BILL.

A Title.

An Act to provide for the separate exercise of the Collegiate and University Functions of the College established at the City of Toronto, in Upper Canada : for incorporating certain other Colleges and Collegiate Institutions of that division of the Province with the University : and for the more efficient establishment and satisfactory Government of the same.

B Preamble.

WHEREAS a University for the advancement of learning in that Division of this Province called Upper Canada, established upon principles calculated to conciliate the confidence and ensure the support of all classes and denominations of the people, would, under the blessing of Divine Providence, greatly promote the best interest, religious, moral and intellectual of the people at large ; and whereas with a view to supply the want of such an Institution, His late Majesty King George the Fourth was graciously pleased by Royal Charter, tested at Westminster the fifteenth day of March, in the eight year of his Reign, to establish a College at Toronto (then called York) in that division of the Province, under the name of King's College, with the style and privileges of an University, and afterwards to endow the same with certain of the waste lands of the Crown, in that part of the Province ; and whereas with a like view, certain other Colleges and Collegiate Institutions have since then been established, in the same division of the Province, one at the same place under the name of " Upper Canada College, " endowed also out of the public lands, one at Kingston under the name of " the College of Regiopolis, " endowed by private means alone, another at the same place under the name of " Queen's
