

Poetry.

I'LL THINK OF THEE.

I'll think of Thee
Soon as the nightly shadows flee:
Soon as fair morning's gentle hand
Waves cheerful light across the land.
I'll think the beams that meet my eyes
Were sent by Thee to bid me rise,
And hasto to worship Thee.

I'll think of Thee
Oft as still eve draws near to me
Oft as I watch, beyond its shade,
The thousand stars thy fingers made.
I'll think of that brighter, lovelier far
Thy beams of truth and mercy are
Than all the stars I see.

I'll think of Thee
When life appears a troubled sea;
When on its raging billows tossed,
I feel altho' hopes are lost.
I'll think thy presence still is nigh,
And Thou still watching with Thine eye,
And none can watch like Thee!

I'll think of Thee
When Death's thick shadows fall near me,
When all around sinks deep in gloom,
And near me lies the dreaded tomb,
I'll think it safe beneath thy care
To leave my body slumbering there,
Till it shall rise to Thee.

I'll think of Thee
Through coming, blest eternity:
When with thy chosen, joyful band,
Beside thy throns in peace I stand,
I'll think those everlasting days
Too short, too swift, to sing thy praise,
Too few to honour Thee.

PRAISE FOR AFFLICTION

For what shall I praise Thee, my God and my King?
For what blessings the tribute of gratitude bring?
Shall I praise Thee for pleasure, for health and for ease?
For the spring of delight, and the sunshine of peace?

Shall I praise Thee for flowers that bloomed in my breast?
For joys in perspective, and pleasures possessed?
For the spirits that heightened my days of delight?
And the slumbers that sat on my pillow by night?

For this I would praise Thee, but if only for this
I should leave half untold the donation of Lilies
I thank Thee for sickness, for sorrow, for care,
For the thorns I have gathered, the anguish I bear.

For nights of anxieties, watching, and tears
A present of pain, a perspective of fears
I praise thee, I bless Thee, my King and my God,
For the good and the evil thy hand hath bestowed

The flowers were sweet, but their fragrance is slow
They yielded no fruits, they are withered and gone
The thorn it was poignant, but precious to me
Twas the message of mercy, it led me to Thee

NEVER FAILING REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A CRIPPLE
SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool dated August 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. V. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse whereby he received very serious injuries, he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly ten years, recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

(Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsboro', dated 1st, March, 1852.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians by all of whom the case was considered hopeless: At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31 Dalley Street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility and general ill health, accompanied with a disordered stomach and great derangement of the system. In addition to this she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states, that in a wonderfully short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength, and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemist Bath.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR.—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, Dear Sir, Your's faithfully

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.

MEDICAL ADVISER,

AGENT MATTHEW H. RICHEY.

THE COLONIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY has been established for the purpose of affording to the Colonies of Great Britain the advantages of Life Assurance, and its regulations have been so framed, as to attain that object in the most efficient manner under the most liberal covenants. The progress of the business has been attended with complete success, and the Company has obtained the entire confidence of those whose patronage it was its object to seek.

From the wide basis of its constitution, and the extent of its resources, the Company affords advantages which no local institution can confer, and it has good ground for asking public preference and support over other British Offices doing business in the Colonies, not only with reference to the facilities which it affords, by receiving premiums and paying claims in any British Colony where its Policy Holders may reside, but on the ground that, in seeking business out of Great Britain, it does so not as an after thought, its Colonial arrangements not being mere extensions of or additions to a home business, but as part of its original scheme and intention.

THE PROFITS OF THE COMPANY for the period from 1840 to 1851 fall to be divided on at 25th May 1851, and parties who Assure during the present year will participate.

AGENCIES.—Amherst, R. B. Dickey, Esq. Annapolis, James Gray, Esq. Arich. A. C. F. Harrington, Esq.—Bridgetown, T. Spurr, Esq. Digby, J. A. Dennison, Esq. Kentville, John C. Hall, Esq. Liverpool, J.
