FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

Was Observed in Vienna by Customary Pilgrimages to Graves.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.-Today being the feast of All Saints, thousands of Vier nese made the pilgrimage to the graves of relatives and friends. By far the greater number of the pilgrims were to the Friedhof cemetery, where more than 7,000 persons are buried.

From early morning till almost dusk the roads leading to the various cemeteries were thronged with vehicles and pedestrians, the former almost entire-ly hidden under the masses of flowers and wreaths and the latter carrying lighted candles which were placed upon the graves, and which when darkness came on, lent a weird aspect to the burial grounds. The monuments of Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert and Gluck, and the common grave of the six hundred victims of the Rind theatre fire attracted many visitors. The pilgrimages will continue tomorrow, All Souls day. Many wreaths were sent by members of the imperial famhalf-past eight this evening in that ily and a number of wreaths have been portain of the vatican containing the placed on the tombs of the Empress placed on the tombs of the Empress Elizabeth and Crown Prince Rudolph
