HAPPINESS OF MARRIAGE.—The happiness of the married life depends upon a power of making small sacrifices with readiness and cheerfulness. Few persons are ever called upon to make great sacrifices or to confer great favours; but affection is kept alive and happiness secured by keeping up a constant warfare against little selfishness.

LOVE NOT THE WORLD.—A strong love to the world and to the things of the world may be called the basest and most sordid of passions. The minister, or even the man in whom you discover it, you may safely mark down as one who loves neither God nor man. Neither devotion nor humanity can reside in the same breast with avarice.
