Answer to Chipman Correspondent

EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE.

Several of your readers have been some what amused at your Chipman correspondent's eccentric notions...

At least it has been repeated again and again here in the shiretown, till some actually believe it.

Now if your correspondent had confined himself, in his self imposed duty of making the newspaper the greatest educator in the world...

Conductor Rennie of the I. C. R. met with an accident at his residence the other day by which he may be disabled for several weeks.

Mrs. Leonard Nese of the North End has sued the publisher of Progress for an alleged libel; damages are placed at $5,000.

Charles H. Leonard, of the firm of Leonard Bros., fish dealers, died suddenly and unexpectedly a few days ago.

Ship Asia, owned by Taylor Bros., this city, was lost in Nantucket shoals in a recent storm with 17 of her crew of 20 men and the captain's wife and daughter.

A London, England, publisher has contracted with Mr. H. L. Spencer for twenty-four papers on Canadian and Canadian life as they have been seen by him during the last twenty years.

The people of St. John are sending hundreds of copies of the twice-a-week Gazette to their friends abroad because of the faithful record of Maritime provinces news which it contains.

The storms that have raised havoc with the steam cars have had slightly effected the electric car service in the city.

There is a general strengthening in the markets. Best Ontario flour is quoted at $5.10; oatmeal is higher and in good demand at $4.20.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

Gold, Gold, Glittering Gold—The Day's News—The Markets, Etc.

Why brave the perils of the Yukon where it is impossible that more than four or five adventurers in a hundred should succeed in the accomplishments of their desires...

The wealth of Oak Island, when found, it is expected will be equal to the fortunes of a half dozen Vanderbilts; treasures almost as valuable, according to tradition, are buried on the island of Grand Magan...

Now treasure seekers are said to be busy on the Upper St. John. It is told that in 1750 a wealthy diamond merchant from Paris, with his daughter, set out on a journey through the wilderness from Quebec to Port Royal...
