

HASZARD'S GAZETTE, FEBRUARY 15.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE—WEEKLY—ENLARGED.

On the 11th of last April THE DAILY TRIBUNE, having completed its twelfth year, was enlarged more than one fourth, or to the size of "The London Times," making it considerably larger than any other daily published in this country or in the world. No change in price was made in consequence of this Enlargement—the paper being still offered to Mail Subscribers at $5 per annum and sold to Carriers and to Agents ordering it by Express or Mail for distant sale at $1 50 for one hundred copies, or $15 per thousand copies, payable in advance. "At these prices; our aggregate receipts for our entire Daily edition do not exceed the sum we pay for Paper and Ink, leaving all other expenses to be defrayed from our receipts for Advertising. In other words, we return to each subscriber his paper free of all expense, except that he paid when he sent him, looking for the reward of our own labor and the heavy expense of Telegraphing, Correspondence, Reporting, Composition, Printing, Mailing, Book-keeping, Rent, &c., to our Advertisers alone. We do not think it now possible to cheapen newspapers beyond this point; if it ever shall be hereafter, we intend to be even with the foremost in demonstrating the fact.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY, EUROPEAN and CALIFORNIA editions were enlarged simultaneously with the Daily, and also without any increase of price. We respectfully solicit a comparison of our Semi-Weekly at $3 per annum, [two copies sent a full year for $6, and ten copies for $20,] with any $4 or $5 Semi-Weekly, and will cheerfully send copies for this purpose upon due receipt of postpaid application.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE entered on its thirteenth year on the 3d of January, 1852, was enlarged to the size of the Semi-Weekly Daily, and costing more than four times as much as the Daily, without any increase of price. We respectfully solicit a comparison of our Semi-Weekly at $3 per annum, [two copies sent a full year for $6, and ten copies for $20,] with any $4 or $5 Semi-Weekly, and will cheerfully send copies for this purpose upon due receipt of postpaid application.

GLEASON'S PICTORIAL.—ON the first of January last, Gleason's Pictorial will commence its sixth volume, and will appear vastly improved in all respects, with a superb new heading, new type and dress throughout, and will be printed upon the finest paper. As the proprietor of the Pictorial has purchased the entire good will of Barnum's New York Illustrated News, and has merged that journal in the Pictorial, the public will reap the advantage of this concentration of the strength of the two papers upon one, both in the artistic and the literary departments.

The brilliant host of correspondents and artists will be engaged on Gleason's Pictorial as heretofore, and a large addition is also made to the corps, both in talent and number. The most liberal arrangements have been completed, and such as will enable the Proprietor to produce by far the finest illustrated journal yet published, and much superior to the present issue of the paper. The columns of the Pictorial will constantly be beautified by all that can please and instruct in art and nature, and its literary department will constantly sustain the high reputation it has long enjoyed.

The pages of Gleason's Pictorial will contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note, in the eastern or western hemisphere, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service; with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautiful scenery, taken from life, will also be given, with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the waters, and will present a complete and original exhibition of every species of art. It will contain fifteen hundred and sixty-four square inches, giving a great amount of reading matter and illustrations—and forming a mammoth weekly paper of sixteen octavo pages.

The Wonder of the World!

Devines' Compound

Fitch Lozenge.

THE Great Remedy is at last discovered, and COUGHES, COLES, ASTHMA. COSTIVENESS AND CONSUMPTION have lost their terror, and vanish from the earth forever. This Sovereign Remedy—Was it ever more known that "Hopeless cases of Consumption were cured for less than $5?"

Truly, if any individual is to be pitied, and needs sympathy, it is the consumptive,—always expecting to get well, and yet the painful evidence of decay almost "makes the inner soul shrink with the outer flesh."

"Some bloom as roses bloom,

And live as roses live,

A single morning space!"

While others, in more mature life,—by some immoderate and a slight cold neglected,—in the hectic flush, the painful cough,

"The prints of their parting steps appear."

All we ask is this one question:—"If you have got some members, or any other members of the body, stature &c., to lie ill,—are you not interested in their welfare?"
