

Vox Populi!

The German Elections Proceeding Peacefully.

Indications of Large Gains for the Socialists.

Lawyers on Strike in the Larger Cities of Spain.

Irish Differences.

LONDON, June 16.—John Morrough, anti-Parnellite member of Parliament for the south east division of Cork county, has decided to retire from Parliament owing to the attitude of Mr. Sexton and the Freeman's Journal toward the Parnellite factor.

To Be Hoped So.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 16.—There is good authority for the statement that under Russo-American Extradition Treaty, nobody will be surrendered to Russia except upon evidence that will satisfy an American jury by which the accused may claim trial by jury before being extradited.

An Artist's Affliction.

BERLIN, June 16.—A terrible fatality, by which nine people met their death, is reported from the town of Neugersdorf. A fire broke out in one of the houses and spread with such rapidity that it was impossible to get it under control before all these unfortunate were burned to death. Among the victims is the family of the well-known painter, Veigt, five of whom were killed.

A Peculiar Riot.

PARIS, June 16.—A riot was caused at Daumesnil, in Brittany, yesterday, by the attempt of the English vessel Gypsy to leave port with a cargo of butter and eggs for England. As the peasants believe that such shipments raise the price of these articles in France, a crowd gathered at the wharf and refused to disperse. The mob held their ground until charged several times by the police and gendarmes.

Edinburgh's Promotion.

LONDON, June 16.—The promotion of the Duke of Edinburgh to the highest rank of that service which he has for so many years adorned may be accepted as a special compliment to all belonging to the navy. He was practically only third from the top of the admirals' list, and although he will doubtless always take an interest in the British navy, for the future it is scarcely likely that he will actively see again. But who knows? If this country should be involved in war once more the duke's comparative youth, combined with his incomparable ability, would probably lead to his being called to take up a position as the naval head of affairs.

Royal Danish Visits.

LONDON, June 16.—The Queen of Denmark's health has been failing for some time past, and her Majesty is now strong enough to go to Garmden on her annual visit to the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland, who will, therefore, go to Denmark early in August for a stay of two months. The Emperor and Empress of Russia, the King and Queen of the Hellenes, the Princess of Wales and the Duke and Duchess of York, and the Princesses Victoria and Maud are all expected about the same time on a visit to the King and Queen, at the Chateau of Fredensborg.

Eugenie to Visit Victoria.

LONDON, June 16.—Empress Eugenie has returned to Farnborough after an absence of several months. The Empress is to visit the Queen at Osborne toward the end of July, and will probably spend September at the seaside, as her Majesty has offered to place Birkhall House at her disposal. The villa which the Empress is building at Cape Martin, near Mentone, will be quite ready for occupation in the autumn. It is surrounded by pine woods and commands a splendid view of the sea and coast.

Fishing the Royal Preserves.

LONDON, June 16.—The Queen was so pleased with the performance of Ginnott's circus at Balmoral the other day, that her Majesty allowed some members of the troupe to have a day's salmon angling in the famous waters in the Dee, although the river is very low. One of the artists succeeded in landing a fine fish. The Queen has placed Birkhall House at the disposal of the officers belonging to the Guards of Honor at Balmoral, and they have obtained some fair sport. The great success of the last month, however, has been at Invercauld, when Sir Algonson Borthwick's party, with three rods, killed about 80 salmon in ten days on Mr. Farquharson's private waters.

The Lord Mayor's Dinner.

LONDON, June 16.—The Lord Mayor's dinner to the judges last week was brilliant in point of company, but deadly dull in the way of oratory, the lord chancellor's speech was even worse than Lord Halsbury's speeches were wont to be, which is saying much. Lord Herschell's remarks as to fees of counsel were not considered either happy or appropriate in the company of distinguished lawyers, and when he compared the charges of eminent barristers to champagne at 100 shillings a dozen, Mr. Frank Lockwood passed round an amusing sketch of a champagne bottle clod in a full-bottomed wig labeled in allusion to the lord chancellor's dullness, "very dry." No fewer than 24 English judges honored the lord mayor with their company, besides the lord chancellor of Ireland and several colonial judges.

