Promise to Still Unfulfilled Restoration of Provinces, E Bribe

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Premier for his Win Last Election Utter Failure to Hard Knocks by Other Liberal

Ottawa, Feb. 24—The other government men here today try to explain Laurier's failure to make a pre-election pledge.

Some of the prime ministers are coming home to roost. It is difficult to find a troublesome Laurier, said Laurier, amid general laughter here.

Continuing, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's course upon this issue in opposition. He made an issue in the election of 1911.

As for himself, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he was still waiting for their decision to restore the provinces, that the provinces were free men, the right to have the administration which they preferred.
