PUBLIC ATTENTION!

In order to more fully introduce our Woodstock Studio and Exclusive Photographs to the general public of this district we are offering a special attraction for one week only—July 12-17, 1928.

On every order of one dozen Cabinet Photos we will allow the price of a first class return fare from either of the following R. R. Stations named below, on intervening points:

Perth, Bath, Florenceville, Hartland, McAdam, Canterbury, Beaton, Deben, Pictou, Hawkeston, Temple, Centreville, Millville, Odo.

All we request is that those who take advantage of the free trip to Woodstock shall show us the return ticket for identification purposes. Cloudy or rainy weather does not interfere with the taking of photos.

Prices of our best cabinet photos are from $9.50 to 12.50 per dozen. We guarantee satisfaction.

For further information write or phone J. McKinlay, Manager.

Your Farm Is Money

Your farm represents quite a sum of money. There are dollars invested everywhere—in your machinery, grain, buildings and other possessions.

What protection have you? What chance to get back any of the money you have invested if a fire, or tornado, destroys or damages your farm property?

A Farm Insurance policy will protect you. It will assure you the return of the greater portion of your investments.

Let us talk it over with you.

HIS POCKET WAS BARE

Teacher was giving a lesson on good behavior, and wanted to drive it home to the children's mind.

First she sought to point out the wickedness of stealing.

"Johnny," she said to one small boy, "if I put my hand in your pocket and took out a penny, what would I be?"

But instead of replying, "A thief," Johnny looked at her solemnly, and remarked:

"A conjurer!"—London Answers.

Driven to it.

"My boy," said Mr. Grubbin, "are you getting ready to settle down?"

"Yes, dad, I guess I'll have to."

"A sensible decision, sir."

"Perhaps. Most of the chaps I went to college with are doing some kind of beastly work, and one hates to sit around his club all day with nobody to talk to but the waiters. Ho, hum! I'll have to go into business to amuse myself."

BEGINNING OF A ROMANCE.

Nurse—If you loved me you would give up smoking when you get over your terrible wounds.

Soldier—If you loved me you wouldn't ask me to give it up.

The Producer.

A man worth while, beyond a doubt, That person is, Who does not rant, or roar or shout, But tends to his bit.

Defined.

"What is artistic temperament, anyhow?"

"I'll tell you what is," answered the veteran stage manager. "It's what enables a star to make her exit with every woman in the house crying over her because she's so sweet and good and then swear at a stage hand who interrupts her stately progress to her dressing room."

A Mean Man.

"Would you mind telling me what the upkeep of your limousine amounts to?"

"Certainly not," replied the prosperous citizen. "But may I ask why you want to know?"

"My wife's been after me to buy a diver and I'm going to argue against it on a limousine basis."

Hypercritical.

"Do you care for these movie 'close-ups'?"

"No," replied the esthetic person. "They give you a fine chance to study the expression on the star's face."

"Maybe so, but I can't admire even the most beautiful woman when her face looks like a full moon."

Their Differences.

Hokus—On what grounds were they divorced?

Pukus—Incompatibility of temperament, I believe.

Hokus—Couldn't they agree?

Pukus—No; every time she tried to make him mad he just laughed.—Town Topics.

Wanted Some One Congenial.

The Applicant—As your paid companion, will I be expected to accompany you on week-ends and other short trips?

Mrs. K. Nyne—Oh, I didn't advertise for a companion for myself. It's for my little dog, to keep him from being lonesome while I'm out.

Too Bad.

Mother—Do not feel so upset, Tommy. Your little sister has passed the critical point in her illness, and will get well.

Tommy (tearfully)—I know it. And now she will want to eat all the good things the neighbors send in to her every day herself.

SOME DINNER.

"Was it much of a dinner?"

"I should say it was. There were seven different kinds of forks at each plate."

Safety First.

A crazy motorist is he. He opens wide the gas, His driving motor assa to let "They shall not pass!"

Quite Otherwise.

"Your charges are simply outrageous," complained the guest who was at the shore hotel for his health.

"Hold on!" protested the landlord. "You forget I'm not at this hotel for the same reason that you are."

Her Drawback.

"How could that girl dressmaker gain such a reputation?"

"Why not?"

"Weren't all the dresses she made miss B's?"

"I Wonder Would It Help Me?"

THIS question has been answered by many thousands of women who have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Sleeplessness, irritability, nervousness, gloomy forebodings of the future, depression and discouragement—these are some of the symptoms which tell of exhausted nerves.

In order to avoid nervous prostration or some form of paralysis it is well to get the building up process established at once by use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
