MONEY IN THEIR STOCKINGS.

The Bank of New Brunswick Provides For Patrons Who Follow This Custom.

Down in the Bank of New Brunswick there is a room which is not known to the general public but which has proved itself a great convenience to a certain class of depositors and the usefulness of which fully justifies its existence.

This is what is known as the stock room and is used by ladies who carry their money in safer receptacles than pocket books or chateaus. The room is not used every day, but now and then it happens that a lady approaches the receiving teller's box and announces that she wishes to put some money in the bank. When the teller waits for the money the lady displays some slight embarrassment and explains that she can't get at it right there in the long room where there are a lot of people.

This is where the stock room comes in handy and after spending a few moments in it the depositor returns triumphantly with the roll of bills in her hand.

The room is not in such demand as in the case in some larger cities, but it is nevertheless quite frequently found convenient.

FOR SATURDAY'S GAME.

The Portland team, which will play the Roses here on Friday and Saturday afternoon, will go to bat in the following order: Davis, 1b.; Carrigan, 1b.; O'Sullivan, 2b.; Denison, 1b.; Joyce, s.s.; Hinks, c.; Curly, c.; LaCroix, r.f.; Towle, p.

In Saturday's game La Croix will pitch. Of these men, Davis formerly played third base for Maine University, Carrigan was left fielder for Fall River in the New England league, O'Sullivan is of the Lewiston base ball club, Denison played with the New Haven league, Joyce was third baseman at Columbia University, Hinks is an old member of the Portland, Curly played with Nashua, LaCroix was one of the Gardner, Mass., team, and Towle played in the Lowell New England league team of 1902.

A RUSH TO TORONTO.

The C. P. R. messenger staff are making great preparations for an expected rush of visitors to Toronto next week. The exhibition opened today, but Monday next is the first day on which the cheap excursion rates come into effect. Return trip tickets good for going on that day are only $16.50, and already a large number have been sold in St. John. Six Pullman sleepers are already filled and one or two more may be required. This number of sleepers pulling out of St. John on Friday is the first time that the Pullman train will be something unusual for St. John. The Bandmann Opera Co. leave by the same train, and have engaged special sleeping and baggage cars.

A CHINESE HONEYMOON.

A Chinese Honeymoon was the attraction at the Opera House last night. The first time that the opera has ever been given in St. John and it decidedly caught the fancy of the house. From a comedy point of view the opera is equal to others in the Bandmann Company repertoire, though musically it is not so strong.

Miss Vie as the Fi Fi held the first position last night as a fun maker. Harry Cole was well up to his standard. The piece was well staged and costumed.

This evening Florodora will be sung. Tomorrow evening The School Girl will be given its first performance in this city.

BASE BALL.

The Jubilees have defeated the Martellos, of Carleton, in five straight games of base ball during the past week and they wish to meet any other team in Carleton in the next two weeks. Games must be called at 6.30 p. m.

The Jubilees will play the Fairville Royals on Friday night at 6.30 p. m. on the Shamrock grounds if the weather permits.

NEW BANANAS.

Tomorrow A. L. Goodwin will receive the first carload of Port Simons bananas ever brought to St. John. This fruit is said to be of very fine quality and will be better than what has lately been coming from Jamaica. Since the big storm in that island most of the bananas shipped here have been what are known to the trade as blow-offs, or windfalls.

PERSONALS.

Robert Delay of Sydney left Tuesday for his home in St. John, having received word of the serious illness of his mother.

Alderman Clark of Fredericton arrived in the city on the C. F. R. last evening.

Mrs. Dr. Bailey of Fredericton and her daughter, Mrs. West, are spending the week out at Red Head.

G. B. Adams of Boston, the superintendent of the general department of the Edison Electrical Company, and Mrs. Adams are in town, guests at the Dufferin.

Thos. F. Quilty, station master of the Boston and Maine railway at Somerville, Mass., and J. O. Quilty, station agent of the I. C. R. at Barnaby River, are in St. John.

S. D. Simmons of Fredericton is stopping at the Dufferin.

Lieut. Commander E. C. Bryan of the United States navy, is in the city, at Carville Hall. Commander Bryan, whose home is in Washington, served in the recent war in the Philippine Islands and is at present on furlough. He will remain in St. John through the week.

It is reported that Miss McLeod, daughter of the Rev. Dr. McLeod, one of New Brunswick's teachers in South Africa, is engaged to a mining engineer and is coming home soon to marry.

