MANITOULIN OIL FIELDS

Additional Drilling Operations To Be Started in the Spring.

About a dozen Londoners, including Mr. Henry Macklin, who own lands in the district referred to, will be much interested in the following item, which appeared in the Pittsburgh Dispatch of recent date:

Senator William Flinn, Ralph M. Weaver, the stockbroker, and M. Gordon, of Pittsburgh, with many well-known men in adjoining counties have invested in extensive oil leases on Grand Manitoulin Island. So certain are they that they have struck something good that they will begin active drilling operations in the spring. There are producers on land adjoining.

Grand Manitoulin Island is in Ontario, situated at the head of Lake Huron and Georgian Bay. Among others interested in leases are John Leonard, several others of Washington, Pa.; Cyrus McCormick, and Thomas Cushing, of Streetsville, W. Va.; Lantz Bros., of Wheeling, W. Va.; Brundred & Brown, of Oil City, Pa., and George Vanleck, of Toledo, Ohio, all men who know something about the oil business.

Benedict, Trees & Co., another Pittsburgh concern, has been on the ground for some time. R. W. Wallace, of Pittsburgh, who has represented their interests at Grand Manitoulin since last spring, has just returned from the island to spend the holidays in Pittsburgh. He will return early in January and get busy at once. He says the firm has secured leases on 67,000 acres on the island and has already done a great deal of development work. The prospects, according to Mr. Wallace, are most encouraging.

A SOUTHERN HOLD-UP

Passengers on a Train Out of Richmond Relieved of Money and Gems.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 31. — Near La Crosse, Va., on the Seaboard Air Line, the passengers in the sleeper of train No. 31, out of Richmond, were held up and robbed of about $800 besides jewelry. The robbers, two in number, got on at Richmond, as passengers, and one remained in a day coach while the other went through the sleeper.

The Pullman conductor, while attempting to arrest the man robbing his passengers, was shot through the arm by the robber. The man then pulled the emergency brake cord, stopped the train and with his confederate escaped to the woods.

COL. MANN ACQUITTED

The Town Topics Editor Declared Not Guilty of the Charge of Perjury.

New York, Dec. 31.—Col. William D. Mann, of Town Topics, was tonight acquitted of the charge of perjury. The case went to the jury at 7 o'clock, and a verdict was reached four hours later.

The charge against Col. Mann grew out of the Haygood libel suit. During the proceeding in that case Col. Mann testified that the letters "O. K., W. D. M." appearing on a letter received by him from "Count" Reginald H. Ward, of London, had not been written by him. It was sought to show that after "Count" Ward had made satisfactory arrangements with the publication he was placed on the free list of Town Topics through Col. Mann's "O. K." In the present trial it was charged that Col. Mann committed perjury when he denied having made the letters in question.

AROUSSED AGAINST U. S.

Canton Chinese Endeavor to Revive Boycott Against Americans.

Hong Kong, Dec. 31. — Dispatches received from Canton report that over a thousand persons were present at a meeting held to discuss the American Chinese exclusion act. Resolutions were adopted to revive the boycott against American goods, that newspapers shall not advertise American manufactures, to dissuade laborers from proceeding to Panama, to petition the viceroy asking the Imperial Government to negotiate with America for a modification of the exclusion act, and that these resolutions be placarded throughout the country.

BLOODSHED IN LODZ.

Lodz, Dec. 31.—Skirmishes resulting in occasional fatalities continue between the socialist and nationalist factions. During the night six persons were killed or wounded. A funeral procession which was escorting the bodies of four murdered nationalists to the cemetery today was attacked by socialists, who shot and killed one mourner, wounded two others, and dispersed the cortege.

Ideal Bowling Alleys during last week. Messrs. Martell & Graham gave four umbrellas as prizes. In the tenth game, Watterworth and Wagner upset the pins for a total of 1178 for three games. At the five pins, Watterworth was again high, when he rolled three games with Smith for a total of 892. The alleys have been worked into first-class shape, and some excellent bowling is seen every day.

