STREAKING EPIDEMIC HITS CAMPUS

Police yesterday arrested four more students, including two women for indecent exposure. "This is the largest number of people arrested for this offence since '69" police spokesperson Lori Naty stated.

When asked whether Tom T. Wilbur, whose recent streaking escapades have been well documented in this paper, was associated with this latest outbreak, Naty replied angrily "We believe so. Wilbur has been a pain in the butt with his inflammatory actions and comments. He's clearly sparked what we believe to be the beginning of an epidemic on this campus. The Allstar American Bar Spirit of '69 nite is obviously to blame also. How their management can continue to offer such enticingly low prices while watching these degrading consequences escalate is beyond me!"

In reply, Allstar American Bar General Manager Mr. Bill McBain had this to say. "We make no apologies for our extremely low prices. Spirit of '69 nite obviously offers such overwhelming value and fun that students are flocking to the American Bar every Wednesday in record numbers. Students will always be welcome at our establishment whether they're clothed or not."

Get the Spirit of '69 this Wednesday at the Allstar American Bar where you get the biggest bang for your buck.