Mrs. Coultard and Mrs. Penney, of Fredericton, who have been spending a week at Renforth, have returned to their homes.

Miss Boyd, of St. John, who had been visiting Mrs. Koenig, Queen street Sydney, has returned home.

A. W. Machum, of St. John, who has been in Sydney, has returned home.

Rev. T. J. Delnstadt, St. John, preached in the Methodist church, Woodstock, on Sunday evening. He addressed the afternoon meeting at the Littleton camp ground.

Miss Bates, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Harri, St. Andrews.

Miss Bessie Burton, of St. John, is enjoying her vacation with her mother in St. Andrews.

Miss Julia Miles, of Woodstock, arrived home Friday from Bay Shore, St. John, where she has been spending the summer holidays.

Miss Mabel Andrews, of St. John, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. David Hipwell, in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sprague, of St. John, are visiting Geo. B. Little, Broadway, Woodstock.

Miss Maud Smith, daughter of Duppa Smith, Woodstock, returned on Friday last from Bay Shore, St. John, where she has been spending the holidays.

The Rev. H. C. Archer, pastor of the Reformed Baptist church at Meductic, has received a call to the pastorate of the churches on the island of Grand Manan, rendered vacant by the resignation of the Rev. G. B. Macdonald, who goes to the United States to take a course in theology. Mr. Archer is now in Grand Manan looking over the field.

Constable Frederick Allan Jarvis of the Northwest Mounted Police, who is now visiting his home in Fredericton, was married at the home of his parents, the Kings street, August 19th, to Miss Lydia Perkins, of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Roberts.

A BETTING CASE IN EQUITY.

Judge Barker to Decide the Wagers on the Kiley-Eatman Race.

The end of the Seelye-Dalton betting case has not been heard yet, but may be settled this afternoon. Stephen Palmer who was counsel for Seelye in the case was not satisfied with the decision given by Judge Ritchie in the civic court. He took exception to the judgment on points of law and some time ago gave notice of appeal.

Briefly the case is this: Seelye bet twenty dollars on Eatman, Dalton took him, backing Kiley. Robert Cunningham held the stakes and on the referee's decision after the finish of the race, paid Dalton the money. Seelye sued to recover his twenty dollars. The case came on in the civic court, A. W. Baird, who appeared for Dalton, asked for a judgment for the defendant on the grounds that the affair was a gambling transaction in which money could not be recovered at law.

Judge Ritchie, after hearing some evidence delivered judgment for the defendant as Mr. Baird had asked, but on the ground that the affair was not a gambling transaction.

Mr. Palmer then gave notice of appeal and the case will come up before Judge Barker in the equity court at four o'clock this afternoon.

WEDDINGS LAST EVENING.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the residence of the bride's father, 57 St. Paul street, when the Rev. W. O. Raymond united in marriage Bertha, youngest daughter of Alfred Warren, to J. Alfred Chamberlain. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present, but a large number of presents testified to the young couple's popularity. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will reside at 57 St. Paul street.

A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of Wm. H. Smith, 29 Harding street, when their eldest daughter, Maggie Emma, was united in marriage to Wm. Alexander Ramsay, son of Alexander Ramsay of the two Kingsville. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Smith, while W. J. Ernest Ramsay acted as best man. Many beautiful presents were received. Rev. R. P. McKim performed the ceremony.

THIS EVENING.

PEACHES AND PEARS.

J. F. Estabrook & Son will receive tomorrow seventy-five baskets of fancy St. John peaches direct from Winona, Ontario. These peaches are high colored and make fine eating. Messrs Estabrook & Son will also have fifty baskets of fancy Bartlett pears, and a large consignment of plums. This fruit for wholesale trade only.

The local fish market is almost bare today, as the only varieties offered are cod, haddock and mackerel. Halibut and shad are so scarce that they are not quoted. Mackerel sell for from 12c. to 15c. each, and the cod and haddock for 6c. per lb.

PALESTINE IS HOME.

City Jews Deeply Interested in Zionist Movement and Eagerly Look for Repatriation.