The German Elections.

BERLIN, June 16.—Election day brought tropical heat to all parts of the empire. Apparently the election has been a notably quiet one. At 6 o'clock nothing positive was known of the results of the election, although dispatches from 120 electoral districts indicated that the Socialists had secured 39 of them, and the Conservatives, Rightists (Radical People's party) and Liberal Clericals had divided the other 99 among them.

BERLIN, June 16.—At 2 o'clock this morning returns from 70 districts indicate that 36 have been carried by opponents of the Army Bill. Fifteen have been carried for parties favoring the bill, and nineteen are in doubt. Although the Social-Democratic gains are undoubtedly enormous, they may not prove so large as reports indicate. The returns for the cities come in first, and it is in the cities that the Socialists are strongest.

Lord Chelmsford's Retirement.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Chelmsford has retired on the pension of his rank, that of full general. He could have served until March, 1894, but there was really nothing for him to gain by doing so. He has therefore gone onto the retired list of his own free will. Lord Chelmsford at one time appeared to be desirous to rise to the highest position in his profession. The disastrous Zulu campaign succeeded, however, in blighting his hopes. It speaks well for his personal qualities that every officer and man who served under him talks of him in the highest terms. There was a great mistake made in Zululand, and Lord Chelmsford was not free from blame for many things which occurred, but in some respects he was badly treated.

Lawyers on Strike.

MADRID, June 15.—Litigants in the cities of Spain have been left in a peculiar position by a most peculiar strike. The first, it is believed, of its kind recorded. Among the several schemes proposed by the Government to effect retrenchment in the State expenditures is one to abolish the district criminal courts. This proposition met with the hearty disapproval of all the Spanish barristers, and they have gone on strike to impress the Government with the fact that the abolition of this source of revenue to the lawyers would not be accepted without a struggle. All the barristers practicing in Avila, Toledo, Valencia, Guadalajara and Huelva removed their names from the cause lists yesterday, and to-day litigants found that their cases pending before the courts were undefended. The lawyers in places other than those above mentioned will follow the example set, and much delay and trouble are anticipated.

A meeting of the Cabinet was hastily summoned to consider what action should be taken in the premises. It was finally decided to issue instructions to the magistrates in the places mentioned above to transfer the cases to the nearest courts that are not affected by the strike. Should the strike become general, as is anticipated, this method of getting around the trouble will not be found to answer.

VICTORIOUS SOCIALISTS!

Their Success in German Elections a Sensation.

Berlin Speaks in Emphatic Tones—The Army Bill Apparently Done For—The Government No Doubt Defeated.

BERLIN, June 16.—The police last night closed up Socialist mass meetings in Germania Hall, the Rock brewery, the Concordia and the Elyum. The crowds poured cheering into the streets, where they were quickly dispersed by mounted police. During the day the Socialists distributed 500,000 hand-bills here. They spent 14,000 marks in the fifth division alone—the largest sum ever expended by a single party in a Berlin constituency. The Conservatives and anti-Semites also worked hard. The Socialists' vote in Berlin looks up 26,000 over the vote of 1890. The Socialists have been equally successful in Hamburg and Altona. Altogether the vote promises to be heavy. The women rendered great assistance in the Socialist cause. Many university students canvassed for Conservative candidates. In spite of tremendous exertions the United Conservatives and anti-Semites have lost 3,000 votes, as compared with 1890, and the Radicals have lost nearly 20,000 votes. It is stated that the Socialists are likely to win three out of four of the re-ballots against the Radicals.

In Berlin not a candidate pledged to support the Army Bill has gained even the barren honor of a rebalot. The prospects of a Government majority appears to be vanishing. The Socialists' vote shows a great increase everywhere. The Radical vote has diminished heavily, chiefly because the better class of the Radicals party voted for the anti-Semitic candidates. Not 10 per cent of the votes cast in Berlin were given in favor of the Army Bill. So seldom has the city spoken in such emphatic tones. The Socialists appear to be equally placed in the same direction. The great success of the Social Democrats has caused a sensation.

THE WINDSOR TRAGEDY.

BURIAL OF THE VICTIM'S BODY—New Evidence Forthcoming.

