A BRIDE'S CONFESSION

"Yes, dear, I am married now, and George and I are keeping house in the loveliest flat on 64th St. Well, yes, we did get married somewhat suddenly. My health, you know, had for some time been very delicate, and Dr. Heavy-fee told mamma that he feared I would follow dear sister Belle, who died three years ago from a wasting disease. Dear George was almost crazy when mamma told him that the doctor said, and I nearly cried my eyes out, but one day I overheard that 'hateful Nelly Parker' say 'I think that George Blauvelt is just too lovely for anything, and when the girl he's engaged to dies, and they say she is dying of a galloping consumption, I'm going to step into her shoes and become Mrs. George Blauvelt; now just you wait and see.' This speech I noticed George seemed to be almost resigned to the idea that we should never be married, and the thought that that deceitful busy body might get the better of me drove me crazy. One day I read the testimony of Dr. Campbells' ARSENIC COMPLEXION WAFERS, and I resolved to try what they would do for me. I commenced their use on the 4th of July. George had just sailed for Europe on business for his firm. On Sept. 18 he returned. I was, from the use of the Wafers, by that time again a well woman, and so enraptured was he with my healthy and robust appearance that he insisted we get married the very next day. I could not say him nay, and, as you will see by my card, I am now Mrs. George Blauvelt. I call soon and let me introduce George to you; I am sure you will like him, he is so handsome, and as good as he is handsome. Good-by; be sure not to forget."

THE DEY OF ALGIERS!

The DEY OF PERSIA and the SULTANS of TURKEY and the CO now PATTEN and BEAUTIFY their hair and complexion with DR. CAMPBELL'S ARSENIC COMPLEXION WAFERS. So great is the demand for these marvellous Wafers that their manufacture is continued day and night.

The Shah found his harem in a state of disorder on his return to Persia.—N. Y. World, Oct. 12, 1889. Reason—Their supply of CAMPBELL'S WAFERS was exhausted!

ILLUSTRATIVE of the desirability of a certain amount of Plumpness, rumour has it that the above distinguished Oriental Potentates make it a practice to WEIGH their wives regularly once a month, and in rank and imperial favour being accorded to the wife possessed of the greatest number of pounds avoirdupois.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

GUEST (attempting to carve):—What kind of a chicken is this, anyhow? Waiter: Dat's a genuine Plymouth Rocker, sah. (Guest throwing up his hands): That explains it. I knew she was an old-timer; but I had no idea she dated back there. Take 'er away. I draw the line on the hens from the Mayflower.

Mrs. Gadabout: What sort of a person is Mrs. Mildman who has moved into the next house to you? Mrs. Chaffer: I don't think much of her. Between you and me I think she is next door to an idiot. Mrs. Gadabout: (innocently): I think so, too, my dear.

DR. A. R. SCOVILL, of Cincinnati, says:—"For Coughs and all the early stages of Lung Complaints, I believe ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM to be a certain cure; and every family would keep it by them, ready to administer from the first appearance of a disease about the Lungs, there would be very few cases of fatal consumption."

NOT long ago we listened to a sermon from a cultured young preacher, just home from Germany, before a congregation mostly farmers, upon the "subjective influence of Christian consciousness." An honest deacon said, "The more he unfolded it, the more he covered it up."
