was held in the town hall, Chuton, on Thursday, Oct. 15th, commencing at 10 a.m., and continuing throughout the day. The ladies of the W. C. T. U., of Clinton, spread a tempting table in the council chamber, and myited all the collegates of the convention to rartake council chamber, and invited all the delegates of the convention to partake of both dinner and tea, free of charge. The delegates accepted the generous in-vitation, and were loud in their praises of the delicacies provided. The convention opened with devotion-al exercises led by Revs. A. Y. Hartley, T. M. Campbell, J. Hough, W. Birks and E. S. Rupert. The programme of business to be brought before the con-vention was prepared by a committee ap-pointed for that purpose. The Execu-tive Committee of the Scott Association tendered their resignation as executive officers, and asked to be relieved of the irrst formation of the Scott Associa-tion; but on motion of Rev. J.
