WRONG IMPRESSIONS CORRECTED

Many people have a wrong impression concerning the manner in which students are taught music at the Conservatory of Music. Some people believe that two students, and even more, take lessons on as many different pianos, and play different music, in the one room, at the same time.
Mr. Baron says "no one can teach that way." Students could not possibly play in that manner." The Conservatory has now eleven teachers and nearly 200 students, and nine separate rooms to teach in. So all professors have their own rooms, and all students receive their own private lessons.
During the year the students have the privilege of lessons in ensemble playing. At these lessons there are at times as many as three pianos in the "large" room, and twelve students who all play together, but they play exactly the same music. This Mr. Baron considers the best means for teaching time, accent and playing together.
These lessons are given free of any charge to students, by the Conservatory. This system is universal in these large institutions.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

Our friends the public will please remember that for all sorts of casual advertising, such as Help Wanted, Houses to Let, Amusements, Specific Articles for Sale, etc., etc., the ADVER-TISER is an unsurpassed medium.

—The City Council meets tonight.
—Mr. John Jamieson left on Sept. 15 to take up his studies again for another term.
—Miss Nellie Stilson and Jerry Stilson, of Cleveland, O., are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Stilson, 256 Grey street, city.

—Saturday night closed the London engagement of "Lost in New York." The attendance was very slim, especially in the lower portion of the house.

—The G. T. R. are running a special train to the Western Fair, leaving Chatham South at 7:10 a.m. Returning from London it leaves the station here at 10 p.m.

—Wellington Barnes, hotel-keeper, of Pettersburg, was summoned before Justice Jarvis on Saturday for selling liquor during prohibited hours. He was fined $20 and costs.

—Rev. Father T. W. Kearney, of St.
Vincent's College, Cape Girardeau, Mo., is spending a couple of weeks with his brother-in-law, Mr. R. J. Kearney, 32 Blackfriars street.

—The Orient Minstrels open a week's engagement in the People's Theater (Mechanics' Institute) tonight. This is a local troupe and has given several creditable performances to London audiences.

—Mr. Phillips and another gentleman from England, accompanied by Mr. T. D.
Hodges, of London, are in search of horses for the English market, from 4 to 7 years old and weighing about 1,200 pounds.
—(Petrolia Topic.)

—Messrs. R. H. Lewis and A. E. Harding, of this city, leave on Tuesday for Montreal, where they will study for the Congregational ministry. They have for some time been conducting services at a mission near Lambeth.

—Pastor H. G. Gurney, of Toronto, has arrived in the city, and will take charge of the Christian Mission on Carling street.
Bro. Carswell, formerly in charge, has been appointed to the Ottawa Mission. Meetings will be continued every evening this week excepting tonight.

—Saturday's rain storm was the cause of a fire on Saturday night at 11:30 the brigade was called on to attend a blaze at Element's line sheds, York street, near Taitbet. The fire had been started by the heat of slack line, brought about by the rain of the afternoon. The damage was very slight.

—A frisky horse driven by a young man ran away on Egerton street yesterday afternoon. The rig was thrown against a tree near Campbell street, and the shafts and whiffletree broken. The driver was thrown out, but was not seriously injured. The horse broke away and disappeared down Byrdges street.

—The following Strathroy Oddfellows attended the funeral of the late Jesse M.
Symonds yesterday: Thos. Barlow, Wm.
Gunn, T. Wilkins, T. E. Melone, Geo.
Ashwell, John Newton, F. Newton, Dr.
Bredan, E. L. Rowson, C. R. Cooper, F.
Banghart, W. Stevenson, Fred Ott, E. M.
Pimcombe, Geo. Newton and Wm. Meck-ison.

—Clifford Calverley and his manager, Mr. Jackson, made a pleasant call on the ADVERTISER today. Mr. Calverley is looking stronger than even before his terrible fall last year and that his nerves have not suffered in the least. He commenced at the fair ground today giving his exhibitions. His left arm and hand are slightly crooked, while the bones at the wrist are very noticeable from the way in which they were reset.

—It had been arranged that the Rev. Mr.
Wakefield, one of the delegates to the Methodist conference, should occupy the pulpit of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Late Saturday evening, however, a telephone message announced that owing to sudden illness the reverend gentleman would be unable to preach, and Rev. Mr. Simpson, another delegate to the conference, kindly took Mr. Wakefield's place, giving an able and most impressive discourse from James, iii.
15. In the afternoon at the meeting of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle Miss Lottie McLeod, who is about to leave for the mission field in Telugu, made an interesting and feeling address. In the evening Rev.
H. C. Speller, of De Land, Fla., formerly pastor of the Adelaide Street Church, preached to a large congregation from the text, "Where is the God of Elijah?"—II.
Kings, ii, 14. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost limit, and the earnest, eloquent words of the preacher were listened to with the closest attention.
An interesting incident of the morning services was the singing of a bass solo by the pastor, Rev. D. M. McNeil, who demonstrated that his efficiency is not confined to the pulpit alone.

