made the irons too hot, and the goat too frisky, and treated me with a roughness, generally, that the occasion did not warrant.

Before fulminating my narrative I will just state, for the benefit of those who don't know, that Masonry is about aix hundred thousand years old. It was eld when the fraternity got into trouble at the tower of Babel, and it was old when the fraternity got into trouble at the tower of Babel, and it was old when Adam put on his apron first as Grand Master in the E-len Ledge. As a more convincing proof of its artiquity, I would just mention that a party of miners the other day in one of their excavations came upon the petrified remains of a Masonic Ledge, with the members in their places, and all complete, and emineral geologists who have examined the fussile are of the comision that these and emittent geologists who have examined the fussils are of the opinion that these bodies have been imbedded in the rock for m re than fifteen thousand years.

On the evening I was to be initiated I made my will and took a most affectionate the national emblems, as follows:— The Rose, Thistle and Shamrock.

Before I had time to look about me a long-legged sooundred knocked me over with a club: he then stood me on my feet and another marander protes a right at mean down near the property of the control of the marander throne. A false and abourd politeness made a rush at me and brought me down again. After I had undergone this exhibitrating exercise for five minutes, they "Since you are so reluctant to tell your again. After I had undergone this ex-hilarating exercise for five minutes, they stretched me out on a bench and examined let him that is an adheront of the House of York pull a white rose as I do."
Then said the Earl of Somerset: my teeth and pinched my muscles, and stuck pins into me all over, and shoved casenne peper up my nose, and poured molten lead into my trowers pocket, and pulled hairs out of the back of my nose, with red-hot pineers, with a view I suppose, to make me feel unembarrassed and me."

* * * * * * *

When I came to my senses I was all alone in the ante-room of the lodge. It was a lively and cheerful apartment. Acouple of crocediles were amusing themselves in one corner and a few full grown rattlesnakes were practising the flying trapess on the stove-pup. The furniture consisted chiefly of half a dozen mumnier, the skeletons of Capt. Kidd. Lucretis Borgia, Guv Favkes, Jack the Giant Killer, Oliver Cromwell, the Wandering Jew. William the Conqueror, Christopher Colsenbus, and Dick Turpin, a Gying machine, three barrels of gunpowder, and a restarkably healthy and well developed wild cast. Just then half a dozen pirates, clad in a prons and sashes rushed into the room with a whop. One of them, the buggest and ugliest, who appeared to be the chief, ordered the attendants, in a voice of thunder, to trot out the annual. The attendants disappeared, but immediately reappeared, leading an iron-clad goat, a part of wings, and seven or eight tails stuck all over him. My eyes were bandaged and I was told to mount. I said, gentlemen, if you'll excuse me, I would rather not. Im not accustomed to going up in a ballon; besides I've got an engagement down town. My wife, wants to see me particularly. Plibe back in a few minutes; I rather think my house is on fire, but I'll be back in seven intensity. The propers of their posts and post. Somebody then said let go, and away we went. I've been through a good namy perilous scene; I've been thow a good namy perilous scene; I've been down in a railway collision, and uy in a steamboat explosion. I've fallen down three flights of stairs, and walked out of a fourth story.

The rail houses were blended, and there room land as sected as the time for commen nany peritous scenes: I've taken pare in an 'election fight; I've boen down in a railway collision, and up in a steamboat explosion. I've fallen down three flights of stairs, and walked out of a fourth atory win-low, but this goat excursion was a LITILE shead of themail. When I come to reflect on the matter in cold blood, I win-ler that I ever came out alive. The furious beast kicked and screamed and rolled over and over, and turned back somersaults and front somersaults, and drove me against the ceiling, and undermoath the chairs, till the bandage fell from my eyes, and I had to let go. The goat vanished up the chimney in a blue flame, and droud myself in the sontro of the Lodge Room, with about fifty Masons in aprons, and nothing else, dancing a wardance round me. The rest of the members were standing on their heads in the different corners, alt but one cadaverous looking buccanser, who seemed to be the head of the department. Soon they lett off dancing and marched round the roem chanting an unspiriting dirge. I was then hauted up in-front of the Chief's desk, who thus addrossed me: "Brother Kubb, you are now one of us. You are a member of an institution that has lasted over three million years. "You are impervious to mundane influences. You are waterproof, fireproof, and overproof. You can walk through the river, or ait down on a red-hot store with impunity. Mortal man cannot harm you, and the devil himself must curl up his tail and walk off at your applement. He wittons, Mr. Methb, and you will be happy.
