

QUYON, QUE.—Plans are being prepared for new Roman Catholic church at this place.

CARGILL, ONT.—H. Cargill & Son have just taken tenders on erection of new brick dwelling.

PEMBROKE, ONT.—Sewer extension to cost about $5,000 will likely be carried out this year.

HESPELER, ONT.—A four-room addition to the public school is likely to be built this spring.

EAST TORONTO, ONT.—The corporation will build a fire hall on Spruce avenue, cost $600.

STURGEON FALLS, ONT.—Cockburn & Sons will build a saw mill either here or at Cache Bay.

FREDERICTON, N.B.—The by-law to provide funds for sewerage was defeated on the 10th inst.

ST. CATHARINES, ONT.—The City Council will take steps at once to build the Carnegie library.

FRANKTOWN, ONT.—The Presbyterians are asking for tenders for building new stone church.

FENELON FALLS, ONT.—The village clerk has been instructed to secure prices on road graders.

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S.—It is expected that steps will be taken at once to build a new Anglican church.

BRIDGEBURG, ONT.—Voting on a by-law to provide for a waterworks system takes place on 20th inst.

WESTON, ONT.—Residences will be built this spring by Mrs. Vanalestine, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Moffat.

PARIS, ONT.—The vestry of the Sacred Heart church will be enlarged this summer, at a cost of $2,000.

OIL SPRINGS, ONT.—Malcolm Dunlop has made a proposition to the council to establish a grist mill here.

ARKWRIGHT, ONT.—Tenders close 26th inst. for erection of brick school house. Particulars from W. J. Sithe.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—The Cockshutt Plow Company have given up the idea of enlarging their works this year.

SYDNEY, N. S.—Donald McAdam is asking for tenders up to 21st inst. for enlarging the Church of the Sacred Heart.

MILVERTON, ONT.—The village clerk has been instructed to obtain tenders for construction of cement sidewalks.

WOODSTOCK, ONT.—The ratepayers will vote on a by-law on March 25th to loan $12,000 to the Woodstock Wagon Co.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—The plans of B. Dillon, architect, have been accepted for alterations and improvements to Victoria school.

ORILLIA, ONT.—W. H. Croker, architect, has been instructed to prepare plans for new Sunday School for St. James' church.

TOTTENHAM, ONT.—Voting takes place on 21st inst. on a by-law to establish a municipal electric light plant, at a cost of $6,000.

PILOT MOUND, MAN.—The question of building a new school is submitted to the ratepayers last week. Result not learned.

FRANKTOWN, ONT.—Tenders close Saturday, 29th inst., for erection of new Presbyterian church, of stone. Address Peter McEwen.

PERTH, ONT.—Bids are asked by John A. Kerr, town clerk, up to Monday April 7th, for purchase of $17,186 local improvement debentures.

INDIAN HEAD, N.W.T.—A. M.

Fraser, architect, has prepared plans for a residence to be built at Rosthern, Saskatoon, by A. J. Bell.

GUELPH, ONT.—Steps are progressing towards the installation of a sewerage system, and at an early meeting of council plans will be submitted.

STRATFORD, ONT.—Frank Smith, of London, purposes erecting a large brick building on the corner of Ontario and Market streets in this city.

DRESDEN, ONT.—The Dominion Government have been asked to dredge the Sydenham river, between Wallaceburg and Dresden, to a depth of 11 feet.

GRACEFIELD, QUE.—The Ottawa, Northern and Western Railway will probably extend its line from Gracefield to Maniwaki this year, distance 30 miles.

REVELSTOKE, B.C.—The city has been asked to grant assistance towards the construction of a bridge over the Columbia river. The cost will be about $30,000.

BUCKINGHAM, QUE.—At last Council meeting a by-law was passed to raise $25,000 to erect a market, put in a system of drainage and construct macadam roads.

KINCARDINE, ONT.—A joint stock company has been formed, capital $20,000, to establish a summer hotel here. John Ruettel and William Arnold are directors.

ALMONTE, ONT.—The corporation is asking for tenders up to noon of April 7th for the purchase of ten debentures of $735.82 each. Particulars from L. Coulter, town clerk.

COMBER, ONT.—The Michigan Central Railway will probably construct a waterworks system and make an arrangement for supplying the village; estimated cost, $20,000.

CARLETON PLACE, ONT.—The Congregationalists will build a new church this spring.—The School Board have decided to build a new school. N. Riddell is chairman of the Board.

