Gems of Art.

Eight studies of birds and flowers, exact reproductions of the original water color paintings, by eminent artists, exquisite in finish and design, with a description of each subject, and directions for reproducing, all put up in a handsome porifolio, are published by the well-known firm of Scott & Bowne, New York, for the remarkably low price of thirty cents. They are without doubt "perfect gems of art," and "well worth $2. Mr. F. J. Prior of Toronto, with his usual enterprise, has made arrangements to control the sale of them in Canada, and is enabled to offer them at the same price as sold for in New York. He will send one, post-paid, to any address upon receipt of publishers price, thirty cents.

The great one price clothing store, 420 Queen-street west, carried on by the favorable known T. K. Rogers, are now offering the West End people the greatest bargains in men's, boys' and youths' ready-made clothing.

The Purchasers living west have no need to go down town to rig their boys or themselves out with spring suits. They guarantee durab lity and fit in every garment at prices that cannot be equalled down town. Don't forget to give the great one price clothing store a visit before purchasing elsewhere. Note the address, 420 Queen-street west.

If the Fire and Gas Committee's estimates are not ready by the end of next week, the Executive Committee will take the matter out cff their hands and fix on an adequate appropriation themselves.

"SOCIAL ADJUSTMENTS."

Rev. Dr. Stafford Gives His Opi Association Hall last night Rev. E. A. State ford said in spite of the many anxieties and risks attached to the position of an employer he had never heard of a capitalist offering the had never heard of a capitalist offering to change his position with a workingman of a workingman who would not be willing to change places with his employer. In connection with these social questions Dr. Stafford was not prepared to condemn direct taxation. Custom houses he regarded as descended from barbarism. Man after gaining access to the products of the earth was cut off from them by the custom homes. With regard to the land question he believed that if there were no speculation in land there would be speculation on other things as much calculated to develop poverty. A Vanderbut or a Gould might rake in a million or two, which in the end would come out of the hands of the toiler.
