RUSSIA'S THREE WARNINGS.

BY A SWED

I
The sun's last beams flee Kioega Bay
And see comes dashing through the spray
Britannia's noblest Fleet.
The signals rise, the anchors fall!
Soon run the ships like spectres to
Each in its wending sheet—
For darkness spreads its general pall
And Night and Naptier rules o'er all
Fear not, O Denmark! there's no need
To scare again thy state.
But Russia, heed,
But Russia, heed,
This first, this solemn warning.
Ere 'tis too late,
Ere 'tis too late
T'escape a fearful morning

II
An' lo' Britannia's warlike host
Approach old Sweden's barren coast.
And hark! the cannons roar!
All Gottland echoes the deaf sound
The Baltic heaves for miles around.
And thousands throng the shore.
Wake, Poland, wake, from sleep profound
ARM, PRUSSIA, AS IN DUTY BOUND—
But fear not, Sweden, there's no need
To tremble for thy fate
But Russia, heed,
But Russia, heed,
This dread, this second warning
Ere 'tis too late,
Ere 'tis too late
T'escape a bloody morning

III
Smite still, ye winds, the icy mass,
And scatter it like broken glass,
Glow forth, impatient sun—
For see, upon the Finnish waves
England's proud fleet the ice drifts braves.
With each man near his gun
Hail, Finland, hail! that flag which saves
The world from tyrants and from knaves,
Prepare, O Finland, in thy need
True friends thy call await.
But Russia, heed,
But Russia, heed,
This last, the only warning.
Ere 'tis too late,
Ere 'tis too late,
T'escape this fatal morning.

THE RENOWNED REMEDY!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble Esq., Mayor of Boston Lincolnshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.
Dear Sir.—Mrs SARAH DIXON, of Liquorpond Street, Boston has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body, and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse. Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that all was used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
Dated August 12th 1852. (Signed) J. NOBLE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF RHYSPIDELAS IN THE LEG. AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Egham, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th, 1853.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.
Sir.—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and I am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighbourhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful Serv't.

(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

A DREADFULLY DISEASED ANGLE CURED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP BY THE FACULTY, AT MALTA AND PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS.

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Dixon Chemist, King-st., Norwich.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Smith, of Great Yarmouth, dated January 10th, 1853

To MR DIXON.
Dear Sir.—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines.—Mr. JOHN WALTON, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British Fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated angle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained an inmate four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the angle amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his angle became so much worse that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitting application, healed all the ulcers and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours very truly,

(Signed) JOHN SMITH.

STUNNING CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist, &c Lower Moss-lane, Manchester, dated Feb. 12th, 1853.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.
Dear Sir.—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs MARTHA BELL, of Pitt street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite and general ill health, occasioned by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result. In fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have a recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing: her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed. I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) T. FOSTER KIR.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases—
