The King & Home Rule

Mr. Churchill's Revelation.
A startling revelation as to Mr. Asquith's advice to the King on November 15 last was made by Mr. Churchill in the House of Commons yesterday. The power to create Peers was sought not only to pass the Veto Bill but also to pass Home Rule.

Mr. Churchill, in Mr. Asquith's absence, when his Majesty was, as he (Sir Edward) thought, "trapped" into giving the promise of guarantees on some future occasion. Was his Majesty advised as to what would be the effect on Home Rule? Mr. Churchill: The right hon. gentleman has asked whether the Government at the time the advice was tendered to the Sovereign in November appraised the Sovereign of the fact that they required the guarantees for the purpose of carrying Home Rule. The Sovereign takes no part in party politics and does not identify himself with either party, but his Majesty was fully acquainted in November with the full facts of the political situation and that Home Rule was one of the matters in dispute. How could there be any mistake about this? It is absurd to say we have made any secret of our consistent intention to use the machinery of the Parliament Bill for the passage of Home Rule and other matters. (Ministerial cheers.)

Langford Punched Jack O'Brien.

New York, Aug. 16.—Sam Langford, the Nova Scotian negro, with an advantage of about 10 pounds in weight, fought Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to a standstill in four and one-half rounds last night at the Twentieth Century Club. Referee Charlie White prevented a knockout when he stepped in between the men in the middle of the fifth round and stopped the bout. O'Brien was practically out from the effects of a hard left hook on the jaw and had to be helped to his corner. It was the old story of a clever game boxer pitted against a hard hitting fighter, and from the start the colored heavyweight, Langford, bludgeoned the white contender. O'Brien's blows were on the sledgehammer order, while none of O'Brien's swings and hooks had sufficient steam behind them to bother the colored man. The pace was fast from the beginning, and O'Brien's scientific footwork was well displayed in the early rounds. At the end of the second round O'Brien was bleeding from the mouth and nose and was cautioned for holding. Langford put O'Brien twice to the floor in the third round, O'Brien taking nine seconds on the second fall. O'Brien was weak but managed to straggle along until the bell gave him a respite. There was no question as to O'Brien's gameness, as he took a lot of punishment in the fourth, and was fighting hard in the fifth round until Langford landed the finishing blow.

The King Congratulates Asquith Government on Settling the Strike.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.
The official statement concerning the railway agreement says the managers of the Railways consented to this scheme in view of certain representations made by the Government which included the promise of legislation to permit an increase of railway rates. The men claim a victory for unionism in point of the recognition of the unions, which was one of the most vital principles at stake. Messages were sent to 1800 branches of the labor unions, saying: "Joint commission settled strike. It is a victory for trades unionism. All men must return to work immediately." As a result of the settlement, soldiers who had been scattered at strategic points about the country will be withdrawn as fast as arrangements for transporting them can be made. There is no doubt that the troops fired on the mob, killing several and wounding others, had much influence in ending the strike. The Government had almost its existence at stake because of the strike, as it depends on the working classes for its power. The shooting of citizens by soldiers occurs less frequently in the United Kingdom than in other European countries, as it is particularly repugnant to all classes. The settlement was reached at a conference between Lloyd George and representatives of the men. Asquith returned from the country to London, and assurances were given by both parties to the agreement that they will accept the findings of the Commission, and the Government assured the railway companies that it would propose to Parliament at the next session legislation providing that the increase in the cost of labour due to improvement in the conditions of the railwaymen, will be a valid justification for a reasonable increase in the charges within the legal maximum. As the railwaymen throughout the kingdom are returning to work, it is expected to have the great transport system working again in a few days under normal conditions. Following the announcement that the railway managers and employees had agreed to permit a commission to settle the difficulties, came the assuring news last night that there was great hope of ending the dockers' strike at Liverpool, and that the dockers there would shortly resume duties. No rioting was reported yesterday, except at Dublin, where the police came into collision with a mob in sympathy with the striking newsboys, who are endeavoring to prevent the distribution of papers. Many hands were cracked and several shops looted. Railway workers held meetings throughout the country yesterday and celebrated what they claim to be a victory over the companies. The London and North Western Co's employees demand an eight hour day, two shillings weekly advance in wages, with minimum weekly wages of 22 shillings. Although the services on other lines are not yet completely restored, the men in most cases presented themselves for duty yesterday and a start was made towards remedying the dislocation caused by the strike. Because of the block on the telegraph lines, the manifesto of the strike leaders calling on the men to return to work did not reach some points till yesterday morning, and during the night there was a number of disturbances in several places. With the exception of Llanelli, Wales, there were no serious riots. At Llanelli the death-list as a result of the disturbances on Saturday, due chiefly to an explosion in the freight shed, which the mob set on fire, reached twelve. Three of this number were shot by the troops. The police believe the explosion in the freight shed was caused by a box of cartridges looted from the troop train being thrown on the fire. Many injured in the explosion are being treated in the hospitals. The King yesterday telegraphed Premier Asquith congratulating the Government on the success of its efforts in bringing about a reconciliation between the railway companies and their employees.

Liberals Plan Home Rule Campaign.

