EDITORIAL NOTES.

The French ministry has resigned owing to an adverse vote in the Chamber of Deputies.

Sir William Van Horne has resigned the Presidency of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and Mr. Shaughnessy takes his place as General Manager and President of the Company.

The strike of the Grand Trunk section men is still unsettled. The Liberal whip, Mr. James Sutherland, has been in Montreal on behalf of the Government interviewing the manager and president of the Company and the representatives of the strikers with a view to end the strike. Hopes are entertained of an early settlement.

British Columbia has offered to assume one-ninth of the cost of the Pacific cable. This, with the offer of the Dominion Government to assume five-eighths of the cost, is expected to materially encourage the promoters of the scheme to go forward.

Preparations for war are being made in Britain. The negotiations having failed through the determined opposition of President Kruger to granting the rights of citizenship to the Uitlanders in the Transvaal. Britain evidently means to assert her authority in the premises. Lord Wolseley has been busy for several days at the War Office preparing for war in South Africa. The effective lists of the first class reserve have been prepared and transport for the first army corps has been provisionally arranged. It is again rumoured that Britain has purchased Delagoa Bay and will shortly take possession. If the rumor is correct, the Transvaal will be surrounded by British territory.

Germany has refused to accept the principle of permanent arbitration embodied in the draft introduced by Sir Julian Pauncefote. Her objections are grounded first on principle and secondly on expediency. Dr. Zorn, the German delegate, argued that it was derogatory to a monarch's sovereignty and to a nation's independence. A king holding his title by divine right could not think of divesting himself of an essential part of his sovereignty, the right to shape the nation's course at a critical time. Sir Julian Pauncefote in reply said he thought the objections of the German delegate showed a view of statecraft which many might consider as not altogether modern.

The suffering caused by the intense itching and burning sensations of piles is only one of the horrors of this disease, for there is always great danger of piles developing into fistula, one of the most disgusting diseases imaginable.
