PARISH NEWS OF THE WEEK

ST. ANTHONY'S.

The boys of St. Anthony's have been heaping up honors on themselves. On Saturday, Oct. 12, on the M.A.A.A. grounds, they fought gallantly and succeeded in winning the junior championship.

The chairman of the evening was Rev. Thomas F. Heffernan. Among those present were: Rev. Father Shea, Messrs. T. Yates Foster and Gordon Bowie, representing the M.A.A.A.; W. Hinchey and P. Kenahan, representing the S.A.A.A.; Principal Desautels, Belmont School; John Taylor, chairman Herald Trustees; P. Hoobin, President St. Anthony's Young Men's Club; T. W. Reynolds, Librarian Catholic Commercial Academy; Desse Brown, D. C. Benson, T. Powers, chairman Juvenile Lacrosse League; H. Hoobin, ex-Ald. Kinsella, D. J. Coughlan, R. McQuaid, M. E. Day, W. Burke, president St. Anthony's Juvenile Temperance Society; D. J. O'Neill, J. J. McCullen, J. J. McCarthy, P. J. McNeill, J. Mulcair, George Barry.

The toasts were as follows: "The Pope," "The King," "Our Champions," "Our Senior Athletic Organizations," "Our Referees," "The Herald Trustees."

Rev. Father T. F. Heffernan, Capt. John Kane, President Wm. Burke, responded to the toast of "Our Champions." Mr. Cuddihy, in proposing the toast of "Our Senior Athletic Organizations," paid a tribute to the directors of the S.A.A.A., M.A.A.A., and N.A.A.A. for their kindness in helping the juvenile lacrosse league by granting the players the use of their grounds for their matches.

A letter of regret was received from Mr. J. A. Mercier, director of the N.A.A.A., expressing his regret for his inability to be present. He complimented the young champions and wished them a continuance of their success.

Desse Brown responded to the toast "Our Referees," in a neat speech, and paid a tribute to the champions.

Mr. John Taylor, chairman of The Herald Trustees, gave a history of the new league and its work. Mr. Hinchey of the Shamrock organization, presented the Herald Trophy in a few well chosen words, expressing the hope that the players would one day be on a team that would capture the Minto Cup. Captain Kane received the cup in the name of the team. Songs were contributed by Masters Hugh O'Brien, Messrs. John O'Brien, M. E. Norris and Mr. and Miss Laing. The Misses Mulcair acted as accompanists. Altogether the evening was most enjoyable, and the young lads had every reason to feel proud of the interest taken in them.

On Tuesday evening last the young victors were made the recipients of silver watches during the intermission of the concert given in their honor. Of those taking part in the concert notice is due to Miss Donnelly, Masters O'Shaughnessy, Regan, Lowton, Sullivan, O'Brien, Jas. O'Shaughnessy, Donnelly, McCabe, Morris, Leo and Gerald Phelan, Johnson and Dupuis.

Then came the principal feature of the evening, the presentation of the trophies to the victors. The pleasure of all present was augmented by the presence and encouraging words of the Pastor, Rev. J. E. Donnelly, who spoke most feelingly to the boys.

We congratulate the boys most heartily on their success and wish them many long years to wear their valuable and useful trophies.

ST. ANN'S.

The Rev. Father Reitvelt, C.S.S.R., of Brandon, Man., after spending some time in the city, the guest of the Fathers at St. Ann's, left for his home on Monday morning last.

Mr. Romis, a member of the Juniorate at Ste. Anne de Beaupre, passed through Montreal after having assisted at his father's funeral, in Pembroke, a few days ago.

One of the most novel designations yet seen in the history of street naming has appeared on the corners of the newly-opened thoroughfare that leads from St. Ann's Church to the Wellington bridge. It reads as follows: "Post no Bills."

The new park that has just been opened is being leveled and arranged generally. This will, no doubt, afford a proper approach to the church.

