

If errors are discovered (and no doubt they will be), I should be glad to be notified of them, so that a reprint may be rendered more perfect. May I suggest that the Council of the Bar might undertake, through the appointment of a committee, the production of a handy edition of the Code along the lines of the Dalloz Edition above mentioned. It would be of inestimable benefit to the profession, and is beyond the strength of any single person to execute.

My acknowledgments must be made for valuable annotations and assistance secured from the Codes of Mr Beauchamp and Mr Kavanagh. Each new edition must borrow something from those which have gone before, and this one is no exception. Such as it is, I ask for it the kind indulgence and consideration of the members of my profession.

Montreal, May 16th., 1918.

WALTER S. JOHNSON.
