man's job. Give it to him. Let him feel that he is of some use in the world and we have captured the boy and are making a man of him.

Social Conscience.

The third development is the beginning of social conscience. This period, from 17 to 24, is marked by the gang instinct and, because of the misdirection of this instinct, this is the criminal age, the age in which most arrests are made.

The report of the executive was presented by A. Malcolm in which high tribute was paid to the ability and earnestness of the general secretary, Rev. W. A. Rose, who had proven himself well worthy of the confidence that had been placed in him.

In the temperance department W. H. Farnham was succeeded by Rev. W. B. Higgins. L. G. Sinclair succeeded Robert Reid on the Advocate committee. Annie McVullier, office secretary, succeeded Miss Elsie Erb. Rev. W. Camp succeeded Rev. Mr. Anthony as editor of the Advocate.

Lewis Simms was appointed superintendent of the missionary department and the retirement of E. D. Machum. Rev. W. A. Rose was appointed representative to the international executive and R. T. Hayes was appointed alternate representative.

Dr. Cutten closed with an earnest appeal to the men of the church to take advantage of the opportunity which is open for work among boys in the church but which they are all a great deal better equipped to handle than they are.

Afternoon Session.

The greater part of the afternoon session of the conference was taken up with reports and addresses on the work that has been and can be accomplished by the school Bible classes. The speakers urged that classes be organized in connection with all churches and Sunday schools in the province.

The educational value of the Sunday school was the subject of the address of Dr. McElfresh. He said that education was more advanced than ever before and the number of people getting a college education was very great.