WINDSOR, Ont., June 15.—Capt. Jas. Hickey was buried this morning in the Catholic Cemetery. The body was inclosed in a plain oak casket, surmounted with a floral broken wheel in a bed of lilies. Two young men from Detroit called on a prominent Windsor lawyer yesterday and stated that Vrooman told him a week ago he thought Hickey intended to give him a three-shot, and he intended to shoot him if Hickey as much as raised his hand. The young men do not wish to appear as witnesses, but will do so if Vrooman says he shot Hickey to save his life.

The inquest on the death of Jas. Hickey, who was shot by John Vrooman Monday evening, resulted in a verdict that "Vrooman came to his death from the effects of a bullet fired from a revolver in the hands of John Vrooman." The prisoner will be held for trial at Sandwich at the Fall Assizes.

In regard to the Hickey murder a Windsor dispatch says: On Hickey's body a Windsor dispatch says: On Hickey's body was found $265 in bills and a small rusty 32 caliber revolver which was loaded.

THE COLUMBIAN FAIR.

German Day Draws a Great and Enthusiastic Crowd.

CHICAGO, June 15.—German day at the Exposition needed not the august presence of his Majesty Emperor William to make the success of the Teutonic season of festivity complete in every detail. The weather was glorious, the crowds immense and the enthusiasm most marked.

A Fatal Flash.

LINDSAY, Ont., June 15.—Between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon this vicinity was visited by a heavy rain and hail storm, accompanied with thunder and lightning. The lightning struck the farm dwelling of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, about two and a half miles from here. One of the daughters, Miss Ellen, was instantly killed, and two other inmates were badly stunned.

Presbyterian Parliament.

Second Day's Deliberations of the General Assembly.

The Case of Prof. Campbell Comes Up for Consideration.

Maitland Presbytery's Overture Referred to the Presbytery of Montreal.

BRANTFORD, June 15.—The second session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was held hereto-day. The forenoon was spent constituting the various standing and reception committees and arranging the order of business.

In the afternoon an overture from the Presbytery of Maitland, and that of Rev. John S. Campbell, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, with having, in an address at Convocation Hall, Queen's University, used language of an irreverent character and degrading the character of God.

Rev. Robert Campbell moved that as the matter was before the Presbytery of Montreal, to which Prof. Campbell was allied, the overture be accepted and sent there.

Rev. Gustavus Munroe moved, and Dr. Fraser seconded, that the overture be referred to the address in question and report to the Assembly what action should be taken in the premises.

Principal Caven moved as a counter amendment that the overture be received from the Presbytery of Maitland, and that the Assembly, while expressing its sincere desire to defend the teachings of the Church in its churches and colleges, send the overture to the Presbytery of Montreal to be dealt with in a constitutional way.

The other motions were withdrawn in favor of that of Prince, Caven, which, after a warm discussion, became the finding of the Assembly.

In the evening the reports of the home missions of the church in the eastern and western sections of Canada were read by Rev. John McMillan, of Halifax, and the Rev. Dr. Cochran, of Brantford, after which addresses in favor of energetic home mission work were delivered by Principal Grant, B. I. Grant (of Orillia), Dr. Robertson and others.

IN LABOR'S FIELD.

The Types Discuss Means to Fight the Anti-Unionists.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The convention of the International Typographical Union to-day was largely occupied, considering the means to be employed for waging a successful warfare against the Printers' Protective Fraternity, which was represented as having done its real object the destruction of unionism.

The Childs-Drexel Home troubles were also taken up in executive session.

V. B. Prescott was re-elected president for the third term.

Over the field, not a single motion was introduced that no delegate to the council should countenance or attach himself to any political party for the purpose of aiding, canvassing or putting any political clergyman in the field, nor should he attend any political convention as a delegate, etc. This resolution caused an excited debate, being adopted by a close vote. Delegate Martin, of the Bricklayers' Union, left the hall, remarking that he was not going to allow anybody of men to dictate to him as to what political party he should support. Martin was followed out of the hall by others, and the meeting lost a quorum and broke up.

RED-LETTER DAY FOR MITCHELL.

