The Irishman had a correct appreciation of the fitness of things who, being asked by the judge when he applied for a license to sell whiskey if he was of good moral character, replied: "Faith, yer honour, I don't see the necessity of a good moral character to sell whiskey!"

Life of the Rev. John Geddie, D.D.,

First Missionary to the New Hebrides.

WITH A JUSTORY OF THE NOVA SCOTIA PRESEV-TERIAN MISSION OF THAT GROUP.

BY THE REV. GEORGE PATTERSON, D. D.

This work carefully traces the origin and early history of this Mission-the first from a British colony to a heathen land. It presents a large amount of Dr. Geddie's correspondence and journals, much of which has never before been published, giving many details of his early trials, and hairbreadth escapes, as well as of the work of God on Aneiteum and other islands. It also contains much information regarding the South Sea Islands, their physical structure and productions, the condition of their inhabitants, their customs, mode of life, etc. It has notices of the other missionaries, who have laboured on the group, bringing up the history of the Mission to the present time.

It is illustrated by a finely executed portrait, maps of the New Hebrides and Aneiteum, and woodcuts representing the natives, etc.

The work contains 512 pages, is well bound in cloth, and sold at $1.50 per copy.

Agents wanted for the sale of the work to whom a liberal discount will be given. General agents, D. McGregor, Halifax.
