OUR NEW BILL of FARE for 1878

is, we think, an unusually good one. It is as follows:—
HOPES SECRET, AND HOW IT WAS FOUND OUT. By the Author of "Gracie's Puzzle."
HILTON GRANGE, OR, COUSIN MARTHA'S TROUBLE. By the Author of "Philip Dene."
OUR FEATHERED FAVOURITES. By a new Author, giving the true history of her pet birds.
LITTLE BAPTISTA. By the Author of "Phoebe of Plathwaite." A real narrative of an Italian boy who became a famous musician.
PICTURE STORIES. These must be continued, as our dear friends are so fond of them; or else they give us no little trouble to invent. But we never grumble at any trouble which we take in amusing, instructing, or edifying our young readers.
POETICAL ENIGMAS. Our kind friend KATE W. has promised us a new supply. The key to them will be given at the end of the year.

Many other useful and entertaining papers will be found in SUNSHINE.

Each Year's Volume is complete in itself, price 1s. 6d. in plain cloth, and 2s. 6d. in extra cloth, elegantly gilt.

The first twelve years may now be had in three handsome Volumes, price five shillings each, cloth gilt. Twenty-four complete stories, each worth half-a-crown if published separately, besides a variety of interesting Papers—a delightful Library for any youthful reader.

These Magazines will be supplied Monthly by any Bookseller or Newsvendor.
