PRICE OF ONE.

We want to get 500 new subscribers to THE ADVANCE, and are going to do it for you; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal a short time longer by which we can send THE ADVANCE and the Farm Journal the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, both for $1.00 paid in advance. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrears and one year in advance.

You know what this paper is, and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful, paper—full of common sense, full of information, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. You ought to take it.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

FRAN DEANE, Treasurer H. D. McLeod, of the contingent fund, acknowledges receiving $3 from St. Peter's and Trinity churches, Dorset, Miramichi, for the fund.

AN OLD DEED: The death of Mr. John Shasman of St. Margaret's is announced. He was 84 years old and one of the best known residents of Gloucester.

PERSONAL:—Mr. J. Mass, Aitken, late of the first Canadian contingent, has gone to Fredericton, where he resumes his former position in the Merchants Bank of Halifax.

PEOPLE LOSE FAITH in advertising assertions because of silly exaggerations. We hope the fault of them will not lead you to doubt our statement that Advertiser's Bulletin Cough Syrup is worth the cost of a trial. 25c. All Druggists.

SUE MAKES MCKENDRY:—The Ramford, Mr. Tynes of 20th ult. says:—"C. B. McKendry, lately clerk at the Oxford House, and formerly size maker for the Ramford Fall Paper Co., has gone to Millville, N. B. to make a suit for the Great Northern Paper Co. Mr. McKendry is a former Chatham lumber surveyor.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS:—Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work and avoid the spring rush. We have now on hand and coming in of the largest stocks of marble and granite monuments, headstones and tablets ever shown on the north shore, all from the latest designs and worked from the best material the market can produce. Call and get our prices. They are right.

JOHN H. LAWLER & CO., NEARLY one hundred thousand copies of the Biggle Books have been sold. No. 1 is about home. No. 2 treats of berries of all kinds. No. 3 is a poultry book. No. 4 tells all about cows and dairying, while No. 5 is the most comprehensive book on swine yet printed. Price of each, 50 cents. Address: Wilmer Atkinson Co., Fredericton.

CAUTION:—Reports come from along the coast and in country places that a pedlar is reaping a harvest in disposing of his wares and collecting money on behalf of the Hotel Eden, Chatham. This has been going on for some time, but was only recently found out. The Mother Superior of the Hotel Eden wishes the people to be guarded against the impostor, as he is no authority given to anybody to make such collections.

MOORE AND SCHOOL CHILDREN:—The school children of Doaktown had an object lesson in Natural History on Wednesday of last week. A fine bull coming in of the largest branching antlers and brilliant points came down to the highway bridge as if to cross it, but some of the children on the other side shouted so much in their surprise to see "the horse with horns" that the animal halted and leisurely surveyed them, wondering, no doubt, what all the fuss was about. It was with quite a show of reluctance that he finally turned away and trotted over the road and then into the woods, where he disappeared.

IT IS THE BEST:—The old standards are always the best and we are therefore glad to notice that the true Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, revised and enlarged to bring it abreast of the times is just being issued from the press of the publishers, G. & C. Merriam & Co., Springfield, Mass. Reference to the work the Chicago Express says:—"The latest and largest, the most accurate and the best illustrated is the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for 1900. It costs enough to be valuable, but it is worth all it costs. The latest and true Webster is no reprint of obsolete material, no defective plates. It bears the same relation to cheap reprints that the palace vestibule passenger train and equipment of the present day bears to the creaking, rattling coaches and strap rails of forty years ago."

Gas on the stomach.

Result of imperfect digestion—pressing up against the heart it excites alarming symptoms. Instant relief is afforded by the use of ten drops of Nervine in a little cold water, half an hour after the meal. Nervine line side digestion, expels the gas and imparts a sense of comfort. Nervine is good for a lot of other things besides, keep it in the house for Rheumatism, Cramps, Neuralgia, Toothache, Druggists sell it.

