AGAINST GRIFFITH AND COLLINS.

(Associated Press) — A small advertising band of the latest effort of Irish reactionaries against the British treaty. The campaign mainly is against Michael Collins and Griffith. They say the Treaty of Peace Does It Look Like one of the posters which displayed prominently as a result of the recent disorders. "Anti-Republicanism" is the slogan. The claim that the treaty and the admission in the League of Nations, India has a representative in the League of Nations, is the series of more than 600 posters. "Since he signed the Treaty," Michael Collins has made 95 press interviews, given 65 press interviews, 48 newspaper articles, 12,000,000 speeches, and 1,000,000 newspaper articles. After this fact: That under the King of England is Ireland.

Cape Antagonism.
Liberals urge voters to vote for the treaty in the coming election. The arguments used are as follows:—
1. The treaty will bring peace to the island and village in Ireland and another Limerick if Collins sends his new army and Griffith and Collins win the worst kind of war—civil war—will destroy the island. De Valera wins there will be another shot fired in Ireland. The Irish people elect republicans will be signed that the treaty is true peace. "Therefore vote for the Free State is a vote for peace."

Combination Types in "Dinty".

THE LEADING ROLE OF CHINAMAN, PICKA AND OTHERS SUPPORTING HIM.

Combination of types in "Dinty". Marshall Nellis production, which will be the chief character in the picture. Nellis has used Western, the freckled-face kid in "Get It". Aaron Mitchell, a star, and Walter Clung, an aged youngster of Oriental type. Other widely contrasted characters are Colleen Moore, the girl; Julia Faye, as a nurse; Anna May Wong, a Chinese maiden of eighteen in the Oriental garb; "Nook" as Malay half-breed; Pat O'Malley as a straight American party; Jimmie as an Irish cop; Jimmie as an 88 year old native of the Chee Chee bird, and Kate as a typist. Bridget from "Get It" will be a great picture.

Excursion to St. John's. May 24th. Train leaves at 7 a.m., stopping at all stations from Brigus to Carbonara. Return tickets $4.00, can be had from the L. B. Band in attendance at the Brothers, Ltd., A. S. and Percie Johnson.
