Another bill has been filed in Chancery against the Bank of Upper Canada. It contains 31 clauses, and sets forth that Robert Cassels became manager of the Bank at a salary of $10,000 for a certain term of years which have not vet expired. That securities were given him by way of pledge for salary. That he was bound by the agreement to devote his time and services exclusively to the affairs of the Bank. That he had violated the provisions of the agreement ln entering into an agreement with Glyn, Mills & Co., London, to collect and secure the debts due to them by the bank, for which he received a certain per centage. That he was concerned in other transactions, receiving large sums by way of commission. Com plainants submit that Cassels has forfeited all claim to remuneration as the servant of the bank, and seek that the mortgage or pledge of security given him be declared void; that an account be taken of the moneys Cassels received for services other than those connected with the bank, and the amount set off against the sum due and to become due to him by agreement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Judge Cowles, in his charge to the grand jury on Tuesday, called attention to the prevalence of gambiing in the city, and on the strength of rumors, perhaps, intimated that the police are in league with the gamesters and wink at their violation of the laws. Since then the daily press has teemed with editorials and communications respecting its suppression in San Francisco. Some allege that under the existing law the police are powerless to affect any abatement of the vice, while others inway of suppression are exaggerated.

NEW YORK, Feb 14-The Herald's cable special says:

The London Reform demonstration of Monday was a great success. American, French and Italian flags were carried, and the Legations cheered. Yankee Doodle, John Brown, the Marseilles and Garibaldi hymns were played by the bands. The Prince o Wales witnessed the procession from the windows of the United Service Club, but received no cheers. There was a superb reception at the American Embassy; all the members of the procession took off their hats as they passed. Among the banners were-" No surrender !" Liberty!" " Equality!" "Manhood Sufa frage!" "Serfdom is Infamous!" "The Voice of the People cannot be ignored with safety!" " Taxation without Representation is a Fraud!" "Liberty for those who dare demand it !" "Trust in God and keep your powder dry!"

On Thursday afternoon the House of Commons was crowded to hear the expected announcement of the Government programme. Disraeli delivered a long historical essay on reform and the constitution. At the close of his speech he said that Government would introduce resolutions to test the sense of Parliament before presenting a Reform Bill. The resolutions are vague and unsatisfactory. They merely state general principles.

Gladstone, in a few remarks, accepted the Government plan of proceeding, but protested against delay.

During the session a rumor prevailed that the Fenians had taken the city of Chester. which caused great excitement.

The Duke of Cambridge hastily left the House for the War Office.
