St. Michael's New Windows.

Mr. Engene O'Kesfe has donated two beautiful Stained glass windows to St. Michael's Cathedral as memorials of his wife and son. They are beautiful representations of pictorial srt, and are the handitions of pictorial srt, and are the handitions of pictorial srt, and are the handitions of the stain strong the stain of the stain strong the stain of the stain strong the Dectors. The coloring is both is strong but chaste. The dark blue and red are specially admitable. The nagges forms in the Immaculate Conception are well outlined and firmly set. In the Haufman copy as top tracery there is the crown of the God-head, while the Law, the Goapel, Propheny and Kingship are represented on the sides. Both windows reflect great credit on the donor and the action.

ST. PETER'S.

On Tuesday the 18th first, aMonth's Requiem High Mass was offered up for the recome of the Soul of Miss Annie Kelly. The Mass was very appropriately said in a fostival of the Biessed Wirgh of winces Sodulity the deceased was a most devoted member. Her follow sodalists testified their esteem by attending her funeral in his body. They miss her gentle indeets and amiability very much at their meetings where she was claways one of the most punctual in attendance. Indeed the last day before her fats! Illness prostrated her, found her in the solidity meeting.

ed her, found her in the solidity meeting.

The same virtues which won for her the respect and affection of her companious were deally shown in her lone where her death at the early and of twenty-one years has left a void not cashly filled. Her death was exceedingly ediliving and fittingly crowned a life of singular innovene, is weathered and ploty. To her are applicable the words of wisdom: Being made perfect in a short space she fulfilled a fong time. For her soul pleaked field, there fore life leatened to being her out of the midst of inquisites.