PINED FOR FIGHTING.

Thomas Tozer, William Demmore, Charles Ward and Thomas Kelly appeared at the Goddard court this morning on an old charge of fighting on the street. Kelly and Ward were allowed to go as the magistrate thought they had received plenty of punishment for their bad conduct, as their faces showed. Tozer and Demmore were each fined $2. Edward R. Flannigan was fined $5 or 10 days for being drunk. He took the days. Two first-time drunks were allowed to go.

DEATH OF PROF. DUNCAN.

The death of Prof. W. S. Duncan occurred yesterday in Victoria Hospital. Prof. Duncan, who was about 80 years of age, was many years ago a familiar figure in Western Ontario, where during the summer months he traveled and gave lectures on phonology, returning late in the fall to this city, where he spent the winters. He was at one time in the employ of the late Hon. George D. Thompson, and the late Col. Henry Prof. Duncan was a Scotchman by birth, but had spent the greater part of his life in Canada. As far as known he had no relatives in this country.

A GREAT SCOTCH SINGER.

The Royal Scots Company will hold their concert at the Grand New Year's Day, which will be a grand event. It is said to be the greatest company of Scotch artists that ever left the shores of Scotland. Miss Flora Donaldson has a rich soprano voice of great range and power, flexibility and sympathy. It is probable this true artist, having during the summer months he traveled and gave lectures on phonology, returning late in the fall to this city, where he spent the winters. He was at one time in the employ of the late Hon. George D. Thompson, and the late Col. Henry Prof. Duncan was a Scotchman by birth, but had spent the greater part of his life in Canada. As far as known he had no relatives in this country.

JOTTINGS FROM NEAR-BY PLACES

ELIMVILLE.

Elimville, Dec. 28.—Christmas was happily spent in our burg this year, and we had many visitors, including Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Pym and family, of Bethesda, who were the guests of Mr. Pym's parents, Misses Edith and Maude Fair, daughters of Rev. Mr. Fair, are also holidaying at the parsonage here. Rev. Mr. Baker, of Carleton Place, has been visiting Elimville friends. Mr. Roy Hodgson, of Toronto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. Skinner. Miss Ella Brooks, of Whalen, spent Christmas Day the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Delbridge, prior to her leaving for Markdale to visit with her sister. Mrs. Pevler, of York street, lost her Frank Davis, near Sainsbury, a few days ago. The cause of death is unknown.

Glen Oak, Dec. 28.—The annual meeting of S. S. No. 11, Caradoc, was held on the 26th inst. Mr. Thomas Pierce was elected trustee for the ensuing year. The contract for twenty cords of 22-inch hard wood for lot to Wm. Hardy for $1.57 per cord. A resolution censuring the present school act was passed unanimously, and a desire expressed that all rural sections should do likewise. Following is the text of the resolution:

"To the Honorable the Minister of Education, Toronto:

"Resolved, that the ratepayers of this section, at its annual meeting held Dec. 26, believe that the new school law is tyrannical and insulting to the rural schools of Ontario. First, because it compels them to pay a teacher a fixed salary without regard to qualifications or experience. Second, because it does not apply to city and town schools as well as country. Third, we believe that the law is a demand should govern such business, and we would

WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, Dec. 27. — The Christmas tree and Sunday school entertainment of the First Presbyterian Church on Christmas Eve was a splendid success. The large church was filled to the roof with a large number of people. The decorated and laden with presents. The programme was short, but thoroughly enjoyable. Mr. W. S. Laidlaw, the superintendent, occupied the chair, and Mr. McCrae gave a brief and bright address. Two hundred and fifty bags of candy were distributed.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Beattie, of the second, will be sorry that he is again ill. All hope for his speedy recovery.

Special services appropriate to the last Sabbath of the year will be held in both churches. The pastor, Dr. McCrae, will preach.

Christmas was spent quietly here and family gatherings were the order of the day.

A bullet which was fired by a charge sufficient to give it an initial velocity of 1,700 feet a second in dry weather would travel at no more than 1,300 feet through moist air.
