GLADSTONE ON CHRISTIANITY. London, Aug. 17.—In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, Mr. Gladstone expresses his gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able now as it ever was to hold its own ground.

BARBARISM ON AN OCEAN LINER. London, Aug. 17.—The Times prints a dispatch from Berlin saying it is stated that grave cases of ill-treatment on board the German-Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II. have been reported. Two stokers jumped overboard in despair and were drowned, and another is reported to have died from the effects of brutal treatment on the part of the engineers. Similar charges against some of the German-Lloyd officers have been made before.

THE COPYRIGHT LAW. London, Aug. 17.—Mr. R. B. Marston, the publisher, has written a letter in which he contends that it is virtually impossible for Canadian printers to sell in the United States cheap reprints of American copyrighted works. Mr. Marston is entirely opposed to the proposed Canadian copyright law, but fails to see that the Americans have any real grounds to fear it even if it should pass, which is quite improbable.

AMERICANS. Mr. Marston says are making a busbar of the copyright law in order to cover their own proper claims upon Canada.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION. London, Aug. 17.—A meeting of members of the House of Commons interested in the currency question, including the Marquis of Lorne and Sir Wm. Henry Hildesworth, was held yesterday, and it was resolved to appoint a Parliamentary committee to promote the holding of an international monetary conference in accordance with the motion introduced by Robert L. Everett in the last House of Commons, urging the Government to co-operate with the other powers in the calling of such a conference.

A BOMB ON THE STAIRCASE. Rome, Aug. 16.—A great panic was caused in the city of Ancona today by the explosion of a bomb with a terrible report on the staircase of the French consulate. The building was greatly damaged, but nobody was seriously hurt. The consul and his family were absent from town. The affair is supposed to have been a protest against the execution of Cesareo, the assassin of President Carnot of France, the day being the anniversary of his execution. A few minutes before the explosion some men were arrested for posting an Anarchist manifesto. The police think they are the men who placed the bomb on the staircase.

MEETING OF IRISH NATIONALISTS. London, Aug. 17.—Justin McCarthy presided over a prolonged meeting of his party colleagues yesterday, at which the statement recently made at Omaha by Mr. Healey was discussed. Mr. Dillon read the correspondence upon which Mr. Healey's statement was based, and Mr. Healey moved that this be issued to the press. J. C. Glynn moved an amendment, approving Mr. McCarthy's manifesto denouncing Mr. Healey for placing so effective and poisonous a weapon in the enemies' hands. After considerable discussion Mr. Flynn's motion was rejected without a division. Mr. Jordan moved in amendment to Mr. Healey's motion, that having read Mr. Dillon's statement and the document read by him the meeting express approval of the chairman of the committee in connection with Londonderry and Tyrone seats in Parliament, and this motion was carried.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT. London, Aug. 17.—John J. Clancy, Parnellite, moved an amendment to the address providing for amnesty for political prisoners.

Sir Matthew White-Ridley, Secretary of State for Home Affairs, said the Government would make a thorough examination of the cases of the prisoners whose release was asked for, but he did not doubt that the decisions of his predecessor in office, Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, were entirely right.

John Redmond and Timothy Harrington in a pleased manner, compared Home Secretary Ridley's kindly tone and Mr. Asquith's "non-possumus" declaring that the Government was now, as formerly, that the prison door shut with a clang.

Gerald W. Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, deprecated the assumption that the Government would continue the policy adopted by his predecessor. The same principles as regards grave offences against the law that had governed Mr. May, he said, would govern him. Mr. Balfour followed in the debate on the address by Mr. Asquith, and at the conclusion of his remarks the amendment was withdrawn.

The amendment made last night by Mr. John Dillon to the amendment proposed by Mr. Redmond, was rejected by a vote of 257 to 125.

Mr. Redmond's amendment called upon the Government to declare their policy in regard to home rule for Ireland, and also in regard to the reform of the Land Law, the compulsory purchase of land, the condition of the industrial condition of Ireland. Mr. Dillon's amendment demanded immediate legislation in relation to judicial rents. Mr. Redmond's amendment was rejected, the vote being 113 to 243.

THE CANADIAN CATTLE EMBARGO.

London, Aug. 17.—A question of great interest to Canadians was asked in the House of Commons yesterday by Mr. Price, who inquired if the Government was aware that the present exclusion of Canadian store cattle had caused, and was causing, severe loss in some of the agricultural districts, and whether the restriction can be removed.

The President of the Board of Agriculture, Mr. Walter Long, replied, saying that as late as July 19 cases of cattle suffering from pleuro-pneumonia had been found among the cargoes coming from Canada, and the Government in consequence must maintain the restriction placed upon such cattle. Mr. Long added that the Government of the Dominion of Canada on the subject.

