THE ODD FELLOWS IN ST. JOHN

The weather of Wednesday night was far from propitious as regarded the pleasure to be derived by the Odd Fellows of St. John from a visit from their Patriarchal brethren of katahdin Encampment. As previously stated, the early part of yester day was employed in viewing the various places of interest around the city and suburbs, among which were the Suspension places whereto our tired citizens are to resort on all special, and particularly such

In the afternoon the members of Katahdin Encampment assembled in front of the Victoria Hotel and after the usual preliminary drill arrangements formed in proces sion and marched from the Victoria Hotel Messrs. J. Christie, M. D., E. Willis. N.G. of Pioneer Lodge, and Messrs. J. G. Forbes, S. F. Matthews, Geo. Stewart, Jr., and W. K. Reynolds, Jr. The line of procession award of the Geneva Tribunal. in the order of, first, a barouche containing taken was up Germain to Union street, thence along Union street to Sydney street and following the latter course to the Queen Square and across Queen street to Prince William street, and from thence up King and along Germain streets to the Victoria Hotel. The mem bers of the Katahdia Encampment made fine, nay splendid appearance, and both as Odd Fellows and men claimed the admiration of all who had the privilege of witness ing them march. As the statistics both of the Odd Fellows of the United States in general, and the State of Maine in particu lar, have already been published in THE TRIBUNE, it is unnecessary to rehearse them at this time. After viewing the " lions' of St. John, the visitors were well prepared to undergo scrutiny by the members of Pioneer Lodge, and it cannot be denied no speeches that the greetings were truly frater-

G. of Pioneer Lodge, welcomed the visitors in a few appropriate and well timed reprinciples of the order in the civilization in respect to the world at large. Mr. Willis also happily alluded to the bond of connection formed by the placing of the iron bands, which unite Maine and New Brunster along the attendance at the fair is large, though expressed the hope that the divine principles of truth would continue to be disemi-A man named Pomeroy from Annapolis, nated until the flag of universal liberty should be unfurled in the sight of all nations, tongues and kindreds, of the earth. In conclusion N. G. Willis on behalf of Pioneer Lodge expressed the feeling of Sincere friendshipland heartfelt welcome by which the Odd Fellows of St. John were actuated in their humble reception of their humble reception of their humbles reception of the railway track last night at II o'clock, by two men, one of whom presented a pistol at his head. The next speaker called upon was Grand Patriarch Rich, some preliminary observations ten of more interest than yesterday.

dered on behalf of the brethren in accorded. He referred also to the extent and progress of the Order in Maine and indeed in the world at large. The progress of the Order was not alone visible in the United States but in many of the isles of the Pacific, and the time was not far distant when no nation nor any continent could claim Odd Fellowship as its discould claim Odd Fellowship as its distinctive Order, but that then it would be BLACK, BROWN, BLUE PURPLE, CLARET and MULBERRY. universal, and our language, that of Odd Fellowship, should govern and direct all Order in Maine, as previously published in the TRIBUNE, and trusted that as now the Order had gained strength in Germany its efforts for good should not cease, and that in Peru, Australia, New Zealand, or wherever the mystic tie of Odd Fellowship bound the cause of friendship, love and truth should suffer not, but rather flourish MANOHESTER, in the vigor and health inseparable from its existence. Among other statistics

Bro. Charles Estey, of Pionner Lodge, then sang "The Bonnie Hills of Scotland" which was so well received that he was obliged to respond with "They told me gently he was Dead." Patriarch Colton was next called upon and made a very happy speech. After referring humorously to the discomforts on account of the weather he alluded to the pacific mission of Odd Fellowship. He he had been connected with the Order for the past 28 years and had held various high positions in the gift of his Companions, but he could only draw one conclusion, that Odd Fellowship was a great and rapidly increasing institution calculated to civilize the human race and ameliorate the condition of mankind. After a very sensible and leugthy speech, including an historical account of the rise and progress of the Order Patriarch Colton yielded place to Bro. J. G. Forbes who wittily discoursed on the Order and most enthusiastically in respect to the ladies. He was followed by Chief Patriarch Davenport, of Katahdin Encampment.

Bro. John V. Ellis, P. G. of Pioneer

Patriarch Rich stated that in the United States during the past year the increase of membership has been 47,000 and that the members of the Order

Bro. John V. Ellis, P. G. of Pioneer Lodge, responded in some appropriate remarks. Patriarch White (the good looking man) followed, and the other speakers were Bro. J. Chester, M. D., Patriarch Yetter, and Bros. J. L. Stewart, Gilbert Murdoch, S. F. Matthews, Patriarch E. A. Buck, Bro. W. K. Reynolds, Jr. After which the national anthem was sung, and with three cheers for the Queen, and three for Bangor, the company dispersed. The meeting was altogether informal and in mome respects more a social gathering than an assembly under any rules of discipline. All felt at home, and between the representatives of Bangor and St. John there existed that true irreternal regard which is characteristic of every good Odd Fellow.

A number of the excursionists left on the train of last night and this morning, and the remainder will leave this evening.
