Whistling night are undoubtedly as disappointed as trace of him. Mr. Duggan was when he found his old favorite gone. Crestfallen, the crack racer, was locked in his box stall in the same stable, and apparently the thieves took the wrong horse for them, but the right one for Mr. Duggan.

The two horses have some resemblance in shape and size, but none in present GOOD HOCKEY PLAYER value or attractivenes for thieves. Beguile, broken down, lame and turned out, could not have been stolen for value as a racer, and certainly would not be taken for anything else. Even had he been in racing form he could not have been disguised so as to enter at any well-known tracks, as his roan color and gait and other peculiarities would make identification almost certain. Crestiallen, however, being a bay with black points, could, by painting the legs and perhaps adding a star on the forehead, be completely changed into a chest-nut which could almost challenge the closest inspection.

Crestfallen had had a most successful season, and was in shape promising fur-ther victories. He was claimed to have been the best horse this season at Fort Erie, when, eased up, he ran a mile in 1:30, and later won a number of times at Chicago. Pretty Wedding at the Venner Home, "Pleasant View."

Melrose, Nov. 14.-The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Venner, "Pleasant View," was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 3 p.m., when their eldest daughter, Ethel Maud, was united in marriage to Mr. Garfield McIntyre, of Lobo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Waddell, of Shedden. The parlors were beautifully decorated with vines and chrysanthemums, and a beautiful arch of evergreens and flowers. The bride looked charming, dressed in brown silk, wearing a diamond pin at the throat, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Birdie Ven-ner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, carrying pink carnations. Viola Tuckey, the little flower maid, carried basket of flowers which contained the wedding ring. After the ceremony the welding breakfast was partaken of by some 75 guests. The bridal party showers of rice and with the best wishes of the company, left on the evening train for the west, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside in Lobo. The many and costly presents testify to the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

IT LAYS A STILLING HAND ON PAIN.—For pains in the joints and limbs and for rheumatic pains, neuralgla and lumbago, Dr Thomas' Eclectric Oil is without a peer. Well rubbed in, the skin absorbs it, and it quickly and permanently relieves the affected part. Its value lies in its magic property of removing pain from the body and for that good quality it is prized. Six hundred cases of tiles, reliefs and other objects which once decorated the palace of Nebuchadnezzar have been shipped to Germany from Babylon by Dr. Koldeway. It is estimated that the amount of Texas wheat now on hand and unsold by the farmers does not exceed 6,000,-000 bushels. The total yield in the state is placed at 25,000,000 bushels. American archeologists have secured a concession from the Turkish Government to make excavations on a site to the northwest of the old city of Babylon.