RONDEAU, ONT.—The coal hoist and storage plant to be built by the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway will cost about $75,000. There will be a dock 24 feet wide and 400 feet long.

RENFREW, ONT.—Architects have been asked to submit plans for additions and alterations, including installation of steam heating system, to St. Andrew's church. Rev. Mr. Hay, pastor.

PALMERSTON, ONT.—M. Woolbridge has submitted a proposition to the Council to establish a furniture factory here, agreeing to erect a three-storey building, either of brick or cement, 40x80 feet.

QUEBEC, QUE.—The Harbor Commissioners are said to have completed arrangements with the Dominion Coal Company under which the latter will erect a coal handling plant in this city to cost $5,000.

SMITH'S FALLS, ONT.—The Frost & Wood Co. have had plans prepared for new office building on Water street, and their architect is now working on plans for another large building to be built this summer.

EGANVILLE, ONT.—The Council will submit to the ratepayers a by-law to raise $3,000 by way of debentures to aid in the construction of a stone bridge across the Bonnechere river; probable cost of bridge, $15,000. Voting takes place on the 29th inst.

SAND POINT, ONT.—Seventy-five acres of land at Norway Bay have been bought by the Canadian Bible Institute, and permanent buildings to be willerected for accommodation of those who attend the summer rescrpt. Rev. J. A. McFarlane is the moving spirit.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Plans are being prepared by Dr. S. J. Turnstall for a three storey block on the corner of Granville and Dunsmuir streets, to include three stores.—The Pacific Coast Lumber Company is about to commence the construction of a large wharf at Coal Harbor.

BRACEBRIDGE, ONT.—Bids are asked by A. C. Salmon, town clerk, up to noon of 24th inst. for purchase of $12,000 4 per cent. debentures.—The deputation that went to Ottawa last week believe that the government will make a grant towards the proposed new town wharf.

MIDLAND, ONT.—The Dominion Government has been memorialized to build a wharf for this town.—A new residence will be built on corner of King and Yonge streets by S. Campbell.—A committee has been appointed to secure plans for a new Presbyterian church.

TWEED, ONT.—Dr. Weston Price, of Cleveland, Ohio, was in town recently making arrangements for the erection of a large summer hotel on Lake Massanoga. The contracts will be awarded immediately so that the hotel may be completed by July 1st. It is said that the C.P.R. is interested.

ST. JOHN, N. B.—The Board of School Trustees have decided to build a ten roomed school building on Elm street, with mansard roof, cost $25,000.—The Canadian Pacific Railway will this year continue their extensions and improvements on the west side, including the building of the section of the terminal yard.

LONDON, ONT.—It is said that Mr. Rumble has decided to rebuild the Columbia Handle Company's factory.—Herbert Matthews, architect, is preparing plans for new factory for the McCormick Mfg. Co., this city, alterations to residence in South London for R. F. Puddicombe, and new brick residence on Central avenue for H. M. Douglas TRURO, N. S.—The Colchester Electric Co., Limited, is taking steps to establish an electric light and power plant in town. George Lewis and Richard Craig are mentioned as promoters.—Incorporation is being sought for the Nova Scotia Northern Railway Co., to build a railway from a point on the Eastern Extension Railway to connect with the Oxford and New Glasgow Railway. T. G. McMullen is interested.

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, QUE.—The Shawinigan Falls Terminal Co. is seeking incorporation from the Quebec Government to construct a railway in this village and the counties of St. Maurice and Champlain; capital stock $200,000; promoters, J. E. Aldred, W. C. Johnson and R. W. Douglas, of Montreal, and Vivian Burrill and F. Stoughton, of this place.

WINDSOR, ONT.—Plans have been accepted for new public library building, to cost $20,000, and tenders will be asked for at once.—A. J. Nelles, the promoter of the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore Railway, is endeavoring to interest J. W. Burke, of Wall street, New York, in the project. Accompanied by their engineer, Mr. Newman, they went over the proposed route last week. Mr. Burke is the owner of the electric railway at Sherbrooke, Que.

SAULT STE. MARIE, ONT.—Hamilton capitalists have purchased property and will construct an immense fueling and merchandise dock, at an expenditure of $50,000. William Southam, of Hamilton is interested.—H. R. Halton, architect, is taking tenders for erection of business block on Queen street.—D. and T. Dean, M. McFadden and others are