Laying the Corner-Stone of the New Knox Church.

MITCHELL, June 15.—The corner-stone of the new Knox Church was laid this afternoon before a large concourse of people by Hon. Speaker Ballantyne.

Rev. Mr. Tully presided on the occasion, Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Atwood, and Dr. Cornish, of Mitchell, conducting the opening exercises.

A brief history of the congregation was read by Mr. Kyle, chairman of the building committee.

The case deposited in the stone containing copies of all the church papers, Toronto newspapers, ADVERTISER, Mitchell Recorder and Mitchell Advertiser.

Next to the stone, a Ballantyne was being silver, beautifully engraved, and was presented by Mrs. A. Cameron.

Mr. McKibben, of Millbank, pronounced the benediction, after which an adjournment was made to the main grounds, where, present, Speaker Ballantyne and Mr. Wm. Fridham, M.P. A sumptuous feast was provided by the ladies, and on the whole the day was a red letter one for the Presbytery of Mitchell.

LIZZIE BORDEN'S TRIAL.

Evidence for the Defense—Another Hatchet Found.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 15.—Last night a boy named Potter, while looking for a ball, found a hatchet on the top of John Crowe's barn, which is just in the rear of the Borden property. Mr. Potter describes it as an ordinary implement with hammer head, the handle was weather-beaten and the blade covered with rust. Some of the particles of rust being removed, a slight coloring of gilt was disclosed which would either indicate that the hatchet was at one time used as an ornament or was new when lost or discarded.

New Bedford, Mass., June 15.—The testimony for the defense this afternoon was interesting. Evidence of an unknown man being in the vicinity of the Borden house at nearly midnight on the night before the murder was admitted. Mark Chase, of Fall River, formerly policeman of the city, testified: "I was at the barn on the morning Andrew J. Borden was murdered. About 11 o'clock I saw a carriage, an open buggy, standing by a tree near the Borden house. There was a man in the carriage."

Dr. Benjamin Handy passed the Borden house between 10:20 and 10:45 in the morning and saw a medium-sized young man of pale complexion, with eyes fixed on the sidewalk between the Borden and Kelly houses. Attracted by his attention by his strange actions.

On cross-examination Dr. Handy said: The man was walking slowly away from the Borden house; seemed greatly agitated; I think I saw him before, but have never seen him since.

Delia Manley, Fall River—I passed by the Borden house on the morning of the murder about 9:40; saw a man standing in the north gate dressed in light clothes; he was a young man; it was not anybody I ever saw before.

Succeeding testimony tended to fix the time of the murder and the time Officer Fleet and other officers arrived on the scene, and also to the presence of persons in and around the barn before Officer Fleet entered it. The last witness was Joseph Lemay, of Fall River, whose testimony was objected to. The testimony sought to be introduced was that witness had seen a man passing along the road near his farm, his clothes covered with blood and presenting a decidedly repulsive appearance. The man seen by witness had a hatchet in his hand which might have been the one used in the murder. Counsel claimed that though the evidence be much or little it should be submitted to the jury.

Decision reserved until to-morrow morning and court adjourned.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 16.—Among the early visitors was Miss Borden, who is, it is understood, to be called by the defense, though she was down as a Government witness.

Mrs. Holmes testified that the officers were not hindered in entering defendant's room and thoroughly searching the house. Defendant's room was looking at her father's remains on the day of the funeral. Defendant wore a pink wrapper when witness went to the house, and wore the dress given to the Government Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Reagan told witness that the "you gave me away" story was untrue. The prisoner sat with her face in her handkerchief during much of Mrs. Holmes' testimony.

Charles J. Holmes testified that Matron Reagan told Mr. Buck that the denial of the "you gave me away" story was true, and that she would sign it if the marshal did not object.

When the hospital surgeon told Miss Valentine her lover had but a few hours to live, she insisted on the marriage taking place at once. A license was procured yesterday, and the bridal party visited the dying man's cot to-day and the ceremony was performed.

STRAFORD'S SENSATION!

Postmaster Blair's Son Suspected of Stealing Money From Letters.

