

MOVIE FILMS THAT MAKE FLESH CREEP

Uncensored Pictures in Rural England—Many Scenes of Horror are Depicted.

LONDON, July 28.—"I spoke to a boy about twelve years old who attended a motion picture show in a little country town a week or two ago, and he positively trembled as he reported what he had seen. He said, 'I shall never go there again. It was horrible.' I said, 'What was horrible?' He said, 'I saw a man cut his throat.'"

"This is no exaggeration," says Canon Rawnsley, a well known poet and minister, who is heading a big agitation in England against unwholesome motion pictures. "It was told to me personally, and is really only one of a number of incidents that have come under my notice this month, proving that there is passing over England a real craving for scenes of horror."

Amongst the titles of films which are being, or have recently been, exhibited, he instances the following: "Massacre: A Terrible Tragedy," "The Wheel of Destruction," "The Auto Race. The auto when going at a prodigious rate overturns, and buries its living occupants."

"Dogs Killing Rats in a Rat Pit," "A Public Execution in the East." To those picture proprietors who maintain that their exhibitions are for the moral improvement and amusement of the masses, Canon Rawnsley replies: "Look at your posters and the items of horror or mere excitement or degrading sensationalism which, in spite of the British censorship, are still being exhibited up and down the country to the detriment and discouragement of the nobler feelings of gentleness and compassion."

"The worst of it is," he adds, "that neither the police nor the agents of the motion picture firms who are sent out as exhibitors are sufficiently educated to know what is horrible and what is not."

"What the public really needs is that in every town where motion picture halls are springing up like mushrooms there should be trained inspectors, men and women, who should know at a glance a down-grade or demoralizing film, and should at once report it to headquarters."

"If," he adds, "the English people wish to commit suicide they can do it by overtaxing the brains of the very young; and never has human ingenuity invented a device more efficacious for this sinister end than the motion pictures."

Further, I have seen it stated by a scientific expert that the effects of the results we must look forward to is a development of the disease of the eyes, and he incidentally mentions that one of the symptoms of this pleasuring complaint is an increased activity of the lachrymal glands.

"If this is true—and it is quite credible—let us contemplate the England of the next generation as peopled by men and women who have had their nervous systems spoilt, their imaginations ruined, their curiosity crushed, in order to learn one thing only, viz., how to weep at nothing at all."

THEY ALWAYS HELP THE OLD FOLKS

Why Mrs. Dionne Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Fine Old Quebec Lady Was Wasting Away When She Turned to Dodd's Kidney Pills and Found a New Lease of Life.

ST. MATHIEU, Rimouski Co., Que., July 28.—(Special)—"Publish it to all the world that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me." Those are the words of Mrs. Dionne, an old and respected resident of this place. And surely that cure was a wonderful one. Mrs. Dionne had reached the advanced age of sixty-nine years when ill-health overtook her. From 184 lbs. she wasted away till she weighed only 120 lbs., and she was a very sick woman, indeed. Speaking of her case, she says:

"My back and head ached, my heart troubled me, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing, and I perspired freely at night. I also had a pressure or sharp pain on the top of my head, and I found it difficult to collect my thoughts."

It was at this stage that Mrs. Dionne concluded that her trouble came from her kidneys, and she turned to Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box helped her. She took twelve boxes, and is cured.

Dodd's Kidney Pills always help old people, because when the human body starts to wear out, the kidneys are the first to go. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys.

Nine men working below at Glespen Pit in Lanarkshire, were rescued during the recent floods. The flooding became rapidly so alarming that rescue parties were at once got together to get the men to the surface. This was accomplished with great difficulty, the last man who was brought to the surface in a state of collapse, being almost immersed when he was rescued.

Groom is An American—May Upsei Ceremony.

COBURG, July 30.—Robert Aulls, resident of the Arlington here as a young man, came from St. Louis in the early part of today, charged with receiving money under false pretences.

His arrest is a sequel to a number of similar cases, which have set on foot a campaign in this Ontario town by one of the homes of the province, where he met a young lady who was married last Friday.

On Monday, July 8, Mr. Aulls walked into the residence of Delaney's store. The police officers required by the Ontario amendments to the Criminal Code were put to the application.

They gave the name of his bride as Miss Doris Reid, of Coburg, and her age as 20. Having ascertained the demands of the Ontario Act, Mr. Aulls hurried to his jewelry store and purchased a ring and a watch for the bride.

The program was a marriage ceremony, a well-known young man, and asked him to be the best man at his wedding. The program was a marriage ceremony, a well-known young man, and asked him to be the best man at his wedding.

WESTERN CROP IS BEST FOR YEARS

President Kelly, of Winnipeg Grain Exchange, Is Full of Optimism.

(Canadian Press Despatch) WINNIPEG, July 30.—"We have a splendid crop, in fact the best for many years," said Andrew Kelly, president of the grain exchange and president of the Western Canada Flour Mills Company, this morning upon his return from a long trip via the C.N.R. to Edmonton, Furman, Saskatchewan and Regina. He is full of optimism at the prospects.

"To come down to hard facts," said Mr. Kelly, "I saw barley being cut at many places, the crop will be probably a record for the year. I saw wheat turning color in many districts, and there will be much wheat cut next week and wheat harvesting will be general August 1st. The great bulk of the oat crop will also be ready by that time. I saw little flax, but what I saw was good. The weather is ideal for filling and maturing and a few weeks more of it will see Western Canada with the biggest yield of wheat she has ever had. I base this on increased acreage and the general satisfactory condition of the crop."

