Rev. J. C. Potts Presented With Purse Of Gold

The Popular Curate of Grace Church Says Farewell To Congregation

The Rev. J. C. Potts was presented with a purse of gold, amounting to $130 after the evening service at Grace church last night. The presentation was made by Col. Wilkes, who expressed his pleasure in handing over the gift to the recipient, and paid a high tribute to the departing curate. The work done in the A. Y. P. A. had been of great moment to the church. Responding Mr. Potts spoke modestly of his efforts and was very thankful that his work had been looked upon with so much favor. Archdeacon Mackenzie spoke eloquently of the worth of Mr. Potts, whom he was very sorry to lose, but he wished him every success in his new sphere of work at Clinton. Conducting the evening service, the curate discoursed upon the lay husbandman of God's vineyard and the moral of his sermon was to encourage Christian work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop have left on their trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Elmer Baker, leave on Tuesday and will spend two months in Philadelphia and New York.

Miss Rhea Hutchinson returned home on Saturday after a visit in Hamilton with her sister, Mrs. Angus Mumby.

At the Congregational Church last evening, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Brant Avenue, rendered a solo with much acceptance.

Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., has so far improved in health as to be up daily, but will still be confined to the house for some time.

Mrs. Brandon and son Harry, of Beechwood Ave., Hamilton, were week end visitors at Mrs. H. Mears, 266 Murray street.

Mrs. F. C. Mills has gone to Windsor to attend the funeral of a sister, Miss Lilian Rochford, who passed away this morning.

Miss Floss Wilcox, Murray Street, is enjoying a month's visit in Toronto, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. B. W. Merrill. She will also visit Mrs. Roswell, Rosedale, and Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Elliott.

Friends of Mrs. Geo. Kippax will be sorry to learn of a nasty mishap she sustained on Sunday at her home when she suffered a broken arm in a fall. Mrs. Kippax is resting easily to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corbett, 153 Marlborough street, announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Belle Corbett, to Mr. J. E. Carroll of Thornbury, the marriage to take place quietly, Wednesday, Feb. 18th.

The marriage is taking place to-day in London of Mr. Harry Scott of this city and Miss Mabel Boyce. The bride is a former Brantfordite and well known in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will take up residence on Brant Avenue.

A delightful sleighing party was held Saturday evening by the members of the Sunday school classes of Mrs. Ed. Hutchinson, Mr. Percy Verity and Mr. Thomas Logan, of Colborne St. Church. The party repaired to the home of Mr. Burri, near the White School House, all after having a most enjoyable time.

At The Y. W. C. A.

The "I Will Trust Club" held their weekly meeting in the Y.W.C.A. on Saturday when two excellent papers were given by Miss King and Mrs. Sickle. The school of life was the subject of Miss King's paper whilst Mrs. Sickle took "The Shepherd and his Sheep." The papers gave evidence of much and deep thought and were very instructive to all present. Miss Alda Shultz sang to the gathering very sweetly and acceptably.

The Literary Club met in good numbers in the reading room on Saturday and listened to two splendid papers. Mrs. S. W. Secord gave a talk on the merit of the poetry of Robert Service, and the poet and his works were revealed to the audience as perhaps he never has been before. Mrs. Secord was certainly well versed in her topic. Mrs. M. Gamble, discoursed eloquently on the works of the eminent literary writer, Agnes Laut greatly to the interest and benefit of the ladies. A vocal duet, harmoniously rendered by Mrs. W. S. Bates and Mrs. T. Brookes, was enthusiastically received.

The next meeting of the Literary Club will be held on Saturday, Feb. 28th, when Mrs. Scott-Raff of Toronto, will address the members. She will be accompanied by many citizens of the Queen City.

On Saturday afternoon members of the Ladies' Junior Physical Classes held a pleasant sleigh ride when many and various parts of the city were visited. The merry party which numbered about 35 then adjourned to the Y.W.C.A. for refreshments and concluded their ride in an appropriate manner.
