

OBITUARY

Ralph Curry

The death of Ralph Irvine, youngest son of Mrs. F. W. Curry, took place at his home in Hortonville, Kings County on the evening of February 5th. He was nineteen years of age and had been an invalid since his infancy. Recently his sufferings had been severe and death came as a welcome release. To his mother and sisters who so tenderly ministered to him during this long period of illness, his passing leaves a blank that time alone can efface. It was only last summer that they were called upon to mourn the loss of the husband and father, whose illness extended over a period of three years.

The many friends of the family will unite in heartfelt sympathy with Mrs. Curry, her daughters and only surviving son, who has been for some years in the Canadian West. The funeral service on Wednesday afternoon, which was largely attended, was conducted by the Rev. A. Hockin, interment being in the Methodist Cemetery, Grand Pre.

Miss Charlotte Jean Smith, daughter of Mrs. Jesse P. Smith, Windsor, and Harry Wally of Ontario formerly of Scotch Village, were married on Wednesday.

Mr. Joseph King of Hortonville was visiting his daughter Mrs. Paul Wilson at Windsor last week.

Mrs. Maggie Lockwood met with a severe accident recently at her home Port Williams by breaking one of her arms.

Valentines Day was quite universally observed.

Official reports of the sinking of the American schooner Lyman M. Law, in the Mediterranean by an Austrian submarine, added only slightly to the tension, for while the act is believed to have been illegal, no lives were lost and the vessel apparently was warned. The incident was not looked upon as on itself sufficient to hurry the development of the situation.

Fighting Against Ourselves For You

For many years the publishers of weekly newspapers have fought against raising the price of their paper from $1.00 to $1.50 — just because they feared to take a step that might get them in wrong with the subscribers. Yet all these years the costs of publishing have been mounting up, up, up, to an alarming point.

Now war has brought the matter to a head. It has added "the last straw." Paper prices, ink prices, the prices of type, ink-rollers and supplies of all sorts have soared so that it costs us a good many dollars more each week to produce THE ADVERTISER than it did a generation ago, or 20, or 15 or 10 or even 5 years ago.

Necessity compelled us to raise the subscription price of the Advertiser to $1.50, this advance to go into effect on Jan 1st, 1917. Our fight for you, the fight against ourselves — must come to an end. And just because we have given you the best end of it all these past years, when the cost of living and the cost of publishing were climbing all the time, we now ask you to reciprocate by paying the higher price willingly.

We believe that you are ready this year to pay the Higher Rate.

Three cents a week! An extra cent! Is there a man or woman in this community who will say that he or she cannot afford it. Three cents — the price of an egg in winter, the postage on a letter, not quite the price of a pint of milk, the price of a glass of buttermilk or half the price of a cheap cigar! Surely no one will say that 3 cents a week for a local newspaper is more than he or she can afford!

Yarmouth Herald: Schooner Dorothy M. Smart arrived in the harbor on Friday evening and came up to the Consumers' wharf next day. She had a fare of 7,000 haddock, 23000 cod and 2000 cusk. She experienced a serious time during the gale, having been hoisted to and thrown suddenly over on her beam ends by a squall. Her foresail was torn and it was only by the alertness of her captain and crew that more serious injury was averted.