ST. PATRICK'S.

High Mass on Sunday last was celebrated by the Rev. Dr. Luke Callaghan, this being the first time the rev. gentleman has officiated since his recent illness. Rev. P. Heffernan preached an impressive sermon upon the first commandment of the church.

One of the special objects of St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society is, together with the promotion of Christian temperance, that of honoring in a befitting manner the anniversary of Father Mathew. In this respect this year was not an exception. On Tuesday evening a goodly number of the society, and their friends, filed into St. Patrick's Hall to do honor to the occasion, and those who attended were not disappointed. Just before the musical programme had been given, the pastor, Rev. M. Callaghan, spoke some stirring and encouraging words relative to the life, times and labors of him, the memory of whom they were once more honoring. Messrs. A. D. McGillis and J. Easton also made eloquent and patriotic speeches, in which they made clear to their friends many points regarding the aims and objects of the society. This followed a grand musical programme, in which Messrs. Griffin, Mullins, Desautel, O'Brien, Griffin, Kelly and the members of the O'Hara family sustained their parts in excellent style.

Mr. J. I. McCaffrey, organist of St. Mary's Church, rendered valuable assistance, which was highly appreciated. Little Katie O'Meara, a child of five, charmed everyone by her sweet singing.

After refreshments had been served, the friends separated to the strains of "God Save Ireland."

MR. F. S. O'REILLY OPENS OFFICE.

Mr. F. S. O'Reilly, formerly accountant for the Canadian Rubber Co., has opened an office in the Royal Bank Chambers, Westmount. Mr. O'Reilly has achieved much success in accounting and auditing the business of large as well as small concerns. He is a prominent member of the local C.M.B.A. His announcement appears in this issue.

CATHOLIC SAILORS' CONCERT.

At the rooms of our friends the Catholic Sailors, was witnessed last evening another of those gatherings which must give intense satisfaction to the management as well as to the sailors themselves. The entertainment was in the hands of the Father Dowd Court, No. 622, C. O. F., Bro. P. Collins, Past Chief Ranger, acting as chairman. The programme was a very fine one, and carried out in a manner calculated to do honor to all concerned. In this respect mention is due to Misses Hennessey, Harrington, Furlong, Galley, M. Harrington, Doyle, Donaghu, and Cahill, as well as to Messrs. Gaudry, L. Benoit, J. Benoit, O'Brien, Palmer, Cameron, Kelly, Taylor and Greenstack, all of whom seemed to vie with one another in the performance of their respective roles.

On the whole the evening was an ideal one, and let us hope that the generous assistance so gladly offered up to the present will continue as long as its necessity is felt.

CONCERT AT LAVAL.

The convocation hall at Laval contained a great crowd last Friday night, the occasion being a dramatic and musical entertainment which was offered by the students of the law faculty, given under the patronage of Mr. Justice Mathieu of the Superior Court, who is also a professor of civil law at Laval.

Mr. Paul Paquette, president of the law undergraduates, acted as chairman, with Canon Dauth, the vice-rector, on his right, and Crown Prosecutor LaFortune on his left.

The vocal part of the programme proved the feature, especially the numbers of Messrs. Rene Chopin and C. A. Bachand. Melle. Berthe Beaudette gave an Italian song. An orchestra, composed of the Misses Blanche Hardy, pianist, Hortense Decarie, violin, Alice Decarie, cellist, and Mr. Paul de La Barthe, flute, also played several selections. A comedy dialogue between Messrs. Raymond and Charland and a successful recitation by one of the pupils of Monsieur Eugene Lusselle, constituted the dramatic entertainment.

Correspondence.

THE STANDARD AND THE IRISH.

