

Society—in whom we recognize an old and honoured friend, and by whose various communications we have been much delighted and edified. The several subjects which Mr. Alder has brought under our consideration for adjustment, will doubtless be communicated to you by him ; and we need scarcely add that we shall be happy to receive him in any relation which you may think proper to appoint him.

We have read and heard with great satisfaction of your preparatory meetings for the Centenary celebration of Wesleyan Methodism ; we are making preparations to imitate, in some humble degree, your example, and to participate with you in the interesting and important services and efforts of that eventful celebration.

After a laborious and harmonious session we return to our several fields of labour, resolved to devote ourselves in humble dependence upon Him whose we are, and without whose blessing nothing is wise, or good or strong, to our one and great work of spreading scriptural holiness over the land.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

EGERTON RYERSON, Secretary.
