The affair caused much scandal, as the Windsor is the hotel in Canada, patronized by the Governor-General and family. The fact of the two being engaged was not known and the affair was looked upon in a very bad light at the time.

AMERICAN REGULATORS. They Attempt to Kidnap a Man and Carry Him Over the Border.

Arrival of the Dominion Representatives at the Scene of the Great Tournament.

MONTREAL, July 13.—The Star's cable from London, says: "The Canadians arrived at Biele on Tuesday. It has been raining hard ever since, and practically nothing is doing. The time is being taken up with tennis matches. The Canadian team had good practice at Cambridge. While there they fired two matches; first with the Suffolk regiment, sixteen men on each side, at two ranges. The Canadians made scores of 888 and the Suffolk 825. They also had a match with the Cambridge rifle team of eight men. The Canadians made 557 and Cambridge 506. The match for the Kelopote cup will take place on Saturday.

THE CARNEGIE COMPANY WILL NOT SURRENDER.—Their Employees Will Fight to the End.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, says they have been watching all the labor agencies in this city and Brooklyn. They succeeded in persuading all applicants for work to keep away from Home Works, but in no case did they appear. He is positive no non-union men would go to work there.

WILL BRIDGE NIAGARA. The Canadian Pacific Railway Contemplates a Work with This Object in View.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 14.—The Canadian Pacific, it is stated, on the authority of prominent railway officials who were at Clifton, to-day, will bridge the Niagara very shortly. The long-talked-of scheme of that road for securing direct communication with New York seems now about to be realized. A line is to be constructed from Woodstock to Niagara Falls, and agents of the road are purchasing the right-of-way between Welland, Ont., and Woodstock. For some time tenders for the construction of a bridge across the Niagara Falls have been invited. The president announced that over $3,500 had already been subscribed in money and a large donation of flour.

AMERICAN NEWS. WILL NOT PAY DAMAGES. BERKELEY, Cal., July 14.—The "Giant Powder Co. will not pay the expenses of repairing the explosion dam in Berkeley. It intended to do so at first, but when the directors heard of the consequences, they changed their mind, and determined to let the property owners do their own repairing.

World's Fair Finances. CHICAGO, July 15.—It is doubtful whether the world's fair directors will accept the $3,000,000 appropriation if the Sunday closing and no liquor amendments, adopted by the Senate, are also adopted by the House. Some of the directors believe that it would cost them more money to accept the $3,000,000 under these conditions than it would to decline the appropriation, as the House is expected to amend the bill, on Sunday, and their percentage from the sale of liquor would amount to more than $5,000,000. Mr. Baker said: "The time has now come when the directors should think seriously of giving financial aid to the exposition themselves. It would be expensive to accept the appropriation under the conditions."

Murdering a Chinaman. SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Illinois Wised, arrested on a charge of having murdered a Chinaman on the bark W. H. Dimond, while that vessel was lying at Honolulu in short time ago, made a statement to the coroner before U. S. Commissioner Sawyer, stating that he witnessed the killing of the Chinaman, and that it was done by the nightwatchman of the vessel, named Paul, and another Chinaman. The murder was committed for money. Wised stated that he assisted to throw the body of the deceased overboard, and also his effects. The statement made by Wised was purely voluntary. The Chinaman who was killed had been smuggled on board by Wised and was to be sold and sent to Seattle as evidence.

POLITICAL REVULSION.

The Gladstonians Appear to Have All But Realised Their Expectations.

Some Further Returns—What is Shown by the Official Figures.

LONDON, July 15.—It is practically conceded that the Gladstonian majority in the new House will be between 50 and 58. Official party estimates put it at 56, and nothing but wildly improbable gains or losses in the limited number of constituencies still out can much alter this. Assuming that it will be 56, and allowing the Parnellites their apparent maximum of 9, they may be able, by mutiny, to lessen this majority to 38. It is interesting to note that in all computations of the two parties, the Parnellites are ranked with the Liberals, and contented on to make their majority. This is an anomalous position, for the faction which has been working in the interest of the Tories, has been helped by thousands of Tory votes, and in at least a dozen cases has had the election expenses paid by Tories. The charge was publicly made in Dublin, yesterday, that there were 14 of these cases, and it is certainly difficult to explain the financial side about that number of Parnellite candidates on any other hypothesis.

ST. CHARLES DILKE was elected to the House of Commons, for the Forest of Dean by the Catholics of Gloucestershire, by 2,413 majority.

At 1:15 o'clock this afternoon the total returns received show the election of 232 Conservatives, 42 Liberal-Unionists, 240 Liberals, 54 Anti-Parnellites, seven Parnellites and three Labor. This gives the Government 294 and the Opposition 304.