London, Aug. 15.—The Liberal Party organization is preparing to conduct a vigorous Home Rule campaign during the "free" coming autumn. Preparations have been going on quietly for some time to meet the active campaign which is to be waged against Home Rule on the Unionist side, and it has now been arranged that the Liberal Home Rule organization shall be placed under the auspices of the Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Home Secretary, as chairman; Mr. Robert Harcourt as honorable secretary and Mr. Carter as salaried secretary. Mr. Donald MacLean, who has been associated with the Liberal headquarters in their new system of establishing federation areas, is to be the honorary treasurer of the Home Rule executive committee. There will be a strong literature committee of which Mr. J. R. Robertson is to be the head. Some well known Liberal publicists will be associated with this branch of the organization. It is expected that a separate organization will be formed for Scotland, acting under the authority of Mr. J. W. Gulland, Junior Lord of the Treasury, to supplement the work. It is understood that organizations of the League of Young Liberals, of which the Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Education, is chairman, and the Young Scots Society, of which Mr. Charles E.

There is no use in cursing when things are going wrong, for saying things and fussing won't bring good luck along. If fortune treats you meanly you'll find that it will pay to go around serenely, and USELESS smile the good old way. There is no use repining if you DOINGS have got an ache; there is no use in whining as though your heart would break. It's best to sit and suffer your little pain and grin; your luck might be much tougher than it has ever been. Sometimes the gods correct you, and if you no acreech, your neighbours will respect you, and say that you're a peach. There is no use in ranting; the quiet man is best; that mouth is most enchanting which often takes a rest. Just do some silent thinking while jogging on your way; so many tongues are clinking and clanking all the day!

Gotch Insures.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 15.—Frank Gotch, champion wrestler, has taken out three policies to insure himself against loss in his match with George Hackenschmidt on Labor Day. The first is for $25,000 to protect the champion in the event of an accident, which is to begin in about five weeks' time, as will also Mr. Dillon and other Nationalist members of Parliament. The second policy is for a like sum to insure the presence of Hackenschmidt in the ring, and terminates when the two men begin wrestling. The third is for $40,000, to insure the champion against loss in the pictures. Should the machines fail to work, Gotch will be reimbursed for the full amount. If they fail to record any portion of the match, Gotch will be entitled to fifty per cent. of the face policy, and if they fail to portray the falls the face value is to be paid.

Bay de Verde Fishery.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your paper to give a reliable report of the fishery in this locality. Many people are under the impression that we have had a large fishery, owing, no doubt, to the exaggerated accounts published in the papers. This practice of giving false reports to the St. John's papers cannot be too strongly condemned and is presumably one of the principal reasons for the decline in the price of fish.

I venture to say that in this district the unreliable reports sent to St. John's papers have done more harm than good, and when the season's voyage is marketed it will be found to be only a fair fishery.

The trap fishery here is now over. There are upwards of seventy traps used in the prosecution of the fishery here, and while a few crews have secured good catches, there are other traps that will not exceed forty quintals. Taken on the whole, the average catch for traps here is about 100 qts. The hook and line and trawl men will average to date about sixteen quintals. Very little has been done with hook and line or trawls for the past three weeks, and although squid is plentiful, their advent has not been so far marked with any perceptible improvement in the fishery. Fish is reported scarce on the ground and the catches are only from a quarter to one quintal a boat daily.

Thanking you for inserting this letter in your paper, I am, sir, Yours truly,
D. O'NEILL.
Bay de Verde, Aug. 19th, 1911.

M. G. B. CELEBRATE.—The Methodist Guards will hold a presentation in the Methodist College Hall the first Wednesday in September. Cups and medals won during the year will be presented. All the brigade and ex-members will be invited and a big time is expected. The camp prizes will also be presented.

Bell Island Regatta.

Bell Island Regatta was held on Saturday amidst fine weather in the morning, but the afternoon proved unfavourable, and the All-Corners Race and the field sports had to be postponed. These events will be held on Wednesday next. The City Band arrived early in the morning and played a number of pieces. The City Band was the first to appear in the contest of the day. Two crews put in an appearance, the Wabana and the Dominion. Much interest was displayed in the event. Many thought that the Dominion crew would pull it off, and they did indeed justify their supporters' belief by keeping the lead until the buoy was rounded, but on the way home the Wabana obtained the lead and kept it to the last. Time, 8 mins. 2 secs.

The Undergound Miners' Race.—Crews from the D. I. S. Co. and the N. S. Co. made a good race of it. Eventually it ended in favour of the N. S. Co.'s men in 7.37 the best time of the day.

The District Race.—Crews representing Spaniard's Bay, Bell Island and Lance Cove made a good showing. Lance Cove pulled it off in 7.57 2-5.

The Tradesmen's Race.—The D. I. S. tradesmen contested with those of the N. S. Co. the latter winning easily in 8.2.

The Surface Miners.—The Nova Scotia men beat the D. I. S. in 7.41.

The Football Race.—Three crews entered representing the Dominion, Scotia, and Wabana. To the buoy this proved a neck and neck struggle.

At the winning post the Wabana put in first appearance in 8.2 from the start.

The Double Scull.—This race was won by the Blanche in 10.34, the Hawk, Comet and Scotia competing with her.

The Juvenile Race.—Three crews pulled representing Bell Is., Lance and the East End. Bell Is. came in first, with the East End second. Time 8.5.

The All-Corners Race did not take place owing to the torrents of rain and the rough sea.

On the whole, the regatta was very successful. President Taylor and the Committee are to be congratulated on their excellent work.
