The Election.

Never in the history of parliamentary elections in Canada, was so much excitement manifested as was in the general election of yesterday, with the exception of Prince Edward Island, which went Liberal with its six representatives. The same result is to be chronicled of the ejection of yesterday, with the exception that the Conservatives redeemed two seats from the "tight little island." Sir John Macdonald's appeal and political, of the United States, while at the same time being willing to settle all outstanding disputes between Canada and our neighbors across between Canada and our neighbors across the border on the basis of freer trade to make concessions in regard to the fisheries on the Atlantic coast and to concede something towards their control of the seal industry in Behring sea. This appeal of the "grand old man" has been listened to by the electors of our Dominion, and yesterday.

Never in the history of parliamentary elections in Canada, was so much excitement manifested as was in the excettion of 1887 the government was statined by majorities in all the provinces with the exception that the Conservatives redeemed two seats from the "tight little island." Sir John Macdonald's appeal was for the maintenance of Canada's in lependence commercial and political, of the United States, while at the same time being willing to settle all outs

We have received from the publishers, John Lovell & Son, Montreal, "A Hidden Foe," by G. A. Henty, just published in the "Canadian Copyright Series." "A Hidden Foe' is a romantic work of fiction the perusal of which will excite the livelicist feelings of curiosity. The author has given an engressingly interesting story. It has a powerful plot and many of the passages are strikingly effective.

Assisters to fit on parries, great coal savers, for sale by Walters Brown.

The Sabbath-school meetings, at Port Williams, for Brother Grierson, of which notice was given last week, came off as announced. The writer exceedingly regrets that so few were present on Monday p. m. As might be expected, the speaker was full of lite, zeel and earnestness.

The house in the evening was well filled, while the ordinary delegation of children was not forgotten. A number of views of coal mines were very interesting, especially when so much is being said about the recent Springhill disaster. There followed a series of views representing the deluge, the patriarchs, wanderings of the Children of Israel, and the last week in our Lord's life. Birds, beasts and cities flew by in rapid succession, while all listened and looked with rapt attention for over two hours.

The Wolfville S. P. C.

The regular annual meeting of the Wolfville Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty was held in the vestry of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening last. The president, Dr Sawyer, occupied the chair, and there was a fair attendance of the members. Mr J. I. Brown, Agent of the Society presented a verbal report of his operations during the year, which was quite satisfactory to the meeting. Some interesting discussions took place concerning the aims of the Society and a quantity of valuable infor-

436, met to celebrate the thirteenth anniversary of the Division. "Lily of the Valley" Division, No. 440, and "Harvest Home" Division, No. 457, were present by invitation. The evening was all that could be desired, and about seventy-five visitors improved the good sleighing to visit their brethren of "Safeguard." A good programme was furnished by each Division. We fear it would take too much of your valuable space to publish it in full. We hope serves special mention. A song by Sister Ethel Loomer, of "Safeguard," the excellent violin music by members of "Harvest Home," and the recitation "Evening at Grand Pre," by Sister Mabel Reid, cf "Lily of the Valley." Remarks were made by brothers W. I. den. Remarks were made by brothers W. L. Harris, John G. Loomer, and T. J. Borden. The sisters of "Safeguard" did not forget the wants of the inner man. the members and visitors went to their homes realizing they had spent a pleasant evening "Without the aid of Wine."

The Division was organized, February 19th, 1878, with thirty six charter members. Of the original number there are but two whose names are on the books the present time. Bro. W. L. Harris a CADIAN for 1891 most attractive. Division adjourned at 11.45 o'clock, and