Sir,—It is notorious that the Montreal Standard, in an effort to be humorous, always chooses the Irish people as the object of its vulgarity. When this paper first found its way into the world of Montreal journalism, we were put under the impression that it was to be something in a class by itself; something the merits of which would be beyond the grasp of the ordinary daily journal. In a word, it was to be artistic in its tastes and present to its readers only such news as would tend to enlighten and ennoble them. But alas! what has happened to its notions and aspirations of such superiority? Is it in the Police Court among the unfortunates of city life that the Standard expects to find its artistic material for the digestion of its numerous readers? Is it by publishing such "rot" as the "School Principal's Experience," found in last week's issue that it hopes to satisfy the intellectual ambitions of its subscribers? If so, I feel it will soon realize that it has made a great mistake.

As for its too apparent desire to belittle the Irish people, I think it the duty of its numerous Irish subscribers, Catholic and Protestant, to give the publishers of the Standard to understand that they will not continue to support a paper which seizes every opportunity in its power to throw discredit upon their nationality. We have fought the "Stage Irishman," let us now get after the newspaper Irishman. If the Standard or any other paper cannot be humorous without insulting a large proportion of its subscribers, it becomes the duty of these subscribers to show their disapproval in a manner that will not soon be forgotten.

DERRY WALLS COLLAPSING.

Editor True Witness: The correspondent in Ireland of the Montreal Star says that "an alarming collapse of a portion of the ancient walls of Derry had taken place. Near the castle gate about eighty tons of masonry and clay crashed down thirty feet. The corporation have closed the walls to traffic. Derry walls belong to the Honorable the Irish Society of London, hence, of course, the name Londonderry." I believe it is a historical fact that the sword "crashed down" from the hand of the statue of Walker on the same walls on the 13th April, 1829—the day the Emancipation of the Catholics) Act became law, which gave Protestant Ascendancy a death-blow. What may the "crashing down" of the walls themselves portend? Yours truly, M. F. W.

HYMENEAL.

McANDREWS-MONAGHAN.

On Wednesday morning, October 16th, St. Gregory's Church, Buckingham, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. Mike Monaghan was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Miss Florence McAndrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. McAndrews, of Buckingham. The bride was richly attired in a suit of brown and wore a white picture hat. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Jessie McAndrews, who was also groomed in a suit of brown. The groom was assisted by the bride's uncle, Mr. Philip Mahoney, of Buckingham. After the nuptial ceremony the bridal party enjoyed a pleasant drive to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous repast awaited them.

After the amusements of the day had been enjoyed to the full, Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan left for Ottawa, where they remained until Friday evening, when they returned to the bride's parents, where a large crowd had assembled to present their congratulations. Song and dance were indulged in until daylight. Among those present at the wedding dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Monaghan and son, Mark; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Monaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Callaghan and Miss Katy; Mrs. Anthony Lemire; Mrs. J. McNulty and children; Mr. Mrs. J. McAndrews and Mr. Jerry McAndrews; Mrs. M. Mahoney, Mrs. McEwan, Mrs. Cosgrove, Mr. Philip Mahoney, Mr. Philip Gorman and others.

We wish the married couple a long and happy married life and may their trouble never be more and their happiness never less than it is at present. Mayo, Oct. 26, 1907.

Splendid Generosity.

On Thursday last the finest evidence of big-heartedness was witnessed when the inmates of St. Bridget's Home, Leguachetiers street, and the Home for Incubables, Notre Dame de Grace, were tendered a banquet by Mr. Angus Cooper in honor of his birthday. At St. Bridget's Home among those present were: Rev. Martin Callaghan, P.P., Rev. P. Heffernan, Hon. Dr. Guerin, Miss Guerin, the Misses Guerin, Dr. Kennedy, Mrs. and Miss Fitzgibbon, Mrs. Monk, Mr. Bernard Tansy and Mr. Turgeon. At the Home for Incubables over two hundred sat down to a similar feast. A souvenir of the occasion was presented to each one, the old ladies receiving a cup and saucer, the old men a pipe and package of tobacco. The whole thing was most unique and accomplished a spirit of unity of which is too well known.
