

Wolgast Knocked Moran Out in the Thirteenth

It was a Desperately Hard Battle—Moran Showed More Cleverness but Did Not Have the Great Strength and Endurance of the Champion.

San Francisco, Cal., July 4.—A still solar plexus blow, followed by two lightning stomach punches, and a heavy swing to the jaw, ended Owen Moran's march to the lightweight title in his battle here with Ad Wolgast, the world's champion today.

It was one of the best fights ever seen here, and until the 13th round, when Wolgast scored his knockout left the men seemed evenly matched. Moran excelled at long range fighting but at infighting the champion proved himself the shiffter and in the fiercest rallies showed himself able to stand a tremendous amount of punishment.

A large crowd witnessed the fight, the gate receipts being estimated at nearly $40,000. Wolgast was the favorite in the betting, at odds of 10 to 6. Jack Welsh refereed the bout.

The ring was cleared at 10 p. m. and time was called a minute later.

Round 1.

After shaking hands, they closed in slowly, and almost immediately the crowd yelled for the referee to break them. Moran protested that Wolgast was butting, and the crowd jeered. Wolgast broke a clinch with two powerful lefts to the jaw and they mixed it, each fighting viciously. They went to close quarters with Wolgast hooking his left viciously to the jaw. Then he started the blood from the Briton's mouth with a volley of short arm lefts. A hard body blow by the champion closed the round which was in Wolgast's favor.

Round 2.

Moran's supporters shouted at him to keep away, but the Englishman rushed in. Wolgast rocked his head with short arm punches and paved the way for a volley of lefts by sending in rights to his stomach. Moran fighting back gamely, sent Wolgast across the ring with a hard right to the jaw. Wolgast bled from the nose as Moran followed his advantage by clipping the champion several times with hard left and right punches to the face and head. It was Moran's round.

Round 3.

Wolgast covered up, crouching low and missed a terrible left swing for the jaw. They roughed it head to head, but scoring frequently while in this position. Wolgast almost floored his man with a left swing to the jaw, and then closed in, lashing out with left and right. Wolgast sent three lefts in succession to the body, and received in return a stiff right to the jaw. The round was even.

Round 4.

Wolgast's right eye was badly disclosed and Moran's mouth was bleeding as they toed the mark. Moran shot a stiff left to the face, and again they roughed it with their arms locked. Wolgast was doing the greater execution. Moran drove a straight left to the jaw and then clouted the champion with a left to the same place. Wolgast sent his right with great force to the body, and they seemed disinclined to break from the clinch. Wolgast hooked a left to the body and drove the Briton against the ropes. They were quickly backed in the center of the ring fighting like tigers. Wolgast's seconds taunted Moran, to which the Briton replied: "He won't get me today," and then protested vigorously to the referee that the champion was intentionally elbowing him. Moran had a shade the better of the round.

Round 5.

They clinched with Wolgast uppercutting to the face with right and left. Moran jarred the champion with a short arm right to the face. Wolgast swung wildly and Moran riddled him twice more with rights to the face. A long clinch followed, Wolgast breaking it with a hard right to the face. They danced about the ring and Wolgast landed twice to the jaw with short arm rights. Wolgast seemed the stronger as the bout ended an even round.

Round 6.

The fighters slowed up a bit at the outset of the round and then Moran shot a straight left to the face. They went to close range, Wolgast landing several rights over the kidneys. They fought at a hot pace against the ropes, each scoring repeatedly. Then Moran followed a smart long range rally, both landing lefts to the face and both spitting blood. Moran, breaking from a clinch, rocked the champion's head with a right hook, and the round ended with the men mixing it at a fast clip. The round was about even.

Round 7.

Up to this stage Moran apparently had landed the cleaner punches, but seemed to be the weaker of the two. They at once went into a clinch and a heart breaking rally followed, Moran having much the better of the wicked exchange. Wolgast crowded Moran against the ropes, the Englishman making a determined stand. The Welsh finally parted them for the first time. Wolgast steadying himself tipped uppercut after uppercut to the body with telling effect, and Moran reeled across the ring to the ropes. Wolgast shot a left to the jaw that sent Moran hurling against the ropes and the bell ended a round much in favor of the champion.

Round 8.

Moran found Wolgast's face three times with his left. They clinched and Wolgast drove his right powerfully to the kidneys. Moran almost sent the champion through the ropes with a rush and then went nearly through himself from the force of his onslaught. Wolgast drove a terrible left to the stomach and followed it with right uppercuts to the jaw. Wolgast started the blood in a stream from the Briton's mouth and Moran wilted like a leaf. Wolgast sent in a storm of blows following his man about the ring and using both hands with equal facility. Moran went to his corner with a bloody face and appeared to be in sore straits. Wolgast had the better of the round, with Moran tiring.

