May Secure A
Fast Pacer

New Brunswick Horseman After Free-for-All Race With Record Near 2 Min.

Fredericton, N. B., April 3.—Strange things have happened than for New Brunswick to have a new representative on hand when the speed demons start battling in the free-for-alls in Maine and New Brunswick during the coming season.

With Calgary Bart 2.03% owned at Houlton Maine, and John R. Braden 2.03 3/4 now the property of the Moose Lake club of Presque Isle, Maine, only a pacer of the first rank would be fit to send into the contest. In fact there are very few horses racing today that would be regarded as having an even chance with them.

There is, however, a prominent New Brunswick horseman, who has been considering very seriously acquiring a pacer with a record closer to the two minute mark than either of those mentioned and if he makes up his mind to "take a flyer," price will be no object. In fact a price over the $10,000 mark already quoted on one of the pair he has been considering has not dulled his interest in the proposition.

Barrow 7; Hull-Kington 11.
Keighley 15; Warrington 0.
Balford 0; St. Helens 10.

Scottish League.

Albion Rovers 2; Dundee 3.
Celtic 1; Dumbarton 1.
Clydebank 2; Queens Park 0.
Hearts 0; Clyde 0.
Kilmarnock 1; Hibernians 3.
Morton 0; Rangers 0.
Partick Thistle 3; Aberdeen 2.
Rath Rovers 2; Ayr United 1.
Third Lanark 0; Motherwell 1.

World's Chess
Championship

Havana, April 3.—The seventh game of the match between Jose R. Capablanca and Dr. Emanuel Lasker for the world's chess championship resulted last night in a draw in the twenty-third move. Capablanca made his twenty-third move, but Lasker did not follow with his twenty-third, the game at this point being agreed upon as a draw.

The time consumed in play was:—Capablanca, 1 hour, 21 minutes; Lasker, 1 hour, 19 minutes.

Rugby Football
Is Dying Hard

London, April 3.—Rugby football is dying hard. Letcher was decidedly lucky to beat Gloucester by the only try in the match. Blackheath took ample revenge upon Birkenhead by five goals and two tries to one goal. Harlequins easily defeated London Scottish by three goals and five tries to three tries. Northampton defeated Rugby by one dropped goal and five tries to one goal.

Gleniorian, 3; Binsfield, 0.

Is Indifferent
To Early Training

Jack Dempsey Intent on Capturing Title of Vaudeville Division.

"Jack Dempsey is now on the Pacific coast in vaudeville. The champion will continue to elevate the stage until time to train for the stopping of Georges Carpentier."

The above interesting information comes from San Francisco, and seems to indicate that Dempsey and his assistant manager, Kearns, are under the impression that the Young Griffo system of training, which usually consisted of a hair cut and a shave, will suffice to put the heavyweight champion in trim for his bout with Carpentier on July 2.

The writer will not venture to even suggest that a manager of such varied experience and wisdom as Kearns could possibly be mistaken regarding the physical condition of the champion, or as to his requirements in the way of preparation for the bout with the Frenchman.

At the same time were Dempsey's manager less discerning, the suggestion would undoubtedly be offered that the champion be instantly dragged shrieking from the realm of fiction and vaudeville.

This suggestion would be followed by a proposal that Dempsey be sequestered in some booby dell, far from the wiles of the camera and the footlights, and at once, started on a course of intensive training to be continued up to the time of the battle, July 2.

This view of the case is due to a conviction that Dempsey will need to be in better physical condition when he faces the Frenchman than he was when he met Brennan in Madison Square Garden.

Carpentier is much quicker than Brennan, his harder, and with more accuracy, and in the matter of guneralship knows more than any heavy-weight in the ring.

Dempsey will require all his vitality, speed and force if he is to dispose of Carpentier, and the champion did not show sufficient form against Brennan to warrant the belief that the champion can take liberties with the Frenchman.

However, Manager Kearns, having rockbound confidence in the ability of Dempsey to stop Carpentier, will doubtless permit the champion to "hold the mirror up to nature" indefinitely and depend on a barber to put him in trim for the battle. Is that event Carpentier would be quite apt to add a "trimming" to that of the man of brush and shears.
