

caught the Burlington going to St. John's—Again walked about Burlington—sweet sunset.

July 13.—At St. John's introduced to Mr. Thorndike and Mr. Waters, Massachusetts lawyers, by Mr. Bean—Mr. Forster, etc. Met many agreeable companions and had a perfectly delightful excursion. Reached Montreal at 11 and went to the Exchange. The Glengarry officers and the 71st Band on the Champ de Mars.

July 14.—Evening at dinner, an eccentric character called Dixon present. Took tea with Dr. Holmes.

July 15.—Preached for the travelling missionary society in this district.

July 16.—Left in stage for Upper Canada with Lieut. Griffin, Col. Campbell, and several other officers, among them Lord Alexander. From Lachine to Cascades in boat, Cascades to Coteau in stage, Coteau to Cornwall in boat, Cornwall to Dickenson's Landing in stage.

July 17.—Dickenson's Landing to Prescott and Ogdensburg in the Brockville, and then on through the Thousand Islands whilst the sun was setting—walked about Brockville—rocks fine—Reached Kingston in the night.

July 18.—Found that the St. George, which ought to have conveyed us on, had not come in, so that we had to wait—Breakfasted at McDonald's—met here George and John Philpotts, John Home, and the two Macdonalds of Gananoque, all old school-fellows—this was a great gratification. At length the William IV. came up from Prescott and I embarked in her for Toronto, joining my fellow-travellers with whom I had parted at Dickenson's Landing. They triumphed a little over me at having caught up with us. Had a delightful sail—the water smooth. Passed Cobourg and Port Hope in the night.

July 19.—Reached Toronto at 11—a lovely morning and the harbor and town looked well. The place all alive, Lord Durham being there. Sir John had also just been there, and