Round 9.

Wolgast chatted with friends about the ringside during the minute's rest. At the gong he rushed to close quarters, sending his right to the kidneys. Moran retaliated with two straight rights to the face and the champion swung back wildly. However, he landed several hard rights and lefts to the stomach and the round closed with the fighting going at an awful pace. Wolgast almost sent the Englishman through the ropes with heavy punches, but Moran came back gamely and scored frequently on the body. Another rally followed with both fighters apparently suffering from the hurricane pace. Wolgast had the better of the round.

Round 10.

Wolgast forced the issue but was met with a straight right on the jaw and they slowed up. The champion then swung his left to the jaw and almost sent the Englishman through the ropes with right and left to the body and face. Moran brought the crowd to its feet when he met Wolgast at his own game beating him to the punch and starting the blood from the champion's mouth. Wolgast slowed up perceptibly and they rested in a clinch. Moran swung a hard right to the jaw and they were in another slashing rally when the bell sounded. It was Moran's round and he was cheered to the echo.

Round 11.

Moran opened with two lefts to the face, and a moment later shot two more to the same place, and escaped a return. They clinched and exchanged rights to the face. Moran, after blocking several rights, drove left to the face. Wolgast countered with slashing body punches, but Moran did not give way an inch. The Briton swung right and left to the jaw, and cleverly escaped the champion's vicious assaults. It was Moran's round, and he appeared to be gaining strength.

Round 12.

They clinched, hammering away at each other's body and face. Wolgast sent two right uppercuts to the boy's

AD WOLGAST.

Moran then shot a straight left to the face, and another to the nose. Wolgast retaliated with two forceful body blows. Moran swung his right to the jaw with telling effect, and Moran reeled across the ring to the same mark. Wolgast started Moran's mouth bleeding with a hard right just as the ring and the Briton spat out a tooth. Even round.

Round 13.

Wolgast rushed desperately and finally forced the Briton into a corner. They had not been fighting thirty seconds when the champion shot his right with terrific force to the pit of the stomach. The impact of the blow was heard clear across the arena. Quick as a flash Wolgast sent two more rights to the stomach and as Moran began to fall a left hook found the jaw. Moran went to the floor with his mouth open and his eyes glassy. He was counted out, while in a recumbent position.

ST. JOHN'S LAND NEW CATCHER

Manager Page, of the St. John's, has signed a new catcher who will report in a day or two, and is reputed to be a very fast man. He is Al White, who has been used as a warming up catcher with the Boston Americans, and has also played good ball with other fast teams. He will be in the city tonight or tomorrow and will turn out with his team at once. Mr. Page has released Clifford, who has been catching for the St. John's since the league season opened. He will return to Boston. Finkerton, Leg and Sweeney, Hughes and Jacklitch; Mitchell, Hugues and Jacklitch; Mitchell, Hugues, Rudolf and Phelps.

MADE NEW RECORD IN AUTO MILE

New York, July 4.—A new world's automobile record for one mile was established by Bob Burman today at the Brighton Beach motordrome when in his Blitzen Benz he made the circuit of the mile track in 48.72 seconds, which is one-fifth of a second better than Palma in a Fiat car made last year at Syracuse.

Louis Disbrov finished first with a Pope Hartford in the fifty mile contest after experiencing a good deal of tire trouble which compelled him to leave the track for repairs to the car at least four times. The other events were at five miles each for non stock cars in which Patschke with a Benz, Tyros, with a Correlia, and Tower driving E. M. F., were the winners.

CALAIS AND ST. STEPHEN SPLIT EVEN

Special to The Standard.

St. Stephen, July 4.—Our neighbors across the river are concluding a celebration of Independence Day with a grand display of fireworks. Street sports and a fraternal trades and Calabumpan parade occupied most of the morning, with a ball game to open the new diamond at the new Thistles park. The teams were the Thistles and Calais and the game went to the former by a score of eight to seven. Kyle and Crowley pitched for the Thistles and Finnmore caught. Neptune and Cobb were the Calais battery.

In the afternoon, the same teams met again and Calais was the victor by a score of five to three. Butler and Finnmore, Ryan and Watt were the batters.

A 230 horse trot held at the same time was won by H. R. Hagen's Druggist, with F. C. Murchie's Bling the Great second.

Two thousand visitors were brought by excursion trains from St. John, Fredericton, Woodstock and Houlton.