CLAREMONT, Aug. 17.—At a meeting in this city of importers of Canadian cattle from all parts of the country, the decision of the Government that such cattle should be slaughtered at the place at which they were landed was denounced, and it was urged that the animals be allowed to be forwarded to their destinations.

Mr. Walter Long, President of the Board of Agriculture, on behalf of the importers.

REMARKABLE GATHERING. Paris, Aug. 17.—The gathering at Mars-la-Tour yesterday was a remarkable one. People had been arriving for days from all parts of France, and many came from abroad, among them a party of cadets from the Ecole Polytechnique. The Bishop of Nancy in the forenoon celebrated mass on the battle field. Among the incidents of the day was a procession from Bruville, the middle distance, through the ravine where the battle was the most severe. The German visitors were treated with dignified coldness, but no active hostility was displayed towards them. Before the German police crossed the frontier the German police repeated to them the advice contained in the recently issued Government document. The words seemed to make a deep impression, and the veterans accordingly removed the German insignia from their breasts. They advanced with bare heads towards the inhabitants, who saluted the soldiers with politeness. The German monuments remained without decoration until this evening, wreaths, which had been brought for the purpose, waiting before the frontiers of the German monument at a point 350 yards from the frontier was dedicated. The cheers of those present at the ceremonies were distinctly heard on the French side of the line. A cordon of gendarmes and customs officers guarded the frontier throughout the day to prevent disturbances. Civilians were allowed to pass the frontier freely, but French soldiers had received orders not to enter Germany.

SENSATION IN MONTREAL.

The city treasurer, Mr. Robb, admits the truth of the story in so far as that the securities are missing, but the man who has charge of them, Wm. McDunnough, is sick in bed and cannot be seen.

MUNCEY. Aug. 16.—Two of our men were arrested at Ingersoll, who were going to Hagersville, or New Credit, Indian reserve, viz., Mr. A. A. King, musical director of the Tecumseh Cornet Band, and Jas. P. Wolfe, Jun., who went for company's sake. They were charged with stealing a horse, but the members of the T. C. Band can as one man say that the said men are gentlemen in every respect, and had they not sent us word, we would have taken immediate action for their release. S. JOHN, Secretary of T. C. B.

Victoria and Her Grandson Good Friends Again.

The New Parliament a Good Thing for London Tradesmen.

August a Busy Month—The Kaiser's Hunting Trip—The Queen's New Servant.

London, Aug. 17.—Facts which have now leaked out respecting the meeting of Queen Victoria and Emperor William of Germany at private parties given by her Majesty at Osborne during the Cowes regatta week shows that the cordial relations which had been ruffled by the Emperor's failure to consult the Queen regarding the present Czarsin's engagement to the Czar, have again been restored and the closeness has quite vanished. Queen Victoria has long been known as the chief match-maker of Europe, and when the Emperor, while at Coburg with the Queen and others in April of last year, upon the occasion of the marriage of Princess Victoria Maria of Coburg and Gotha to the Grand Duke of Hesse, took upon himself, without consulting anybody, to bring to a head the long pending but frequently deferred engagement of Princess Alix of Hesse to the then Emperor of Russia, her Majesty felt very much put out, as she fancied she was the first person to be consulted in such matters. This caused a coolness between her and the Emperor, but during the dinner at Osborne the conversation of the two sovereigns was most animated, and affectionate, those present noticed especially the great tenderness with which the Emperor spoke of the Queen, and the Queen in return to rise after dinner and the gracious manner in which she accepted his help.

THE QUEEN'S NEW SERVANT. Considerable commotion has been caused in certain circles by the announcement that Wm. Brown, a nephew of the famous John Brown, who was for many years the Highland attendant of her Majesty, and for a long time the Queen's personal attendant, William Brown inherits to a certain degree the somewhat brusque manner of his distinguished uncle.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S SPORT. Emperor William's visit to Lowther Castle as the guest of Lord Londsdale has been one of incessant activity, and in one day he traveled 70 miles by coach and steamer in order to see the lake and hill scenery. As usual, every arrangement was made that the sport should not be marred for want of game. During the first day's shooting, the Emperor bagged nearly 50 brace of grouse, and, although he is a capital shot, the precaution was taken to have the birds driven almost up to the muzzle of his gun.

THE COMING YACHT RACE. As the date for the races for the America's cup approaches, interest in Valkyrie III. and the performance of Defender increases. The brief cable dispatches from New York published in the English newspapers, which are read and much discussed. There is no doubt that the yachtsmen here are far from feeling confident that Lord Dundonald's new boat, which is much coveted mug to England; but it is generally admitted that she has a better chance to do so than any of her predecessors. Naturally, the greatest interest of the yachtsmen is in the question whether Valkyrie III. will or will not have to allow the Defender time, and, therefore, there was much disappointment when it was announced that the Defender would not be known until shortly before the first race.