Uncle Joe Cannon in Accident DANVILLE, Ill., July 30.—Former speaker Joseph G. Cannon's automobile plunged down a steep bank and righted itself in a smoky lake in the Springfield cemetery last night.

At a sharp bend in the roadway along the lake bank, his chauffeur missed the brake with his foot and the car leaped off the ten foot bank. The water was shallow and the passengers easily waded to the shore. Neither Mr. Cannon nor his daughter suffered any injury.

Two of the women arrested as a result of the demonstration outside the jail Monday, were sentenced to two months in prison. A heavy guard of police has been placed about the jail.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was weaker yesterday as a result of her exertions when she stopped at the King's horse, while he was running in the Epsom Derby, but the prime minister was drunk when he dropped the suffrage bill."

ANOTHER CASE OF LOST JEWELS

Over $150,000 in Precious Gems Stolen at Resort at Rhode Island.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., July 30.—Jewelry, the value of which is roughly estimated at $150,000 was stolen from Shoreacres, the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanan of New York, Friday night.

Reports that the Hanans had been robbed were denied until today when Mrs. Hanan told the story of their loss. Mr. Hanan is seriously ill and has been kept in ignorance of what has occurred. An unwillingness to disturb him influenced his wife to withhold the facts until this time.

The principal articles taken were: A diamond necklace, a pearl necklace, a diamond crested watch, a set of star sapphires surrounded by diamonds, a diamond pendant, a diamond brooch, a pair of diamond earrings, a pair of black diamond earrings surrounded by white diamonds, and a platinum watch set with diamonds. Several other articles of lesser value were taken, but Mrs. Hanan could not recall of just what they consisted.

A peculiar feature of the robbery was that some particularly valuable gems were left in the bureau drawer from which the others were removed. They could hardly have been overlooked and this suggests that the job was a hurried one.

Mrs. Hanan would not place any value on the lost gems, but the above estimate was made by a lapidary from a casual description of the property. Mrs. Hanan is accustomed to wear very little jewelry and would not ordinarily have had so much at Shoreacres. It was brought over from New York at the time when she expected to give her annual reception to Governor and Mrs. Pothier. The illness of Mr. Hanan made it necessary to cancel this function.

The jewelry was taken from Mrs. Hanan's boudoir a few moments after she had left the house to attend a reception at St. Peter's-by-the-Sea. The loss was discovered within thirty minutes, but although three detective agencies have been working on the case since Monday morning no trace of the robbery has been secured.

PAIR OF WALKERS ARRIVE IN CITY They Are on a Long Hike From Kansas City to Montreal.

Walking from Kansas City to Montreal, a distance of 2,500 miles, Waldo Wallis, and Kerr Forgan, two sturdy young men clad in khaki, with their sturdy little brown range pony, drawing a two wheeled cart containing such things as they require, entered the city this morning at 11 o'clock, and at once proceeded to the city hall, where they secured a permit to sell the picture post cards which are defraying their expenses.

"The Vagabond Artists," that is what they call themselves, are not making this lengthy journey on a wager or anything of that nature, but simply for the experience, and to see the country. While tramping they never ride. They are taking notes and photographs, and doing a little painting in order to get material for a series of articles they intend writing.

On May 10th they left the Western city and expect to arrive in Montreal Sept. 1.

MOIR'S FRIENDS HOPEFUL THAT HE WILL BE RELEASED

Not Specially Pleased With Intrusion of Joseph Lawrence, London.

Wish Hon. Mr. Hanna to Order Examination.

TORONTO, July 30.—Efforts to secure the release of "Private" William A. Moir, from the central prison are expected by his friends to bear fruit soon. Negotiations have been quietly pursued for over a year. This morning a despatch from London states that a Mr. Lawrence, of that city, has offered to enter into a bond for $5,000 for the good conduct of Moir if he is paroled. Moir is imprisoned as a criminal suitor, having been transferred from the Hamilton Asylum, to which he was committed after his trial for the murder of "Colonel" Sargeant Lloyd at Wolsley Barracks on April 17, 1908.

It is learned at central prison that Mr. Lawrence, if this despatch is correct, is acting independently in the matter as others have long been asking for the release of Moir and are beginning to be sanguine regarding the outcome. The intention of Mr. Lawrence is not very acceptable to the gentlemen who have been negotiating with the Minister of Justice at Ottawa, as they think the introduction of a new factor in the problem.

NICHOLAS KNOWS WHAT IT'S LIKE

Emperor of Russia Thought He Would Like to be a Private Soldier.

LONDON, July 30.—Emperor Nicholas of Russia, accounted as a private, recently made a seven mile march in order to gain personal experience as a common soldier, according to The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent.

The emperor was attired as a rifleman with the usual rolled overcoat, pouches with 120 rounds of ammunition, trenching spade, ration bag, etc., altogether weighing three quarters of a hundred pounds weight, exclusive of the rifle. Thus equipped with all the outfit of an infantryman, the emperor marched up hill and down dale for seven miles, giving the salute of a private soldier to the officers whom he met on the way. Every one was apparently ignorant of his identity until the next day when the emperor entered himself, according to the regulations on the regimental roll as "private Nicholas Romanoff, married, of the Orthodox faith, coming from Tsarskoe-Selo."
