting accounts of the lands in which their missionary labors have been spent.

Rev. J. E. Case has spent nineteen years in Burmah, being under the Baptist Missionary Union. He was first sent to the Shan district in the northern part of Burmah, but upon the British assuming the government of the country he was sent to take charge of a mission at Nyingun, 60 miles below Mandalay.

His work has been among the Burmese, who are slow to embrace Christianity. Of the different tribes found in the country the two principal ones are the Burmese and the Karens. The Karens are a hill tribe, who resemble the Chinese in some particulars. They have been driven to the hills by the encroaching Burmese, who now occupy the plains.

The Burmese have reached higher state of civilization, and are in every way a superior race to the Karens. They are Buddhists, and conversions among them are comparatively few.

Among the Karens missionary work is more successful. These have been up to the time when Christianity worked reform among them a very savage people, given to fighting among themselves. They might be said to have had no religion, making offerings to spirits alone. They have embraced Christianity readily and a great change has come over them.

Mr. Case considers that the Baseline mission among the Karens is perhaps the banner of the world. Here a school for 400 pupils is in operation, which has been put up by Karens and is supported entirely by them. The Karens are naturally generous he says, and in that respect differ from the other people. A part of the endowment of this school is a large steam sawmill, which is under the superintendence of the Karens, subject to the general control of the missionary in charge. The labor required in the mill is furnished by natives of India, the Karens being averse to that kind of work. This mill affords a splendid opportunity for supplies needed on the mission, besides furnishing considerable for export.

Under British rule Burmah is being rapidly opened up. Railways are being put through, while highways and bridges are being built throughout the various parts of the country. The production of rice and the products of the teak forests are the staple occupations of the people.

Outside of the Burmese the principal supply in the coolie classes comes from India. The Chinese who settle in Burmah are largely merchants. In many cases these Chinese merchants, who become wealthy, marry Burmese women, who have a great fancy for wealthy husbands.

Rev. H. H. Suitsman, another passenger who has spent nine years and a half in Japan, was also on furlough. He has been stationed at Hiroshima, working under the Christian and Missionary Alliance, whose headquarters are in New York. The prospect respecting missionary work in Japan was, he says, never brighter. There seems to be a united feeling on the part of the various denominations, and the spirit of rivalry has died down.

Speaking of the population of Japan, he says that a wrong impression of the Japanese character is conveyed by associating with the population of the open ports alone. These are a shifting population, and do not reflect the true character of the Japanese which is to be found in the interior. Among those in the inland portions of the country he has found some beautiful characters. They are thoroughly reliable, differing in this respect from the coast type. The official class he has found very accommodating.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

Every evening the crews leave the club house at 6 o'clock and row to the Gorge and back, a distance of five miles. Judging from the speed the shells travel each crew will make trouble for their competitors and give them a race they will never forget.

THE JUNIOR FOUR

From the left--A. Maclean (stroke), W. W. Wilson, L. A. Gill and K. Wollaston (bow.)

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.

Photo by Savannah.