STRAFORD, Ont., June 15.—A serious charge has been preferred by the district postoffice inspector against Wm. Blair, that of abstracting money from letters passing through the office here. Complaints having been quite frequent of late of non-receipt of letters containing money, an investigation was instituted, with the result that Blair was arrested last evening. He is a son of the Postmaster of this city, about 19 years of age, and has been employed as clerk in the office here for some months past. He was admitted to bail, and the case will come up at the police court on Saturday.

The Stratford Herald says: "Very little information can be got of the proceedings which led up to the arrest, but from what the Herald can learn a decoy letter was used. The letter was not registered and the money put in was bogus. This money afterwards turned up at the bank, was, of course, refused, and as a result of investigations which followed the young man was arrested."

"Mr. Blair is a young man of about 19 or 19 years, and has been in the postoffice for some months past."

SHOT HIS BROTHER.

A Lamentable Accident Near Boston, Ont.—The Victim Likely to Die.

BELTON, Ont., June 16.—Yesterday afternoon two brothers, James and Robert Cook, sons of E. Cook, of this village, and aged about 14 and 15 years respectively, were out gunning about a mile north of this place. They became separated and partially concealed from each other at a distance of about 25 yards, and Robert, mistaking his brother for a wild animal, fired at him, the shot taking effect on the back, head, neck, arms and spine. Robert took the injured boy in his arms and carried him a distance of a mile to the nearest house. Surgeons found it impossible to extract the shot, so deeply was it lodged, and the poor boy still exists, but with little expectation of recovery. His lower limbs are already paralyzed from the effect of the wound in the head and spine.

PUT HOT COALS ON HER.

Thomas Starved and Tortured His Dying Wife—The Brute May Be Lynched.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 15.—A shocking story of a husband's brutality is revealed in Charlotte by the death of the man's victim. Ed. Thomas and his wife were exceedingly poor, and the man was very shiftless. It is said that when he made any money he purchased food and made his wife cook it, but would not permit her, although she was starving, to eat it.

Three weeks ago the woman gave birth to a child. Her condition became serious. While she lay ill her husband tortured her in every way he could, even putting red-hot coals on her arm to give her, as he said, a practical illustration of hell. He confessed to the sheriff and a physician who went to examine the body, that he committed the atrocity, but said he did it to make her religious.

The woman's arms were horribly burned. Her body was buried by the county and the child is being cared for temporarily by charitable neighbors. Thomas will be prosecuted, if the indignant populace do not lynch him.

ANGELICANS AND THE ALLIANCE.

Opposition to Sending Delegates to the Annual Council Meeting.

TORONTO, June 15.—The Dominion Alliance sent a communication to the Synod, and it was read to-day, asking that four of the delegates be deputed to attend the annual meeting of their council which will be held in September next.

Rev. W. Walsh objected to the proposal. He said the Church of England should not allow itself to be drawn into taking part in the matter till they knew more about it. The alliance, he said, has been made the tool of a political party. His remarks were a great surprise to the meeting.

Rev. L. H. Kirkley introduced a motion instructing the honorary secretary to acknowledge the communication and send the alliance a copy of the bylaws to the Church of England Temperance Society.

An Indian Relic.

While working in a gravel pit on John Hughes farm, London township, recently, several devices came upon an Indian skeleton about four feet below the ground. The smaller bones were partially decayed, as was also a portion of the skull. The frame was in a perfect state of preservation. The teeth were especially white and sound. A large amount of flint, a stone pipe, a fancy jar (which was soiled when first uncovered, but when exposed to the air became quickly hardened), and several other relics were also unearthed. These latter were probably buried with the body, as the Indians believe that departed spirits have need of such things in the "shadow world."

O! woman, lovely woman, why will you suffer so? Why bear such pain and anguish, and agony and woe? Why don't you seek the remedy—the one that cures all the ills?

"All the ills," because it makes the pains go. As an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve, for debilitated and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has no equal. It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, produces refreshing sleep, dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both the flesh and strength of those reduced below a healthy standard. Don't be put off with some worthless compound, easily, but dishonestly, recommended to be "just as good," that the dealer may make more profit. "Favorite Prescription" is incomparable.