Rival political factions at Portadown, 10 miles north-west of Armagh, on the Ulster coast, yesterday engaged in a serious riot. The fight was waged with desperation on both sides, and when the police attempted to restore order they found they were powerless to do so. The rioters, who were headed by James Connolly, a well-known radical, attacked the police and when the police were fired, and it is stated that several men were seriously injured.

The Parnellites thought the magic of their great leader's name would work wonders in the election, but they were mistaken, as shown by the voting in the west division of Windsor, where H. Parnell, brother of the late C. S., stood at the foot of the poll, receiving 528 votes. A number of the Parnellites, however, were elected.

THE ESTLING BOYS OF THE COUNTY DOWN Have it Hot and Heavy.

LONDON, July 15.—At Banbridge, County Down, a number of Orangemen, headed by a band, retired to celebrate the election of F. W. Russell, the Unionist leader, who was returned from South Tyrone, yesterday. During the return march, the Orangemen were passing the house of a Catholic named Winter, in the name of Estling, when somebody discharged a gun from a window at the procession. The Orangemen thereupon attacked the house and, after a severe struggle, succeeded in wrecking the building, which had been fired at them. The family that occupied the house escaped by the back way and notified the police. The police found the building ruined, the furniture smashed, the windows broken and the walls dilapidated. The police gave chase to the Orangemen and overtook them early this morning, as they were entering the town singing "God Save the Queen." The police demanded the names of the party; the Orangemen refused, and the police thereupon undertook to search for them. Eight armed and the Orangemen were overpowered by the police when assistance arrived and the police got the upper hand. The police were satisfied with taking the names of the ringleaders, with the view to prosecution. The affair has caused such a ferment in the vicinity that an extra force of police has been detailed to Banbridge, Birtley & vicinity, and the police there have been standing the presence of a large body of police. The opposing parties had a vigorous encounter in the streets; they would not disperse at the command of the police, who charged with fixed bayonets on the mob, wounding several persons, and compelling the combatants to retire. In the course of the affair a number of the mob were badly damaged by stones and other missiles.

WASHTINGTON CITY, July 15.—By treaty with Samoa the United States has acquired the right to establish a station for coal and other naval supplies for her naval and commercial marine, and Attorney-General Miller has given an opinion that the right conveyed by the treaty included the right to make the provision relating to a coaling station operative by the purchase of transfer of land from native or other Samoan owners to this Government. Legal steps toward the purchase have been taken. It is expected that within a few months the United States will possess an adequate coaling station on the Pacific Coast.

E. S. PACIFIC STATION. WASHINGTON CITY, July 15.—By treaty with Samoa the United States has acquired the right to establish a station for coal and other naval supplies for her naval and commercial marine, and Attorney-General Miller has given an opinion that the right conveyed by the treaty included the right to make the provision relating to a coaling station operative by the purchase of transfer of land from native or other Samoan owners to this Government. Late Advice as to the Movements in East Africa. LONDON, July 15.—Official dispatches from Captain Lugard, agent of the British East Africa Company in Uganda, in regard to the religious warfare in that country, have been received. He says the troubles commenced on August 12, after the arrival at Uganda of a French bishop, who, it is said, brought an announcement of the intended withdrawal of the British forces in Uganda. On the receipt of the news, continual aggression by the Catholic missionaries, who were headed by the French bishop, King Mwanga, leader of the Catholic party, to punish the murderers of the Protestant Chief, he was told if he interfered, every one of his soldiers would be killed. The following day, overwhelming French forces attacked Lugard's command, who, armed with Maxim rifle, succeeded in repelling them. Lugard men then fled to the islands, after seizing Mwanga, which move was of immense importance to Uganda, where the people are devoted to the King. Lugard offered to reinstate Mwanga, but owing to the intrigues and lies of the French bishop, the Catholics were rejected. "The Protestants are in a critical position, the Catholics, Mohammedans and heathens all being arrayed against them."

PEDDLING FALCON. HAMILTON, July 15.—A couple of shoddy peddlers have reaped a rich harvest from the farmers of North township. They alleged that they represented a large whole sale concern at Toronto, similar to the Parsons of industry stores, which would send out tailors to make up goods sold by them. It was claimed that the purchaser would be entitled to get from the concern anything further that might be wanted at wholesale rates. The swindlers took notes at four months for $45 to $65 for each lot worth $25.

MARQUETTE ECTS A CONSERVATIVE. WINNIPEG, July 15.—At the nomination for the vacant seat for Marquette, in the Commons, to-day, N. Boyd, of Carberry, Conservative, was elected by acclamation. He succeeded Robert Watson, Liberal, who resigned. The Liberals could not get a man to oppose Mr. Boyd, although they carried Marquette at the general elections.
