

other vinous or fermented liquors,—or for keeping an inn, tavern, or other house or place of public entertainment, and for retailing wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors, but not brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors,—or for vending or retailing in any store or shop, brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors, and wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors, in a quantity not less than three half-pints at any one time; and no person shall be liable by reason of his not having therein any license of such description, to the penalty of fifty dollars, imposed by the twenty second section of the Act chaptered six of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, intituled “An Act respecting tavern keepers and the sale of intoxicating liquors”

6. If on or before the day of such delivery, there should have been issued any such license for the year to commence on the first day of May then next to follow, the same shall thereupon, ipso facto, become null and void; and the Collector of Inland Revenue shall forthwith notify the person holding the same, to that effect, and shall be held to pay back to him such moneys as he may have paid, by way of duty or otherwise, therefor.

7. From the day on which such by-law takes effect for other purposes, as aforesaid, and for so long thereafter as same continues in force, no person, unless it be for exclusively medicinal or sacramental purposes, or for bona fide use in some art, trade or manufacture, shall, within such county, city, town, or local municipality, by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, directly or indirectly, sell, barter, or in consideration of the purchase of any other property give, to any other person, any spirituous or other intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor capable of being used as a beverage, and part of which is spirituous or otherwise intoxicating; and neither any license issued to any distiller or brewer,—nor yet any license for retailing on board any steamboat or other vessel, brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors, wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors,—nor yet any license for retailing on board any steamboat or other vessel, wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors, but not brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors,—shall in any wise avail to render legal any act done in violation of this section.

8. The Municipal Councils of any two or more neighboring municipalities, after having respectively passed such by-law, may also, each of them, by a further by-law, concur in and confirm, mutually, such by-law of the other or others of them; and in that case, such further by-law shall not require to have any other heading or title than such as may designate it as a by-law passed under authority of this Act,—and shall not have embodied therein any other provision than the simple declaration that such by-law or by-laws of the neighboring municipality or municipalities in question are thereby concurred in and confirmed,—and shall be communicated, in like manner, to the Collector of Inland Revenue, or Collectors, as the case maybe; and no by-law so mutually concurred in and confirmed, shall thereafter be repealed, unless with the like concurrence in and confirmation of such repeal, on the part of the municipalities in question.

9. Whoever, by himself, his clerk, servant or agent, directly or indirectly, on any pretence or by any device, sells, or barter, or in consideration of the purchase of any other property gives, to any other person, any spirituous or other intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor capable of being used as a beverage and part of which is spirituous or otherwise in-
