

peace without and peace within."—New Market Era.

(The above, George Hughes, was an esteemed member of our Society belonging to Yonge street M. M.—Eds.)

FIFTY YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haight, of South Yarmouth, celebrated their golden wedding yesterday. In accordance with their quiet habits it was an informal affair. A large number of relatives and friends called during the day to offer their congratulations, and listened with interest to the happy recital of that eventful day, the 17th of January, 1839, when the happy couple were married by Friends' ceremony, to which Society they have always belonged. Out of the twenty-nine signatures attached to the marriage certificate but seven are now living. Mr. and Mrs. Haight are now aged 79 and 71 respectively. Their adopted daughter, Mrs. J. V. Teetzel, of Hamilton, was with them, and presented them with a very suggestive oil painting from her own brush, which was greatly admired. They were also the recipients of beautiful hot-house flowers, particularly a bouquet of hot-house roses from a Hamilton friend.

Uncle Sammy and Aunt Phoebe Haight are among the best known residents of Yarmouth, where they have lived, near Sparta, almost all their lives. Of several children born to them none lived to maturity. Mrs. Haight was a daughter of Mr. Mills, one of the pioneers, who at one time owned a considerable portion of Sparta. She is of a gentle, kindly disposition, and is beloved by all who know her, as her husband is esteemed and respected. She has been an invalid for some time from paralysis, but her mind remains clear and active. The friends of the old couple hope they may live many years together.—St. Thomas Home Journal.

SWARTHMORE NOTES.

John J. Cornell delivered an address at the college on the 8th inst. on the subject, "Religion as a Study."

The Eunomian Literary Society has been making an extensive change in the cataloguing system of its Library. The work is approaching completion.

Aaron M. Powell addressed the meeting on First-day, the 13th inst.

Our physical instructor, Dr. Shell, has organized a special team for trainers. It is his intention to prepare them for the coming spring sports.

A reception was given in the College reception halls on the 26th inst. It was largely attended by the students and the faculty and instructors were also well represented. The Glee Club gave several selections during the evening. The members of the Committee were as follows. Mary Kirk and H. E. Foreman, jr., '89; Sara Atkinson and William D. Lippincott, '90; Lucy S. Lippincott and James S. Coale, '91; Florence D. Reid and Henery B. Coles, '92.

George Masters, '89, delivered an illustrated lecture to the Senior Class in Geology on the 24th inst. His subject was "His travels in the Yellowstone National Park."

Supt. William J. Hall is pushing the construction of his new residence which will soon be ready for him.

A reception will be given in the early part of next month, by the class of '90 to their allies, '92.

Professor Ferris W. Price, who has been granted a leave of absence by the Board of Managers, will leave for Europe soon after commencement. His family will accompany him and they intend making their home at Leipsic, Germany, where he will pursue his studies. E. C. W.

In the world in which children have their existence, there is nothing so finely perceived and as finely felt as injustice.—Charles Dickens.