
to $8,093,886, were for payment in Canada; the remainder, 171,916, amounting to $2,236,097, were payable abroad. While the domestic business exhibits much the same results as the previous year, the transactions with other countries continue to increase in volume. The transmissions by Money Order to other countries, in 1887, exceeded those of 1886 by $150,000, and the payments in Canada of Money Orders originating abroad exceeded like payments in 1886, by $249,716.

Correspondence is now in progress with a view to the establishment of a direct interchange of Money Orders between Canada and the Leeward Islands, West Indies.