—Mr. Jesse M. Symonds' funeral.

The funeral of the late Mr. J. M.
Symonds, of the ADVERTISER business office, held yesterday afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, was one of the largest ever seen in London. It took place from the residence of the deceased, 514 street, South London, and for an hour before the services were begun the crowd began to assemble in the vicinity, thousands thronging the line of march. The members of the four local lodges of Independent Oddfellows—Dominion, Chorazin, Eureka, Forest City—met at the Iderton Lodge, No. 234; Glenworth Lodge, No. 289; Fidelity Lodge, No. 55, Seaford; Elgin, No. 76, St. Thomas; and Dorchester Lodge. The Oddfellows were accompanied by about 75 ADVERTISER enthusiasts, headed by the Canton, players, and the family residence. The services there were conducted by Rev.

Canon Davis, rector of St. James' Church, South London, and at the conclusion the casket was placed on the lawn, where the Oddfellows and former associates of the deceased filed past and viewed silently the remains of their honored and beloved companion. The cortege proceeded by way of Stanley, Thames and Dundas streets to the burying ground, both sides of each avenue being lined with a dense crowd. The order of march was:
Seventh Band; London Canton, No. 1; Forest City Lodge, No. 38; Eureka Lodge, No. 30; Chorazin Lodge, No. 190; Dominion Lodge, No. 48; Howard Lodge, Strathroy; Lodge; Harmony Encampment, No. 5; Adelphian Encampment, No. 38; hearse, ADVERTISER employees, mourners, and about 150 carriages in which were citizens of every class. Among those in attendance were Mr. John Cameron, President and Manager, and Mr. R. D. Miller, Secretary, Treasurer, of the ADVERTISER; Printing Company, and Mr. Andrew Denholm of the Evening News, formerly of the AD-VERTISER. The funeral was conducted by the Oddfellows, and at the grave the beautiful service of the order was read by Bro.
Herbert Boyd, jun., noble grand of Dominion, and Bro. Walter Fairbairn, E.
G. chaplain. The Episcopal Church burial service was conducted by Rev. Canon Davis.
The local offerings were many, among them being the three links from Dominion Lodge; the gates ajar, from comrades in the ADVERTISER; a beautiful pillow from the advertising department of the Free Press, on which were the words, "The Last Edition" and "Jesse" a link and anchor from Strathroy Oddfellows; a tribute from Mr.
Joseph Yeo, of Big Rapids, Mich., a former Londoner and companion of Mr.
Symonds, and a sickle and sheaf with a card expressing condolence of "Atwell, Frank and Charlie." The pall-bearers were P. G. Bros. R. K. Cowan, R. J. Blackwell, John Stevenson and C. H. Eslinger, of Dominion Lodge; Henry Bissell, Forest City; George Mortimore, of Eureka; D. W.
Blackwell, of Chorazin, and Dr. O. Berdan, of Howard, Strathroy. The ADVERTISER establishment was represented by Messrs.
J. D. Clarke, Atwell Fleming, Frank Adams, John J. Dalton, James T. Archer, Thomas Bland, Lewis Clark and George Elliott, as honorary bearers.

The Wye Case.

Marsh & Marsh, barristers, of Toronto and London, Ont., have written a letter to Bishop Baldwin, of the diocese of Huron, in the case of Rev. G. W. Wye, who was recently tried, found guilty and removed from his rectory at Amherstburg by a court of triers, for conduct unbecoming a clergyman of the Church of England, under canon 22. The letter begins: "We were on the 30th ult., informing you of our instructions to appeal to the house of bishops and that we had advised Mr. Wye that he need not attend on the 12th inst., in pursuance of our summons, as sentence would not be pronounced until the appeal is disposed of." They then intimate that they are sending with the letter the notice of appeal for service on the bishop, and continue: "As you have not notified us that you do not intend to pronounce a sentence on the 12th inst., we suppose your advisers have decided you to take the unusual and improper course of pronouncing sentence, notwithstanding the pending appeal. We must therefore notify your lordship that any sentence pronounced in this matter before the appeal has been heard and decided, will be disregarded, and any attempt to enforce such sentence will be resisted, and if necessary recourse will be had again to the civil courts. We give you this timely notice in order if possible to prevent this parish, and the Church of England in this diocese, by being again disturbed and scandalized by the injudicious action of those in authority in the diocese. We also beg to point out that your lordship that the sentence recommended by the board of triers could not be enforced against any rector of the rectory in question on such charge as was laid in this case; for this is one of the government rectories, and is subject to the same laws and rules as rectories in England, and its rector cannot be forcibly removed from it except when charged with and proved guilty of crime or immorality."
