

LIFE AND DEATH.

SOME count their lives by days and years;
True life is what we do
To dry the founts of human tears,
And lead to higher view.

Death is but life at rest awhile
After the day is o'er,
Awaiting with a tranquil smile
The morn to work some more.