Members of the Jewish congregation in this city are deeply interested in the Zionist movement and talk expectantly of the time when they will leave St. John and go to live in a country of their own. Quite a number of them are subscribers to the Jewish Daily News of New York, the recognized organ of Hebrews in America, and the reports of the Basle congress published daily in it are eagerly read. This paper, with its own correspondence syndicate to get news of interest to Jews from one to two days earlier than any of the other papers. The most recent issue received here contains a lengthy report of the first meeting of the Basle congress at which Baron Hirsch presented his report. In this he states that upwards of $7,000,000 has already been collected for the purchase of Palestine. The British government has offered to give the Jews a tract of land in Africa, on the Congo, where they may establish a republic under British protection. This is announced by the heading "The flag of David and the flag of England may float together over Jewa."

There are in all about eleven hundred delegates present in Basle, several being from Canada, although St. John is not represented.

MARRIED IN THE SOUTH.

A pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Irvine, 17 W. Symonds street, Phoenix, Arizona, on Wednesday evening, August 19th, at 8 o'clock, when their cousin Mae Margaret Earle, formerly of Millville, N. B., and Delbert D. Crabb, a well-to-do and popular young man of Phoenix, were made one by the Rev. Lewis Halsey, D. D., pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Phoenix in the presence of a large number of invited guests.

To the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Mary Halsey, the bride entered the parlor with her father, preceded by little Miss Isabel Irvine, carrying the bride's bouquet of white roses—the ribbon which tied them being the same which tied the bouquet of the bride's mother when she was married. Sweetly pretty the bride looked, gowned in white chiffon trimmed with white ribbon and having a yoke of ribbon and pearls. The parlor in which the wedding took place was prettily decorated with ferns, roses and potted plants, the bride party standing under an arch of green with a floral bell suspended from the centre. After the ceremony and congratulations, luncheon was served on the lawn, which looked beautiful trimmed with Japanese lanterns. At midnight Mr. and Mrs. Crabb took the train for a six weeks' trip to various interesting spots in California.

Mrs. Crabb looked charming in a going away gown of blue broadcloth with blue chiffon hat to match. A very large number of elegant presents in the form of cut glass, china, silver, etc., testified to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's present to his bride was a silver tray containing a silver service, gold lined. Those among the guests from New Brunswick who attended the wedding were: S. L. Earle and Miss Yena Earle, sister and sister of the bride; T. E. Irvine, Mrs. Annetta Irvine, Mrs. Chute, G. T. Fred Sharpe, Mrs. Anx. Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sharpe, Miss Florence Sharpe and Miss Margaret E. Palmer.

CARLETON MAN TRIED FOR MURDER.

The trial of William H. Albert (colored), formerly of St. John, indicted for the murder of Patrick H. Jordan, a patrolman of the Bangor police force, began yesterday at Bangor, Me. Albert is being defended by Judge Louis C. Stearns and John F. Robinson, two leading criminal lawyers in Maine.

The crime of which Albert stands accused occurred on Saturday night, March 7, when the police force were called to the home of Mrs. Hannah on Second street, Bangor, to arrest her husband, who was raising a disturbance. On the arrival of the police Albert attempted to escape, but was closely pursued by Patrolman Jordan. Albert succeeded in eluding the police and on that night the dead body of Jordan was found with a bullet through the brain. Some time after Albert was captured, when he confessed to the shooting.

SUBURBANITES RETURNING.

Quite a number of suburban residents have returned to the city during the present week, but as yet the majority remain to enjoy out of town life. This early returning is due chiefly to the re-opening of the schools, but many parents think the schools start too soon, and these will not come to town until after Labor Day. Others, who are at present at the different resorts, are waiting until they can get into their city homes, many of which are now in the hands of painters or being rented, are still occupied by other tenants.

There has been a strong demand for students' tickets on the railways during the past few days, and a lot of scholars, whose families are still out of town, come in every morning.

A NEW SYNAGOGUE.

Rabbi Rabinovitch left last evening for Glace Bay, where he will, on Saturday, open the new Jewish synagogue which has just been completed at that place. At present there are only two synagogues in the maritime provinces, one each in St. John and Halifax. But since Sydney started booming large numbers of Jews have gone down there and are now scattered through different parts of Cape Breton and it is probable that several other synagogues will be built within the next few years.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

The next celebration in the Jewish calendar is that of the New Year, which commences on Monday evening, September 7th, and of which the last will not be heard until September 19th. Tuesday, Sept. 8, is New Year's Day, but service will be held in the synagogue on Monday evening. Other services take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, and then follows an interval of ten days, during which no special meetings are held. The whole celebration concludes on the 19th with a day of fasting.