S. MARY'S AND S. PAUL'S:—The Rev. J. H. DeWolfe Cowie, M. A., Organizing Secretary of the Diocese of Fredericton, assisted the Rector of St. Paul's at the services on Sunday last and delivered able and instructive sermons bearing upon the mission work of the diocese. Mr. Cowie also addressed the children of St. Mary's Sunday School in the school room on Sunday afternoon. In his sermons and address the organizing secretary set forth in a forcible and interesting manner the claims of the diocesan mission work, the general and liberal support of the people throughout the diocese and pointed out the reasons for the withdrawal of aid which had been so long freely given to the diocese from the mother land. He showed also that it was necessary that by increased contributions from the diocese the unavoidable shrinkage of income from the invested funds of the Diocesan Mission Board should be provided for. Mr. Cowie eloquently urged the claims of the mission field upon the attention of Christian people, and we are glad to learn that he is meeting with great encouragement in the prosecution of his important work.

A cheerful response was made at last Sunday's services to his appeal for contributions to diocesan mission, and the amount, including additional contributions at a highly interesting and instructive Lecture in the school room on Monday evening, was $400.00. This included contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time. Mr. Cowie's address on Monday evening in the school room on some lessons of the late Lambeth Conference and the Queen's Jubilee in their bearing upon Diocesan Mission Work was very much enjoyed by the large audience present. The organizing secretary returned from Bay du Vin yesterday, and will proceed Campbellton Friday night.

One for the "Advance"

We congratulate Mayor Loggie on his initiation given to the Town Council that he would not favor the payment of temporary drain repairs out of the water and sewerage system fund. The Advocate's warning in the matter has, we are glad to know, caused his warning to see where the proposed misappropriation, which was approved by the council, might lead to injurious proceedings, which would cost the town a good deal of money.

Miss Ramsay vs. "The World."

In answer to the silly and antiquated remarks of the editor of the World which appeared in his paper of last week, and which he was authorized to publish so untruthfully, I wish to say that I never expected to have to appear in such a position to obtain the property which I lawfully possess. If the editor of the World will permit my evidence, or more especially the concluding part in a truthful manner, I will pardon his impudent remarks.

"Male Attire"

The October number of "Male Attire," the new magazine for men, has been increased in size to thirty-two pages, and is well filled with news and articles of interest to the retailer. If the editor of the World will permit my evidence, or more especially the concluding part in a truthful manner, I will pardon his impudent remarks.

tain and improve the Library are most praiseworthy and involve no little sacrifice of their time, and there ought to be a general effort on the part of the people to give them all possible assistance.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be. This they can do by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see references to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

What the Boys Brought to Colonel Call.

When the first contingent men were leaving Newcastle for South Africa, Lt. Colonel Call presented Messrs. Gifford, Kitchen, Anslow, Harris and Matthews with a five dollar gold coin each. They prized the gift very much, coming as it did from the organizer and first commander of the Newcastle Field Battery, to which they belonged, and instead of spending the money, they each kept it as a souvenir. In South Africa, they counted together on the subject of bringing a gift home to the color as a memento of the campaign, and determined that, if possible, it should be something that could not well be duplicated in New Brunswick. Their opportunity came when they got into Col. Call's laager at Paarlburg, where they secured a pan-pan shell, from which they had the corolla and baroque Returned South African Heroes.

About 11.30 o'clock on Friday morning last the most distant cannon announced the arrival at Newcastle of the members of the first Canadian contingent who left Cape Town a month or so ago. It told the people of the Miramichi of the arrival of the South African heroes, and was the key note sounded in the general and enthusiastic welcome they received.

At Chatham everything possible was being done in decorating the streets and buildings in preparation for the arrival of the Canadian members. The Citizens' Band officers of the 73rd Battalion and others went to Newcastle to be on time for the arrival of the train from the South. The returned veterans were given a great reception at the wharf, after which Messrs. Munroe and Doyle were taken to the Waverly Hotel and dined by their Chatham friends. A half hour holiday was proclaimed by Mayor Loggie and Chatham was on its feet. Crowds had gathered on the public wharf at one o'clock, the regular scheduled time of the steamer.

failure, and its sympathy, on personal grounds, for politically astute persons like that mayor—who was pulled by mountebanks into using his temporary influence against the interests of the County—causes us to let his attack of Tuesday night on the ADVANCE pass amongst the chief of the election campaign; and we sincerely hope and advise that he will not continue in the future to manifest, as he has in the past, so helter-skelter a disposition to permit his accidental positions in the town council and larger and more important bodies to be exploited by designing and interested persons, whose blunders and mistakes are one of his commercial standing ought to be able to resist.