CANADIAN ARTILLERY WANTED. The Canadian Gazette strongly urges the Canadian artillery corps to arrange to compete at the Shoberness meeting of 1896, as the Canadian rifleman do at the meeting of the National Rifle Association at Bisley. The Gazette adds: "If the Dominion Minister of Militia will arrange for a team to come in 1896 it will be sure of a hearty welcome."

BUSY IN LONDON. The meeting of the new Parliament has opened a second brief London season. Many members of the House of Lords and the House of Commons have with their wives and families to the city with them, and the shops are unwontedly busy for the month of August. The consensus of opinion is that the new Parliament contains much more society material, there being among the members of the House of Commons an abnormal number of young and wealthy men.

MARLBOROUGH'S SPEECH. The speech of the Duke of Marlborough on Thursday in the House of Lords in moving the address in reply to the Queen's speech, is regarded as very clever, and has won for the duke compliments from all parties. It is the duke's intention to leave London for a visit to the United States in the course of a few weeks, taking with him only one servant. His object in making the visit is to see the country for which he entertains a great admiration, which his stepmother, now Lady William Beresford, encourages.

NOBODY WANTS HIM. Emperor William, during his visit to England, gave grave offense to Nazrulla Khan, the Afghan prince who was for some time past been in England, by failing to ask the prince to meet him and by not sending him any message or letter. The position of the prince excites public curiosity. It is known that he has received an almost unlimited number of hints from the Queen to leave England, and that she has told him that he need not again visit the members of the royal family, and so Nazrulla never leaves the grounds of Dorchester House, where he is staying. The Governments of the countries also which it was Nazrulla's intention to visit have all politely refused to receive him. The refusal of the Sultan of Turkey has been made public. In it the Sultan states that in compliance with a request of M. Nel-deff, the Russian ambassador to Turkey, he cannot receive the son of the Ameer if he should carry out his intention to visit Turkey.

LADY SOMERSET'S SON. There is some rejoicing at Eastnor Castle, Ledbury, county of Hereford, over the coming of age of Lady Somerset's only son, who this morning, eventually become the Duke of Beaufort, as the Marquis of Worcester, the eldest son of the duke, is unmarried.

A GALT FARMER FLEEED. Out of $1,500 by an Old-Time Maneuver. Galt, Ont., Aug. 17.—A slick game was successfully worked on a well-to-do farmer near this place yesterday, which just cost that gentleman $1,500. A few days ago a very slick young man called on the farmer, the owner of a very fine farm within a mile of Galt, and represented himself as a son of Wm. King, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Berlin. He had been sent by the bank to negotiate for the purchase of the farm, to which she had taken a liking.

Mr. McBean was not anxious to sell the place, but finally agreed to do so, the price asked being $20,000. This suited the agent, and he was to report to his client and return if satisfactory to her and the guarantee called for. He arrived yesterday and proceeded to close the deal. He was quite willing to deposit $5,000 or $10,000 to bind the bargain, but Mr. McBean was so foolish that he could hardly climb the court house stairs, and during his plea for clemency he had to lean on the table. Asked if he had anything to say, he claimed to be a victim of circumstances, and made a lengthy address. Judge Elliott said it was disagreeable to him to see an old man with one foot in the grave convicted of horse-stealing. Nothing remained but Kingston Penitentiary, and there he would have to go. The term was three years on each charge, to run concurrently.

IN THE PENITENTIARY.

Wm. B. Chisholm May End His Days There.

Gets Another Three Years for Horse Theft—His Floods With the Judge.

Chisholm is close to 75 years of age, but it has been his boast that he couldn't quit his stealing. His record in Middlesex dates back to Sept. 20, 1864, when he was convicted before sessions and given five years. He then went under the name of George Kennedy, alias Wm. Chisholm. He had been out of jail scarcely a year before he was arrested for larceny, and in October, 1870, got twelve months. Again he got a month. But this is only Chisholm's Middlesex record. He is believed to have been sent down for fourteen years for incendiarism, while his horse thefts are considered over 50. About twenty years ago an old man named Speelman was sent to the penitentiary for seven years for burning the mill of George Sutfelt at Vienna. He was convicted on the evidence of Chisholm, who was then posing as a private detective. Speelman swore that he was innocent and threatened revenge. Whether innocent or guilty he carried out his threat. After his release he fired several buildings in the village and was again sent to Kingston. He served his term and again applied the torch, almost destroying the entire place. He was again arrested and sent to the penitentiary for life. He died in the institution a few months ago.

Chisholm was arrested before Judge Edward Elliott this morning for sentence on the Onondaga charges, to which he had pleaded guilty. He is now so feeble that he could hardly climb the court house stairs, and during his plea for clemency he had to lean on the table. Asked if he had anything to say, he claimed to be a victim of circumstances, and made a lengthy address. Judge Elliott said it was disagreeable to him to see an old man with one foot in the grave convicted of horse-stealing. Nothing remained but Kingston Penitentiary, and there he would have to go.
