On Thursday morning last Gustave Lantain, of Caraquet, Gloncester Co., was murdered by his cousin, Philias Lantain. It appears that Gustave accompanied a constable to Philias' house to make a levy under a judgment against him. Philias was absent at the time of their arrival, but returned from the woods shortly afterwards, and found the constable and his cousin endeavoring to effect an entrance into the barn. A quarget ensued. Gustave drew a revolver, fired two shots into the air, and threat-net to s hoot Philias if he did not keep away. Philias then rushed at his cousin and dealt him a deadly blow on the head with an axe, which felled him to the ground. He then dealt him another blow. Gustav ired until Eriday morning. Philias was arcested. He hats served a three years' term in the penitentiary for assaulting a constable and breaking his arm.
